

WALTERVILLE PLANS CHRISTMAS PARTY

WALTERVILLE, Dec. 20.—(Special.)—The Walterville Sunday school has definitely set the date for the Christmas program as Saturday evening, Dec. 24, at the church. Solicitors were out the first of the week for the candy treats and any others who wish to subscribe for the tree may do so by seeing Mrs. A. K. Jennings at the Jennings service station before Wednesday. Practicing by the young people of the Sunday school is going forward this week.

Beth Jennings was honored last Wednesday evening with a skating party at the hill pond at the former Green mill site where several of the young people honored her on her birthday anniversary. Roasting marshmallows and skating furnished the entertainment for the evening. Guests present were John Dale Adams, Morris Stewart and Alice Thatcher of Springfield, Lucille Millican, Edith Dunlap of Salem, Jackie Dunlap, Mrs. Ralph Dunlap, Ivan Carney, Joe Devor, Robert Millican, Kenneth Jennings, Mrs. Lee Korn and Beth Jennings. A large number of skating parties were held during the winter weather but with the breaking up of the pond with other forms of entertainment were found.

The local neighbors of Woodcraft held their annual Christmas party last Friday evening with a six o'clock dinner at their hall, and then the members and their guests enjoyed games, visiting and needlework until a late hour. Between 40 and 50 were reported present and several were there for the dinner and several for the entertainment for the evening. No present exchange was made this year. The dinner was postponed during the middle of the week but with the warmer weather the social evening was held.

The Walterville union Ladies Aid bazaar is to be held Tuesday evening, Dec. 20, at the upper R. N. O. W. hall in Walterville. Articles of needlework, pie, coffee and candy will be on sale. A short program will be rendered that evening and will consist of music by the Eastern orchestra, with Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Easton and daughter, Gail, playing. Violin music by O. L. Stack, Mel Couch and Mrs. Everett Weir at the organ. Solos and readings.
