NEWER THAN PAJAMAS, and much more feminine and flattering, are the season's negligees. They incorporate into their loveliness the new low shoulders, full sleeves, high necklines and fitted waistsline effects of winter's formal gowns for formal occasions. This luscious negligee, worn by Ginger Rogers, is in a soft orchid tone. It is made of velvet, and the soft sheen of the fabric plus its chic cut make it tremendously smart. Around the molded waistline section there is a corded sash of chenille that ties low to give the impression of Patou's new low waistline. The sandals alternate in orchid and silver straps.

ALPHA CIRCLE

The monthly meeting of the Alpha circle of the First Baptist church will be held Tuesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock at the church. "Women of New China" is the subject and Mrs. Brown will be leader. Mrs. E. M. Krutzel and Mrs. Cuddelback are hostesses. Mrs. C. C. Hewitt and Mrs. William Longworth are in charge of arrangements.

TODAY'S RECIPES
By SISTER MARY

POPULAR AND DELECTABLE as they are, flapjacks are not a suitable daily food for the person of sedentary habits. With this in mind, many mothers like to serve them as an occasional treat.

Since the ingredients for making griddle cakes are always at hand, they make an excellent emergency dish for a simple and satisfying luncheon or supper.

Some of the varieties of griddle cakes which we have borrowed from European countries are substantial enough for main dishes. The addition of meat or vegetables changes them from a bread substitute to a hearty concoction to serve with gravy.

The English method of serving plain wheat cakes adds interest to a company breakfast or Sunday evening supper. The cakes are baked as large as a supper plate and are spread as they are baked with butter and jelly, or sugar and marmalade, and are piled one above the other. They must be kept warm until all are baked. Cut in wedge-shaped pieces, pie fashion, to serve.

French pancakes are spread with butter and jelly creamed together and rolled quickly like a jelly roll. Each roll is dredged with powdered sugar. The finishing touch is added by scoring the sugar by burning with a red hot poker. The poker, of course, was previously cleaned carefully. The cakes are quite as good without this last procedure, but they look quite intriguing and unusual.

Potato Griddle Cakes

Two cups grated raw potato, 2 eggs, 2-3 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 4 tablespoons milk.

Par potatoes and let stand in cold water for several hours. Drain grated potato. Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder and add to first mixture. Beat well and add milk gradually. Drop from tip of beating spoon onto well greased griddle. Bake until brown first on one side and then on the other. Serve hot.

Bread crumb griddle cakes use stale bread crumbs to advantage.

Bread Crumb Griddle Cakes

One and one-half cups fine stale bread crumbs, 2 cups hot milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoons baking powder.

Combine crumbs and milk and beat until smooth. Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder and add with remaining ingredients. Bake on a hot griddle and serve hot.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Iced tomato juice, cereal, cream, poached eggs with milk toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Cream of celery soup, toasted crackers, radishes, bread crumb pancakes, brown sugar syrup, sweet cider.

DINNER: Braised beef, baked squash, cabbage and celery salad, grape juice sponge, milk, coffee.

Flawless emeralds are very rare and are about twice as costly as diamonds of the same size.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Wed 50 Years Nov. 12

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey are to observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary next Saturday, November 12.

The event will be celebrated on Sunday, however. A dinner for the family will be given and during the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will hold open house at their residence for relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were married November 12, 1882, at the residence of Mrs. Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Flint, five miles west of Eugene. Mr. Bailey is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey of the Bailey Hill section.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey have four children living, all of whom will be here for the golden wedding anniversary. The children are Mrs. C. A. Doran of Portland, Mrs. J. B. Stam of Seattle, Edward F. Bailey of Eugene, and Mrs. Harold A. Moore of Portland. There are eight grandchildren, Thomas and Edward Doran of Portland, Dorothy, Carol, and Marfan Stam of Seattle, Berton and Priscilla Moore of Portland, and John Edward Bailey of Eugene.

Laurel and Hardy Film Is Pleasing

Laurel and Hardy, funny men of the screen, returned to the McDonald Sunday in their latest full length comedy, "Pack Up Your Troubles." Jacqui Lyn, little three-year-old tot, comes close to stealing the show in spite of the fact the comedians are at their best.

Laurel and Hardy appear as a pair of recruits in the army who have been instructed never to ask questions, but to do as they're told. This involves them in numerous difficulties, all amusing.

Charles Farrell, John Bennett and Ralph Bellamy will come to the McDonald Tuesday and Wednesday in "Wild Girl," based on Bret Harte's famous story, "Salomy Jane's Kiss."

What are Your Answers Mr. Van Winkle?

The taxpayers have a right to know the answers to these questions. I am asking you for them.

Alfred P. DOBSON

1. WHAT'S the matter with your office? You have been Attorney General for 12 years. You claim to have the ability and experience to handle state legal matters. Why, then, do you spend taxpayers' money for special prosecutors and counsel? Approximately $15,000 has or will be paid for work done within the past 6 months—work you should have done. Why?

2. WHY did you lend the prestige of your name to the J. C. Dennis Co. and the International Airbrake Control Co.? How much stock in these companies do you own? Where did you get it? How was it paid for? What has the Airbrake Company to show for the $674,321 worth of stock sold to the people by high pressure salesmen using your name? You knew the permit to sell this stock had been canceled on two or three occasions. In fact, you lent your name not only to the sale of the above stock but also for an additional 40,000 shares of Brake stock, permit for which was issued in June or July, while at the same time, in writing, approved employment of special assistant to prosecute other state officials for substantially the same thing. (Vouchers No. 732,250, No. 744,140 and others, Secretary State's office)

3. WHAT do you mean in your public statement when you say "fitness, honesty and economical efficiency"? Or have you forgotten your trip to Boston? Vouchers No. 802,020 and No. 824,394 show you spent $700 on this trip for yourself and your assistant. Was the trip necessary? Who was this "assistant"? Will you debate this in public? And, how about the auto expense for your private car paid from public funds?

You have had many weeks to answer the above questions. Your alleged "Plain Statements of Fact and Law" wholly ignores these vital questions.
