

HOME COMING WILL BRING MANY OLD GRADS TO CAMPUS

Replies being received from former University of Oregon students by the alumni office there indicate that this year's homecoming celebration is attracting widespread interest among Oregon alumni.

On the program for the returning alumni is the frosh-rook game on Friday evening, to be preceded by the annual bonfire rally and pep parade.

The alumni have been actively opposing the bill since it was first proposed and have been carrying on a campaign seeking its defeat.

RADIO

TUESDAY, NOV. 1 KORE, Eugene—6:30 p. m., Eugene high school; 7:15, Twilight Show; 8:30, Furrance club; 9:30, L. B. Smith, speaking on truck bill; 10:15, news; 11:15, university dramatics; 12:30, Mike and Ike; 1:30, requests; 2:30, Eb and Zeb; 3:45, tunes you have forgotten.

KOAC, Corvallis—8 p. m., White-side theater organ; 9:30, in the day's news; 10:15, market and crop reports; and weather forecast; 11:15, Donald D. Hill, "Wheat Values For Feed and Milling"; 12:30, the citizen and his school; Delmer R. Dewey, "The Rural School of Tomorrow"; 1:30, the human side of banking; Prof. John M. Lee, "Emergency Aid in Finance and Banking"; 8, music of the masters; 8:15, Dr. Victor P. Morris, "The World in Review"; 8:30-9, Linfield college program.

KGO, Oakland—6 p. m., Music Garden; 6:30, Ed Wyns and band; 7, dance hour; 8, Amos 'n' Andy; 8:15, Memory Lane; 8:45, Kenneth Spencer, baritone; 9, waltz time; 9:30, Ben Bernie's orchestra; 10, news flash; 10:15, Phil Harris' orchestra; 10:35, Phil Harris' orchestra; 11:15, Earl Burnett's orchestra; 11:35-12, organ concert.

KFO, San Francisco—6 p. m., recollections; 6:45, Cecil and Sally; 7, Mona Lowe, blue singer; 7:15, Tartan of the Apes; 7:30, waltz time; 8, Western Artists series; 8:15, National Grand Opera company; 9, Ralph Kirberg, dream singer; 9:05, George Olsen's orchestra; 9:30, Story Teller; 10, Myron Nisley, tenor, and Austin Mosher, baritone; 10:15, Music Garden, soprano soloist and Emil Polak's orchestra; 10:45, Syuco-Thois, piano duo; 11, Stringwood Ensemble; 11:30 to 12, Tom Gerun's orchestra.

KNX, Los Angeles—6 news; 6:15, KNX Ensemble; 6:30, Oh-h-h Elmer; 6:45, Currier's Serenaders; 7, Frank Watanabe and Hon. Archie; 7:15, Rev. R. P. Shuler; 7:45, Tartan Transcription; 8, American Legion program; 8:30, Electric Transcription; 8:45, Golden Memories; 9, news; 9:15, KNX dance band; 10, KNX Ensemble; 11 to 12 midnight, New Paris Inn.

KGW, Portland—6, Studio program; 6:15, Piano duo; 6:25, All-Food Tax League; 6:30, NBC-KGO programs; 8:45, 8:45, Carson for Mayor; 9, music; 9:30, NBC-KGO programs; 10:15, 10:15, dancing with Vic Meyers; 11:15 to 12 midnight, The Evening Star.

VICKS COUGH DROP... All you've hoped for in a Cough Drop—medicated with ingredients of VICKS VAPORUS

COTTAGE GROVE NEWS ITEMS

COTTAGE GROVE, Nov. 1.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fullmer, spent Sunday in Eugene with Mr. Fullmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fullmer. They all celebrated Mr. Walter Fullmer's last day of work Monday the last of October as he then goes on a pension from the Southern Pacific for which he has worked the past 35 years in the preserving plant.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham with Mrs. Nancy Oglesby, Mrs. Carrie Homeaway and Mrs. Tillie Taylor spent Sunday at Winchester bay.

