NEW LOAF HAS EXTRA NOURISHMENT VALUE

Improved Bread Carries Additional Calories and Proteins

Both children and adults need extra proteins (tissue building elements) and calories (energy producing food) these winter days.

To supply these important food elements, we have developed a wonderful new loaf of bread. Williams XXX loaf is a development and improvement on the Malted Milk formula which we put out a few years ago.

Into it we have put extra nourishment in the form of 5% butterfat, whole milk, malt and added sugar, special high grade flour and the finest shortening.

In addition we have developed a new, balanced recipe which makes XXX easier for the stomach to digest. All the nourishment in this loaf is easily and quickly turned into body building energy.

There is no other bread like Williams XXX. It has a delicate flavor all its own. Try a loaf. Buy it instead of ordinary bread. Full 1½ pound loaf at no advance in price. Order from your grocer today. Williams Bakery, Eugene, Oregon.
