Election to Be Discussed
The senior B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church will hold a special meeting at 6 o'clock Sunday evening with Arlene Searcy in charge.

At that time election questions will be discussed with Shailer Peterson and Frances Taylor presenting the republican platform and Lawrence Prater and platform consideration.

Bolton Calkin will speak on prohibition, Howard Needham on the school building bill and Capt. Robert Thompson on the local candidates. Older folk of the congregation are invited to attend. The senior group will have a fellowship hour in Miss Ruy's apartment on second floor of the church after the evening service.

Guest soloists of the evening will be special guests.

Double Octet to Appear
Robert Gout, organist-director at the First Baptist church, announces that he will present a double octet at 7:30 Sunday evening. They will sing the cantata, "Hear My Prayer" (Mendelssohn) with soprano solos sung by Grace Burnett, anthem "Open Our Eyes" (MacFarlane), hymn "A Mighty Fortress is My God" (Luther).

Eugene Pearson will sing a solo, "Autumn Hill" (Gould). Miss Burnett and Mr. Pearson are active on the campus, both having received first place in respective groups in the water-kent contest recently held on the campus and both were heard over KEX last Sunday evening in the state contest.

To Speak Sunday
"Capital Punishment" will be the topic for the weekly co-operative service of the First Methodist, Episcopal, Congregational, and Central Presbyterian churches Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church. This is the final one in the series. The three pastors will talk on the subject. Rev. Mildred S. Weber from the Presbyterian church will talk on "Is Capital Punishment Effective?" Rev. Clay E. Palmer of the Congregational will talk on "Views of Lewis Laws, Rector at Sing Sing." Rev. Cecil F. Ristow from the M. E. church will discuss "How to Deal with the Criminals."

P. T. A. Plans Event
The Halloween carnival of the River Road Parent Teacher association will be an event of Friday evening at the school house. Mrs. A. B. Holman is chairman. A varied program of entertainment is planned, including a baby contest, "chamber of horrors," "the freaks," "picture taking," raffles, games, and a popularity contest, says the bulletin announcing the event. There is no admission charge but items will be sold for eating.

OFF TO CHICAGO

Betty Peckham, having won the SKIPPY contest featured over the Columbia Broadcasting system, by the manufacturers of WHEATIES of the Gold Medal Brand of General Mills, will be on her way to Chicago, leaving Eugene at 11:46 A. M. We all feel it is quite an honor for her to have won this contest. In open competition with all youngsters throughout the United States, Betty secured a total of 186,800 WHEATIES votes—the largest total scored by any contestant, and we all extend our thanks and appreciation to those who helped her win.

Betty will go to Chicago as an emissary of Eugene, Oregon, and the Northwest; here she will be entertained by "SKIPPY and CAROL" and will make her debut as a radio artist by broadcasting on the national hook-up of the Columbia Broadcasting system. She also carries with her letters of greetings from Mayor Large of Eugene to Mayor Carmack of Chicago, as well as an exchange of greetings from Eugene's Chamber of Commerce to the Chamber of Commerce of Chicago.

Come and bid Betty farewell, she will be at Ralph & Stanley's store in the Miner Building at 9 A. M. Saturday. If the youngsters have a message that they wish to send to SKIPPY, or SOOKIE or CAROL, Betty will be pleased to deliver it. Let's give her a real send-off. Don't forget 9 A. M. at Ralph & Stanley's store, Miner Building.