Lundy Woodson and family went to Marshfield Sunday and visited Mrs. Woodson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hiltchcock. Mrs. Woodson and baby remained for a longer visit. Mr. Woodson returning Sunday evening.

Mrs. O. V. Breesse spent Sunday in Corvallis with her son, Melvin Breesse, who is in O. S. C. this year.

Mrs. N. E. Compton went to Grants Pass Saturday and spent the weekend with the J. M. Isham family—the Isham family formerly were residents of Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brumbaugh and son came Saturday from the Delton and are visiting Mr. Brumbaugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brumbaugh, and Mrs. Brumbaugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cox.

The funeral of Mrs. C. L. Kellogg was held Monday afternoon at 2:30 from the Mills chapel Rev. M. A. Groves of the Methodist church officiating and Rev. I. G. Shaw of the Christian church assisting. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. and A. F. and A. M. cemetery.

A Halloween party was given by Miss Eleanor White Friday night at her home south of town. It was attended by 88 of the young people. Halloween games were played and rides and pumpkin pie were the refreshments. A rising vote of thanks was given by the Epworth to Miss Eleanor for the delightful party.

The aid society of the Christian ladies met Wednesday of this week for an all day meeting. A potluck dinner will be served at noon.

and took over her school. The firemen's hall on Saturday evening was a success, about 70 couples enjoying the evening. The boys use this money about their quarters and in fees.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Tedrow and David of Monmouth spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Young.

Wendling News. WENDLING, Nov. 1.—(Special).—Mrs. Helen Bell gave a masquerade Halloween party on Thursday evening at the grade school building for the pupils of the fifth and sixth grades. Those enjoying the evening were Carlene Abercrombie, Billy Mills, Sylvia Bertsch, Ralph Rogers, Jewell Fisher, Vern Bailey, Virginia Head, Lester Hall, Alice Bailey, Clarence Craig, Frances Burroughs, Ronald Roberts, Alfred Bailey, Billy Shackelford, Cecil Smith, Viola Taylor, Jerry Perry, Gene Perry, Muriel Dillon, George Hughes, Edgar Craig and Mrs. Bell.

Friday afternoon at the Wendling grade school the third and fourth grades, under the direction of Mrs. Loretta Heiser, presented the following program before the entire school and a large number of visiting parents: Halloween drill, by fourth grade; poem by Ronald Byers; exercise for Halloween by Prue Grant, Nellie Fisher, Arthur Dillon and Wayne Dillon; two songs by the school; poem, "Halloween," by Billy Abdous; play, "Jack-o-Lantern," by the third grade; poem, "My Jack-o-Lantern," by Betty Gard.

Friday evening the Marcola grade school teams met the Wendling grade school teams on the local grade school diamond. Marcola boys baseball team beat the Wendling boys by a score of 6 to 4. The Wendling girls won from the Marcola girls 19 to 15. The Marcola speed ball team won from Wendling speed ball team 19 to 6.

Friday evening the Wendling community hall was the scene of a masquerade dance given by the faculty of the Mohawk union high school for the high school pupils. The music was furnished by a local orchestra.

Friday evening, Geary Worth, principal of the Wendling grade school, gave a hard times party at the grade school building for the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades. Those attending the party were David Dillon, Gene Pattee, David Swending, Junior McBurney, Cecil Grant, Lorraine Lethy, Maude, Mattered, Marza Shackelford, James Smith, Harold Abell, Thomas Bertsch, Florabel Craig, Lee Craig, Mary McKillop, Marian Bertsch, Margarite Cartright, Goldie Hughes, Rita Abercrombie, Delmer Jattice, Georgiana Stratton, Kenneth Kennedy, Roy Rogers and Mr. Worth.

Miss Elizabeth Matteson entertained the following young people at the following young people at Saturday evening: Glen Ruthin, Otis Neet, Leslie Craig, Percy Gard, Melvin Spellmire, Mary Wojniak, Katherine Roberts, Ruth Matteson, and the hostess, Elizabeth Matteson.

