At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Harriet Schreck to the following members and visitors: Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Schreck, Mrs. Stafford, Virginia Staff, Mrs. Danielson, Mrs. Kindt, Mrs. Durigan, Alice Cochran, Norma and Shirley Schreck, Betty Lou Durigan, Mrs. Danielson, Lloyd Durigan, Mrs. Hardie and Margie Flanagan.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 1. The place has not yet been decided on.

News of Halsey

HALEY, Dec. 29.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Moody and children, Cedric and Sarah Cordeau, of Portland, arrived in Halsey Saturday to spend Christmas with Mr. Moody's brother, Fred Moody, and family at Pine Grove. They returned to their home Monday and were accompanied by Mrs. Fern Rossman, who will visit for a few days until her folks go after her the last of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Tuthill of Oakland, Ore., are here visiting for a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Adrian Smith and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cummings and daughter, Lucille, motored to Eugene Sunday and had Christmas dinner with Mrs. Cummings' sister, Mrs. Elsie Brown and family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Taylor had as their Christmas guests Mrs. Taylor's sisters, Anna Drinkard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenks of Tangent and Mr. and Mrs. D. Taylor and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin L. Vannice and family had a real Christmas present this year, in spite of the depression, when a bouncing boy was born to them Saturday at the Junction City hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Kropf are also enjoying over the birth of a daughter born to them Friday, December 24. Twin daughters were born but one died. This is the second daughter in the family.

The children of the Grasshopper school and their teacher, Mrs. Alice Leach, and some of the parents enjoyed a real old-fashioned Christmas dinner Friday, the last day of school before the vacation. All received a splendid treat.

Both of the local churches had Christmas programs Sunday evening at the regular church hour. A miscellaneous program was given at the Methodist Episcopal church. This was followed by all receiving treats of oranges, candy and nuts. A playette was enjoyed at the Church of Christ. The treat was attended by a full house and treats were also given to the members there.

J. U. Goude of Mapleton came Saturday evening to the country home of his old friend, A. E. Whitbeck, and his wife where he visited until Tuesday. He is a teacher in the grade school at Cushman, brought him gifts and a letter from his family. He will spend the vacation with relatives. Mrs. Louise Bond spent Christmas visiting her children, Mrs. Elbert and Mrs. Chester Sickels.

Junction City News

JUNCTION CITY, Dec. 29.—(Special)—Mrs. C. Michaels was in Eugene Tuesday to visit her father who is just undergone an operation at a Northwest hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blackwell of Bridge and Mr. and Mrs. B. Bryant of Baker are spending the holiday week at the T. A. Dorsey home.

Miss Mary Nelson was hostess to her friends Tuesday evening. Progressive 500 was played, the girls were on route to Oakland and the boys were on route to Eugene. Mrs. Beck, Jim Weber, Bill Johnson, Robert Beck, Ethel Leach, A. Peterson, Lella Gardner, Viola Baker, Gretchen Mowins, and the others, Mrs. Nelson.

Prof. Weber and most of the family are confined to their home with the flu.

Frank Ballard thinks this an opportune time to go into the chicken business, that is if you get the right kind of chickens. He has just received a pair of six speckled Sussex from Henry Fields of Iowa. With this kind of a start he expects great things.

Statistics show that only one out of every 200,000 letters mailed in the United States is lost before delivery.

Mr. Moore was instrumental in the instituting of the Creswell chapter of Eastern Star and twenty-one years ago Tuesday evening he and Mrs. K. B. Melton served as installing officers for the orders. Mrs. Melton and others including visiting members responded with talks. Mrs. Adams, worthy matron, appointed the following committees to serve for the new year: Finance, Mrs. W. W. Lower; Mrs. Cora Olson, C. L. Weber; relief, Mrs. J. E. Woodson, Mrs. W. O. Spencer, Mrs. Genevieve Thompson, C. D. D. F. Scott and W. T. Land. A social time followed the business and refreshments of apple pie with whipped cream and coffee were served. The Springfield group numbered eleven.

Christmas greens and wreaths added to the festive spirit at the regular meeting of the Creswell Civic club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Ed Anderson presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. M. A. Horn. Annual reports were given by the officers. Sixty-five members were listed on the report. Mrs. G. H. Davidson, Mrs. C. E. Wright, Mrs. F. K. Nordhoff, Mrs. Ed Anderson and Mrs. C. I. Kent had attended each meeting of the past year. Greetings were read from Mrs. C. W. Dixon who holds her membership here although a non-resident and who was president of the group when she left Creswell. The club voted to amend the bylaws and reduce the dues to $1 per year. The new year books were distributed and the members were very well pleased with the work done by the Art club of the local high school. The following committees will serve for 1933: Civic, Mrs. Ed Anderson, Mrs. J. M. Walkup, Mrs. W. W. Spencer, Mrs. Ethel Everson, Mrs. W. S. Gillweaver; child welfare, Mrs. C. H. Sedwick; Mrs. Blanche Gwy-

COTTAGE GROVE NEWS ITEMS

COTTAGE GROVE, Dec. 29.—(Special)—A special service of vesper services will be held each Sunday during the month of January at the Methodist church. The services are built around the five parables of Jesus. In each service there will be appropriate congregational singing, special music and singing and a tableau. The scripture used enacted as though on the pages of the Bible itself as the passage is read. The parables used will be: Jan. 1, "The Sower and the Seed"; Jan. 8, "The Pharisee and the Publican"; Jan. 15, "The Lost Sheep"; Jan. 22, "The Good Samaritan"; Jan. 29, "The Good Shepherd." In the tableaux will include orchestra numbers, a mixed quartet, vocal solo, response, procession and anthem by the choir. The tableau will be "The Sower" and sermon topic, "The Sower, Seed, and Soil." The Young People of the Methodist church sang carols to the sick and shut-ins of the community Sunday evening. The high school people of the Methodist church will have a watch party in the church Saturday evening.

Sidnor H. Vaughn, who died Monday at the home of James Aldridge eight miles west of Lane, was one of the oldest persons born in Lane county. He was born at Cloverdale Oct. 20, 1855, and died nearly all of his life in this county. He was the oldest child of Squire Vaughn and had a brother, Albert Vaughn, in Seattle. His daughter, Mrs. Esther Harklerod, and husband, came from Blaine, Wash. The funeral will be Friday morning at 10:30 from Mills chapel.
