THE TRUTH ABOUT THE INCOME TAX BILL
No measure ever before the people of Oregon has been more viciously misrepresented, both as to its purpose and its specific provisions than the proposed amendment to the state income tax act on which you are asked to pass judgment next Tuesday.

The Income Tax
Provides a sound, fair and necessary substitute for property taxes; Would reduce the crushing tax load now resting on real property; Would produce no additional money for anyone to spend, the law requiring that every dollar collected must be used to retire direct state taxes on property; Would not impose on the laboring man or the small wage earner as a married man with no children could earn $5 a day every working day in the year and still pay no income tax; Is based on net incomes, after deducting interest, donations and other taxes paid, and not on the gross income; Does not require a tax return unless the net annual income exceeds $1000 in the case of single persons and $1500 in the case of married persons.

IF YOU WOULD EXTEND BADLY NEEDED RELIEF TO THE OVER-BURDENED PROPERTY OWNER AND SPREAD THE TAX BURDEN OVER A BROADER FIELD AND MORE IN ACCORDANCE WITH TAX-PAYING ABILITY