Mrs. Faye Abrams, Mrs. William Sayles and Mrs. Roland Wicks entertained with a Halloween bridge party at the community hall on Saturday evening. Mrs. Watt won first prize for high score for the ladies and Mr. Abell first prize for the men. Consolation honors were won by Mrs. Abell and Mr. Taylor. Those attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Skorniechka, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoeflein, Mr. and Mrs. Boice Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Abell, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Alford and daughter, Mary Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watt and daughter, Shirley Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Geary Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe Allen, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Clive Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wicks, Mr. and Mrs. William Sayles, and Mr. and Mrs. Faye Abrams.

LYNX HOLLOW SCHOOL Has Party Friday. LYNX HOLLOW, Nov. 1.—(Special)—The Lynx Hollow school, district No. 80, entertained parents and friends with a Halloween party Friday afternoon. Following a short program of songs and dramatization a ball game was played between the Lynx Hollow grade boys and the Walker High school freshmen team. Score was 5 to 8 in favor of Walker. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knebel were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when a large number of their friends dropped in to help them celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary. They were presented with a beautiful china salad bowl.

The evening was spent in visiting and playing games and at midnight lunch was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knebel, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jozeg, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wynn and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase and children, Mrs. Leona Caruizind and son, John Mallette, Mrs. Kathryn Dyer, Robert Dorsey, Miss Dora Brantner, Mrs. Ernest Buchanan and Clovis, Lucille and Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knebel and family, Mr. Reichenstein.

WALTERVILLE PERSONALS. WALTERVILLE, Nov. 1.—(Special)—John Klokbusch Sr. was bitten by a dog at the Drury ranch Thursday and fire clips were necessary to close the wound on the right hand. A doctor's services were required.

Helen Marx was a guest Friday night at the home of Ruth Pollard in Springfield.

Mrs. Ray Perry and small daughter left the middle of the week for their home at Dreway after visiting a week or more with relatives at Waverlyville and Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Eugene took them home and returned the latter part of the week.

Kenneth Jennings came home Friday from Montana where he was working on a highway project for McNutt Brothers.

F. L. Cook of Eugene is to speak on a prohibition topic Tuesday evening at the Waverlyville church. Special music is also promised for the evening. The meeting is open to the public.

Miss Helen Marx will be hostess Tuesday evening for the Guild study meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Marx. The study will include parts of the shorter catechism as well as other topics to be brought up.

G. L. Willian of Upper Camp Creek was at Waverlyville Monday building new porch steps on the F. W. Page house.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nye are the parents of a baby girl born last Sunday morning. Mr. Nye is secretary of the Papke sawmill company.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wayne Stanard observed their 24th wedding anniversary here Friday, Oct. 28.

A roof and chimney fire damaged the country home of Harry Park Friday night and was with difficulty put out by friends and neighbors, assisted by the E. B. Smith family, now residing there. Mr. and Mrs. Park retired from the farm a few

JUNCTION CITY NEWS NOTES

JUNCTION CITY, Nov. 1.—(Special)—A meeting was held Sunday night at the Danish hall which was in the nature of a political meeting held for the purpose of allowing each of the three major parties to express their views as to why they should be supported at the coming election. H. P. Markusen, deputy assessor, spoke for the republicans, Edward Butler for the democrats and L. C. Larsen for the socialists. Each was given fifteen minutes, after which a general discussion was held.

Arthur Andersen, who is employed by the Southern Pacific here as a section worker, left Saturday for the S. P. hospital at San Francisco for medical treatment.

Mrs. Armintha Kaiser and Miss Kaye Grubshov left Sunday for Portland where they will purchase goods for the Kaiser store.

Angus Gibson, Sandy Petersen, Rinehart Petersen and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen were fishing on the Siuslaw near Mapleton Sunday. They report few fish caught on the trip.

