

MANY EVENTS ON CALENDAR FOR COMING WEEK; CITY CLUB PLANS POLITICAL SESSION

Guest Day For L. O. E. Is Thursday

By MARIAN LOWRY

ALTHOUGH the week-end finds every one engrossed in making a success of the benefit card party given Friday afternoon for the benefit of the special radio fund being created to aid the university cause, several guests of interest are booked for the coming week.

The City club's political meeting is set for the coming Tuesday evening at the Community Liberal church.

Evangeline chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is entertaining with its reception for Mrs. William Jasper Kerr next Friday, November 4.

Guest day for women of Eugene will be held next Thursday afternoon by the Ladies of the Elks at the Elks temple.

Many of the smaller social clubs have events planned for the week-end.

TO MEDFORD

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reynolds are to be in Medford this week-end.

ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. J. H. Humphrey was hostess Tuesday for the meeting of the Hyla Bridge club. In two weeks, Mrs. Gaynor will entertain for the group.

KILL KARE MEETS

YOUR CHILDREN

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

FOR every time a child is disobedient there are a hundred times that he obeys.

Yet we don't often give him credit for those times. We jump on the one occasion when he has broken over.

Take the case of Mr. Robinson Smith.

Mr. Smith has many laws to obey. His country's laws, his city's laws, and the laws of his business. Even the laws of his doctor, who knows what is good for him—better than he knows himself.

Then, too, there are the laws of his home life. Unwritten, it is true, but there they are, the tenets of thousands of years standing.

Mr. Smith whips his son John and sends him to bed without his supper because he has been disobedient in one thing.

How About Dad?

Is his father perfectly obedient, too?

Well—he has always hooted at prohibition. He called it an unfair law, and because he thought it unfair he took it on himself to drink whenever and wherever he wanted to.

His state set the maximum speed for his car at 40 miles. Yet, whenever there was no motor cop in sight he did and does 50 or even 60. He weaves on the road and violates every signal he can get away with.

He knows the etiquette of golf—yet he has often driven before the man ahead had his second shot, and playing alone has walked through team matches.

He knows that he cannot eat red meat, yet he deliberately has it twice each day in large amounts. Hurting nobody but himself, he thinks. Well—perhaps that is what John thought when he climbed the scaffolding of a new building.

His wife is a fine woman and he loves her. Yet in his make-up there is a flirtatious streak that occasion-

Business Women Hold Social Meeting

The monthly social of the Eugene Business and Professional Women's club was held Thursday evening at the group's rooms in the chamber of commerce. Twenty-six were present. A short business meeting was held, followed by the social.

Mrs. Clarence A. Elkins was chairman for the evening, assisted by Miss Grace Taylor and Miss Sue Dorris.

The program for the year was given each member. The program is done in attractive design, listing all the meetings and events for the future for the club.

Games were played and at the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Elkins announced a play would be given. The play proved to be a burlesque wedding scene and the gifts to the bride proved to be a surprise shower of kitchen gifts for Mrs. Robert M. Fischer Jr. (Marian Lowry). After the play, refreshments were served.

The club's next meeting will come on November 10 when the monthly luncheon will be given.

Community Club's Program Held

About seventy-five attended the monthly supper and program of the College Crest Community club Thursday evening at the group's clubhouse. Mrs. Frank Rhodes, Mrs. A. B. Brown, Mrs. Hubert Moor, and Mrs. Truman Wills were the committee in charge.

Dot Dotson showed pictures of trips of the Obsidians for the program. The club's next meeting has been advanced a week and will come on the third Thursday of November.

C. E. Will Attend County Meeting

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 28. — (Special)—Members of the Christian Endeavor are planning to attend the county C. E. meeting in Eugene next Saturday evening. Bill Cox, president, announced Thursday.

All those going will meet at the Christian church at 7 o'clock Saturday evening and will go in a body. The meeting will begin at 7:30, and will be held at the Central Presbyterian church.

ally takes him afield. He expects his wife to be broad-minded and she is, yet he does not mind wounding her love and her pride over and over again.

All Have Faults

Mr. Robinson Smith thinks he is a pretty good average citizen. Not all average citizens have his faults (for all "faults" are disobedience to some code) but each has his share.

Mr. Smith is fairly obedient to business laws, but there are many who take advantage of loopholes.

Children grown up, all of us. Yet we make a tremendous racket over one infraction in a real child.

TODAY'S RECIPES

By SISTER MARY

NEARLY every mother in the land today is eagerly searching for ways and means to serve meals that will save money without sacrificing nourishment and deliciousness. Perhaps these recipes will help solve the problem because they are for dishes that look attractive and taste delicious, yet cost amazingly little.

Grilled Beef

One and one-half to two pounds round steak, 1-4 cup diced carrot, 1-4 cup diced turnip, 1 onion, 1 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon white pepper, 2 tablespoons flour.

Trim rim of fat from steak and try out in frying pan. Cut steak in pieces for serving and roll each piece in flour. Brown quickly in hot fat. Put vegetables into casserole or deep baking dish and add meat. Mince frying pan with 2 cups boiling water and pour over meat and vegetables. Season with salt and pepper, cover closely and bake three to four hours in a slow oven, 275 degrees F. Keep below the boiling point during the baking. Make a gravy with the liquid in the baking dish. Serve with mashed potatoes, buttered beans, head lettuce with French dressing to which chili sauce has been added and old-fashioned bread pudding with liquid sauce.

Old Fashioned Bread Pudding

The pudding can be baked at the same time the meat is baking.

Two cups stale bread crumbs, 2 cups milk, 1-3 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons butter, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup seeded raisins, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon.

Scald milk, add bread crumbs and let stand ten minutes. Add remaining ingredients and turn into a buttered baking dish. Bake one hour or until firm.

Liquid Sauce

One-half cup sugar, 2 teaspoons cornstarch, few grains salt, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla or 2 tablespoons lemon juice and a few grating of nutmeg, 1 cup boiling water.

Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt. Add water slowly, stirring constantly. Cook and stir over flame for five minutes. Cook over boiling water for fifteen minutes. Remove from heat and add butter and flavoring.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Apple sauce, cereal, cream, browned salt pork with milk, gravy, cornbread, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Toasted bacon and tomato sandwich, stuffed celery salad, ginger cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER: Baked spare ribs with dressing, sauerkraut baked with mashed potatoes, cranberry salad, prune whip with custard sauce, milk, coffee.

SPECIAL: Children's Halibut, 15c. CITY SHOP, 855 Oak St.

VOTERS OF OREGON

KILL IT ONCE MORE!

VOTE NO

ON REFERENDUM MEASURE 307

FOR the third time the Oregon Legislature has attempted to hinder the manufacture and sale of that vital food product, oleomargarine. Twice it has been voted down by the people. This third attempt is most vicious of all.

Over ten thousand families in Oregon are receiving public relief. There are more than seventy-five thousand unemployed in the state. Remember these people and vote against the Oleomargarine Tax.

Kill it now—before it can reach its greedy fingers into your home; into every home in Oregon. Kill it, or there will be other food gouges inflicted upon you.

Go to the polls next Tuesday, November 8. Vote 307 X NO.

Sponsored by Oregon Anti-Food Tax League
