

GIVE THANKS IN EVERYTHING SAYS PASTOR IN SERMON

"In Everything Give Thanks" was the topic discussed for the sermon of Rev. Errol B. Sloan, pastor of the Fairmount Christian church, in his Thanksgiving Sunday morning sermon yesterday.

His sermon in part follows:

"At first glance, this admonition by the Apostle Paul would seem impossible. But I am sure Paul would command nothing unreasonable or impossible, so we shall have to see how we can give thanks to God for everything. For this means that we shall give thanks in joy and in sorrow, in health and in sickness, in prosperity and in adversity, when the skies are bright and when they are overcast and clouded.

"One requisite to this achievement is faith; faith in God which will enable us to rise above our circumstances; faith which tells us that even adversity, through the power of God, can work for our benefit and be a subject for praise. The block of marble must have faith in the sculptor as he piles it with hammer and chisel but out of those hard blows comes a fine piece of statuary or a beautiful piece to decorate some stately building.

"If we are properly to give thanks to God, we must not allow the blessings of others to blind us to our own. King Saul forgot his own blessings, privileges and possessions when he heard David being praised. We think our Ford is pretty good until we notice someone else driving a Packard. But let us forget the other fellow's blessings and note the ones which we have ourselves.

"We must not forget to give thanks for the common, every-day things of life. According to an old story, one day the sun failed to rise. People soon became worried; noon came and still no sun to gladden the earth. The churches were crowded with people praying to God. No one slept that night. As the time for dawn approached, every eye was turned eagerly toward the east. The sky became tinted yellow, then red, and soon the fiery disk of the sun was seen coming over the horizon. All broke into a glad song of praise. How they praised God for the sunshine once more! But it had never occurred to them to be thankful for the sun shining every day. We are apt to overlook the common blessings of life and take them for granted.

"Then, if we are to give thanks in everything we must cultivate the habit of giving thanks. God is love and therefore likes to be loved and appreciated; likes to be thanked. One of Christ's sad experiences was when he healed the ten lepers and only one returned to thank him. He cried out, 'Here is come the one, but where are the nine?' God wonders where many of us are when we ought to be before his throne expressing the thanksgiving and gratitude of our hearts. Contrast to this, Mary who came and broke a precious cruse of ointment and anointed the head of the master. Some present rebuked her for it. Christ commended her for it. He said, 'She hath come aforetime.' She came and thanked him while he was yet living. She did not forget. Let us not forget. Let us aim at this high ideal which the apostle puts before us, 'In everything give thanks.'

"Body and Soul" Is Subject For Sunday Lesson

"Soul and Body" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Nov. 20. The Golden Text was, "I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope" (Ps. 130:5).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness" (Ps. 17:15).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is objected to Christian Science that it claims God as the only absolute Life and Soul, and man to be His idea—that is, His image. It should be added that this claim is made because the Scriptures say that God has created man in His own image and after His likeness" (p.344).

ROADSHOW PLANNED FOR MARX COMEDY

A real "deluxe" roadshow which is expected to set a new entertainment mark in Eugene will be accorded "Horsefeathers," the four Marx brother's sensation when it comes to the Colonial theater this week, according to Glen Godfrey, promotion manager.

The "deluxe" roadshow will be presented on Wednesday night the first day of the four-day run. In addition to "Horsefeathers" a 40 minute stage show will be offered featuring the Colonial Serranders, an eight-piece band, and vaudeville acts and skits.

Several first-run short subjects, the best comedies that can be obtained, will be added to the program. These include Andy Clyde, ace comedian, in "Sunkist Sweeties" and one of the famous Baby Burlesque series, "Pie Covered Wagon."

All seats will be reserved on Wednesday the opening night. They may be obtained at the box office or reserved by telephone.

"Horsefeathers" has won high praise from every movie critic in the country. Such publications as Liberty, New Yorker, Time, and others give it the highest rating and declare it to be a picture which should not be missed. Although like other Marx brother's productions it is based on sheer nonsense, it is crammed with laughs from beginning to end.

The roadshow Wednesday will start promptly at 7:45 and patrons are urged to be on hand at this time. For those who do not have opportunity to come on Wednesday night, the picture will be shown continuously on Thursday from 2 until 11, Friday night and Saturday matinee and evening.

"Back Street" Is Noteworthy Drama

As a human drama of human hearts, no motion picture shown on a local screen in several seasons has excelled "Back Street," the Universal screen play which opened Sunday at the Fox-McDonald theater. This noteworthy production is an adaptation of Fannie Hurst's widely read story of the same name, and the film version does full justice to the original novel.

Irene Dunne, who plays the leading feminine role, is delightful as the spirited young girl who finds true love when she least expected it, and gives us everything else in life to follow the dictates of her heart. That her lover is a married man cannot prevent an affair which continues over a span of twenty years. The principal male part is played by John Boles, whose fame as a singer has given way to an established reputation as an actor.

Jane Clyde, William Bakewell, Arlette Duncan, Davis Lloyd, George Menckey, Walter Catlett, Paul Weisler, Jane Darwell and others do sterling work in "Back Street," and round out a cast of players of unusual excellence.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by John Charlton, after the famous painting depicting the heroic Charge of the Light Brigade in the face of a withering fire at the battle of Balaclava in the Crimean War (1854). "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies—that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