Mrs. Etta Boone returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit at Willamits with Mr. and Mrs. Drake and at Corvallis with her sister, Mrs. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lehman and children drove to Portland Monday on a business and pleasure trip combined.

Monday, Miss Todd has had charge of the school the past six weeks.

Ralph Henderson, Chester Stevens, Lamerne Emper and Oleia Rar spent Sunday at the home of Warren Emper near McMinnville.

Mrs. Mary Lile of Salem was an over night guest of her niece, May Gardner on Saturday.

The finance committee of the P. T. A. has arranged for a benefit card party on the evening of November 18, probably at the W. O. W. hall. All the details have not been arranged.

Miss Ward, teacher in the Oak Grove school south of town, has finished her normal work at Monmouth school; poem, "Halloween," by Billy Abdous; play, "Jack-o-Lantern," by the third grade; poem, "My Jack-o-Lantern," by Betty Gard.

Friday evening the Marcola grade school teams met the Wendling grade school teams on the local grade school diamond. Marcola boys baseball team beat the Wendling boys by a score of 6 to 4. The Wendling girls won from the Marcola girls 19 to 15. The Marcola speed ball team won from Wendling speed ball team 19 to 6.

Friday evening the Wendling community hall was the scene of a masquerade dance given by the faculty of the Mohawk union high school for the high school pupils. The music was furnished by a local orchestra.

Friday evening, Geary Worth, principal of the Wendling grade school, gave a hard times party at the grade school building for the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades. Those attending the party were David Dillon, Gene Pattee, David Swending, Junior McBurney, Cecil Grant, Lorraine Lethy, Maude, Mattered, Marza Shackelford, James Smith, Harold Abell, Thomas Bertsch, Florabel Craig, Lee Craig, Mary McKillop, Marian Bertsch, Margarite Cartright, Goldie Hughes, Rita Abercrombie, Delmer Jattice, Georgiana Stratton, Kenneth Kennedy, Roy Rogers and Mr. Worth.

Miss Elizabeth Matteson entertained the following young people at the following young people at Saturday evening: Glen Ruthin, Otis Neet, Leslie Craig, Percy Gard, Melvin Spellmire, Mary Wojniak, Katherine Roberts, Ruth Matteson, and the hostess, Elizabeth Matteson.

Mrs. Faye Abrams, Mrs. William Sayles and Mrs. Roland Wicks entertained with a Halloween bridge party at the community hall on Saturday evening. Mrs. Watt won first prize for high score for the ladies and Mr. Abell first prize for the men. Consolation honors were won by Mrs. Abell and Mr. Taylor. Those attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Skorniechka, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoeflein, Mr. and Mrs. Boice Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Abell, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Alford and daughter, Mary Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watt and daughter, Shirley Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Geary Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe Allen, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Clive Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wicks, Mr. and Mrs. William Sayles, and Mr. and Mrs. Faye Abrams.

LYNX HOLLOW SCHOOL Has Party Friday. LYNX HOLLOW, Nov. 1.—(Special)—The Lynx Hollow school, district No. 80, entertained parents and friends with a Halloween party Friday afternoon. Following a short program of songs and dramatization a ball game was played between the Lynx Hollow grade boys and the Walker High school freshmen team. Score was 5 to 8 in favor of Walker. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knebel were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when a large number of their friends dropped in to help them celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary. They were presented with a beautiful china salad bowl.

The evening was spent in visiting and playing games and at midnight lunch was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knebel, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jozeg, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wynn and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase and children, Mrs. Leona Caruizind and son, John Mallette, Mrs. Kathryn Dyer, Robert Dorsey, Miss Dora Brantner, Mrs. Ernest Buchanan and Clovis, Lucille and Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knebel and family, Mr. Reichenstein.

WALTERVILLE PERSONALS. WALTERVILLE, Nov. 1.—(Special)—John Klokbusch Sr. was bitten by a dog at the Drury ranch Thursday and fire clips were necessary to close the wound on the right hand. A doctor's services were required.

