"Jason Lee" Topic For Beekman Prize History Contest

The Oregon Historical society has selected "Jason Lee" as the subject for the 1933 C. C. Beekman history prizes and medals. The prizes are four in number: First, $80; second, $50; third, $40; and fourth $30; and will be awarded for the best four original essays on the above subject written and submitted by girls or boys over 15 years of age and under 18 years of age, attending any public or private school, academy, university, or any private educational institution in the state of Oregon. Each of the four prize winners will receive a handsome bronze medal besides. The conditions governing the competition are as follows:

The essay submitted in competition must not exceed 2000 words in length. It may be in handwriting or in typewritten form, preferably upon paper of commercial letter size, either ruled or unruled, the several sheets being numbered consecutively and written on one side only, with blank space of about one and one-quarter inches at top and left hand margin.

The essay shall be accompanied by a separate sheet containing the name and postoffice address of the writer, the date of his or her birth, and the name of the school attended. There shall be also delivered with the essay a certificate signed by a teacher or instructor of the educational institution attended, stating that the writer of the essay is a pupil of that school. In order to be considered in competition the essay must be delivered, by mail or in person, to the Oregon Historical society, room C, Public Auditorium, 253 Market street, Portland, Ore., not later than March 16, 1933. All essays submitted in the competition will be numbered and submitted, without the names of the writers or other identifying marks, to three judges selected by the undersigned committee.

Los Angeles Man Acquires Lane Farm
A farm of 384 acres owned by T. E. Edwards in the Cloverdale section between Creswell and Pleasant Hill, has been sold to C. H. Holden of Los Angeles. Possession will be taken at once by Mr. Holden's son-in-law, who will operate the farm. Mr. Holden is a member of the police force at Los Angeles and will remain there until he retires and then will move to the farm which he has just acquired.
This is one of the best farms in that section of the county and is fully equipped with beef and dairy cattle, sheep and other livestock and farm machinery.
The deal was negotiated by the McCully Realty company.