Helen Marx was a guest Friday night at the home of Ruth Pollard in Springfield.

Mrs. Ray Perry and small daughter left the middle of the week for their home at Dreway after visiting a week or more with relatives at Waverlyville and Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Eugene took them home and returned the latter part of the week.

Kenneth Jennings came home Friday from Montana where he was working on a highway project for McNutt Brothers.

F. L. Cook of Eugene is to speak on a prohibition topic Tuesday evening at the Waverlyville church. Special music is also promised for the evening. The meeting is open to the public.

Miss Helen Marx will be hostess Tuesday evening for the Guild study meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Marx. The study will include parts of the shorter catechism as well as other topics to be brought up.

G. L. Willian of Upper Camp Creek was at Waverlyville Monday building new porch steps on the F. W. Page house.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nye are the parents of a baby girl born last Sunday morning. Mr. Nye is secretary of the Papke sawmill company.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wayne Stanard observed their 24th wedding anniversary here Friday, Oct. 28.

A roof and chimney fire damaged the country home of Harry Park Friday night and was with difficulty put out by friends and neighbors, assisted by the E. B. Smith family, now residing there. Mr. and Mrs. Park retired from the farm a few

Mr. and Mrs. Knebel Have Anniversary

LIBERTY, Nov. 1.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knebel were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when a large number of their friends dropped in to help them celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary. They were presented with a beautiful china salad bowl.

The evening was spent in visiting and playing games and at midnight lunch was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knebel, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jozeg, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wynn and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase and children, Mrs. Leona Caruizind and son, John Mallette, Mrs. Kathryn Dyer, Robert Dorsey, Miss Dora Brantner, Mrs. Ernest Buchanan and Clovis, Lucille and Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knebel and family, Mr. Reichenstein.

News of Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 1.—(Special)—The Lions club met Thursday evening for their regular peppy session and banquet. They listened to an address about current political issues by T. L. Thomas, of Marshfield. County Commissioner Henry Renninger and H. F. Warren were here from Albany one day this week to formulate plans to stop the Calapooia river in its encroachments on the bank south of the wagon bridge. The county rock crusher dredge is located there and is in some danger of being washed away.

Will R. Morgan, who has been a guard at the state penitentiary for many years, has now moved his family from Brownsville to Salem.

Andrew Livingston and Doyle Morgan have returned from Alaska and will spend the winter in Brownsville. They have been at work on fishing craft in the northern waters.

Miss Estella Shultz, who was recently struck over the head by an unknown assailant on the Oregon State college campus, is a former student at the Brownsville high school and is well known here. Crawfordville is her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nye are the parents of a baby girl born last Sunday morning. Mr. Nye is secretary of the Papke sawmill company.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wayne Stanard observed their 24th wedding anniversary here Friday, Oct. 28.

A roof and chimney fire damaged the country home of Harry Park Friday night and was with difficulty put out by friends and neighbors, assisted by the E. B. Smith family, now residing there. Mr. and Mrs. Park retired from the farm a few months ago and are now living in Salem.

Will Elmore, former resident, who recently suffered a broken leg in an automobile accident at Oakland, Cal., has been brought to this city to recuperate.

John Wirth, a farmer living east of Brownsville, has raised some remarkable corn this season. An ear of the Golden Globe variety measured 11 1/2 inches and another 11 inches. One of these prize winning ears had 18 rows of kernels while the other had 16 rows.

Tag day was held here for the benefit of the city library Saturday. The results were most gratifying as the sum of $35 was raised. The work was in charge of the members of the Woman's Study club who made a house-to-house canvass.

Halloween Party is Held at Noti. NOTI, Nov. 1.—(Special)—A Halloween party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Albro Saturday evening, Oct. 29. Several "spooky" games were played but the main feature of the evening was a "mysterious" lunch served by the hostess assisted by Kathleen Coleman, consisting of the following: Witch's brew, devil's broth with white cap, black cat draught, fried butterflies, pumpkin a-la-mode, hades special, astrologer's circles, Satan's special satiflier.

Out of town guests were: Irene Albro, Elmer Albro, Darthey Simpson, Thelma Payley, and Merle Albro all of Eugene. Others who attended were: Edith Hult, Zelpha Huston, Erma Huston, Margaret Wilson, Effie Montgomery, Georgia Kayser, Helen Huston, Oliver Kayser, Leon Huston, Sam Engles, Derral Eagan, Elynn Kayser, Chester Winters, Gordon Bourgeois, Paul Yarbrough, Martin Montgomery, and host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Albro and Kathleen Coleman.

Oakridge Personals. OAKRIDGE, Nov. 1.—(Special).—Miss Lila Schumacher spent the week-end in Junction City with her parents.

Miss Dorothy Long and Miss Dorothy Brude drove to Eugene Friday. Miss Anna Jeske of High Prairie spent the week-end here with friends.

Miss Erum Hills, Miss Kay Wilson and Mrs. Charlie Hills were Eugene shoppers Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Potter and Mr. and Mrs. A. Lombard of Eugene were recent visitors at their summer homes on Hills creek.

Vernon Sprague and Jimmie Brooks of Eugene were week-end guests of Gilbert Sprague.

Miss Vyzgal Brude returned to Monmouth Sunday after spending two days with her mother, Mrs. Peter Brude and sister, Miss Dorothy Brude.

Miss Eva Spatz and Miss Elsie Walker of Eugene were week-end visitors at the home of their parents.

Mrs. Fred Richter and Mrs. Chas. Croner attended the A. L. auxiliary tea given at the Osburn hotel, Thursday afternoon, honoring Mrs. S. S. George, state president of the organization.

Fall Creek Items. FALL CREEK, Nov. 1.—(Special)—Mrs. George Giebisch of Bend visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kintzley one day last week.

Bert Logan is home again after being away on a lookout job all summer. Jim Moore is able to be out again after having undergone an operation for appendicitis.

C. W. Luckey of Burns was here Sunday calling on his cousin, Orville Kissinger.

Frank Kintzley is home after working for the government through the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carey of Eugene were visitors at the A. Kintzley home. Mrs. Carey is a sister of Mr. Kintzley.

Hogs are frequently seen to kill and eat snakes—even rattlesnakes. In some sections where snakes are pests, a few hogs will clean them out in no time.

Walterville Personals

WALTERVILLE, Nov. 1.—(Special)—John Klokbusch Sr. was bitten by a dog at the Drury ranch Thursday and fire clips were necessary to close the wound on the right hand. A doctor's services were required.

Helen Marx was a guest Friday night at the home of Ruth Pollard in Springfield.

Mrs. Ray Perry and small daughter left the middle of the week for their home at Dreway after visiting a week or more with relatives at Waverlyville and Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Eugene took them home and returned the latter part of the week.

Kenneth Jennings came home Friday from Montana where he was working on a highway project for McNutt Brothers.

F. L. Cook of Eugene is to speak on a prohibition topic Tuesday evening at the Waverlyville church. Special music is also promised for the evening. The meeting is open to the public.

Miss Helen Marx will be hostess Tuesday evening for the Guild study meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Marx. The study will include parts of the shorter catechism as well as other topics to be brought up.

G. L. Willian of Upper Camp Creek was at Waverlyville Monday building new porch steps on the F. W. Page house.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nye are the parents of a baby girl born last Sunday morning. Mr. Nye is secretary of the Papke sawmill company.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wayne Stanard observed their 24th wedding anniversary here Friday, Oct. 28.

A roof and chimney fire damaged the country home of Harry Park Friday night and was with difficulty put out by friends and neighbors, assisted by the E. B. Smith family, now residing there. Mr. and Mrs. Park retired from the farm a few months ago and are now living in Salem.

Will Elmore, former resident, who recently suffered a broken leg in an automobile accident at Oakland, Cal., has been brought to this city to recuperate.

John Wirth, a farmer living east of Brownsville, has raised some remarkable corn this season. An ear of the Golden Globe variety measured 11 1/2 inches and another 11 inches. One of these prize winning ears had 18 rows of kernels while the other had 16 rows.

Tag day was held here for the benefit of the city library Saturday. The results were most gratifying as the sum of $35 was raised. The work was in charge of the members of the Woman's Study club who made a house-to-house canvass.

Halloween Party is Held at Noti. NOTI, Nov. 1.—(Special)—A Halloween party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Albro Saturday evening, Oct. 29. Several "spooky" games were played but the main feature of the evening was a "mysterious" lunch served by the hostess assisted by Kathleen Coleman, consisting of the following: Witch's brew, devil's broth with white cap, black cat draught, fried butterflies, pumpkin a-la-mode, hades special, astrologer's circles, Satan's special satiflier.

Out of town guests were: Irene Albro, Elmer Albro, Darthey Simpson, Thelma Payley, and Merle Albro all of Eugene. Others who attended were: Edith Hult, Zelpha Huston, Erma Huston, Margaret Wilson, Effie Montgomery, Georgia Kayser, Helen Huston, Oliver Kayser, Leon Huston, Sam Engles, Derral Eagan, Elynn Kayser, Chester Winters, Gordon Bourgeois, Paul Yarbrough, Martin Montgomery, and host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Albro and Kathleen Coleman.

Oakridge Personals. OAKRIDGE, Nov. 1.—(Special).—Miss Lila Schumacher spent the week-end in Junction City with her parents.

Miss Dorothy Long and Miss Dorothy Brude drove to Eugene Friday. Miss Anna Jeske of High Prairie spent the week-end here with friends.

Miss Erum Hills, Miss Kay Wilson and Mrs. Charlie Hills were Eugene shoppers Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Potter and Mr. and Mrs. A. Lombard of Eugene were recent visitors at their summer homes on Hills creek.

Vernon Sprague and Jimmie Brooks of Eugene were week-end guests of Gilbert Sprague.

Miss Vyzgal Brude returned to Monmouth Sunday after spending two days with her mother, Mrs. Peter Brude and sister, Miss Dorothy Brude.

Miss Eva Spatz and Miss Elsie Walker of Eugene were week-end visitors at the home of their parents.

Mrs. Fred Richter and Mrs. Chas. Croner attended the A. L. auxiliary tea given at the Osburn hotel, Thursday afternoon, honoring Mrs. S. S. George, state president of the organization.

Fall Creek Items. FALL CREEK, Nov. 1.—(Special)—Mrs. George Giebisch of Bend visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kintzley one day last week.

Bert Logan is home again after being away on a lookout job all summer. Jim Moore is able to be out again after having undergone an operation for appendicitis.

C. W. Luckey of Burns was here Sunday calling on his cousin, Orville Kissinger.

Frank Kintzley is home after working for the government through the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carey of Eugene were visitors at the A. Kintzley home. Mrs. Carey is a sister of Mr. Kintzley.

Hogs are frequently seen to kill and eat snakes—even rattlesnakes. In some sections where snakes are pests, a few hogs will clean them out in no time.

Walterville Personals

WALTERVILLE, Nov. 1.—(Special)—John Klokbusch Sr. was bitten by a dog at the Drury ranch Thursday and fire clips were necessary to close the wound on the right hand. A doctor's services were required.

Helen Marx was a guest Friday night at the home of Ruth Pollard in Springfield.

Mrs. Ray Perry and small daughter left the middle of the week for their home at Dreway after visiting a week or more with relatives at Waverlyville and Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Eugene took them home and returned the latter part of the week.

Kenneth Jennings came home Friday from Montana where he was working on a highway project for McNutt Brothers.