

LINN COUNTY MILL STARTS OPERATION

BROWNSVILLE, Jan. 6.—(Special)—The Papke sawmill, in the Courtney district, is now operating and has orders, it is said for 30 carloads of lumber and ties, and can easily keep busy until early summer. About 85 persons reside at the mill. The mill is handicapped, however, in getting its product out over the unimproved part of the road between Brownsville and the mill. Funds for bettering the road have not as yet been supplied.

In honor of Delbert Starr's 36th birthday, Mrs. Starr entertained a full house of invited guests Tuesday evening at the Starr home. Seven tables of bridge were in play and refreshments were served after Mrs. Lamont Samuelson had been declared winner of high score. Delbert's birthday cake was a beauty and was just as good as it was lovely.

Mrs. Mary Sawyer caught her hand in a wringer this week and a physician found it necessary to take 20 stitches in order to close the wound.

Mrs. Fred Weber is recovering from a fall which resulted in the breaking of her shoulder.

Mrs. Louis Elmore is still bedded by reason of her broken arm. Nell Newland, a woolen mill employe, is suffering from a badly cut wrist.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sturges, of Grants Pass, who have observed their 60th wedding anniversary, are visiting here at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. V. Dorsee. They are former residents of Brownsville.

Mrs. Park Beatty has received word of the death of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Halston, at the age of 105 years. Mrs. Halston died in Los Angeles.

Lower Lobster Valley

LOWER LOBSTER VALLEY, Jan. 6.—(Special)—The Lobster people awoke Monday morning and found the river out of its banks and still rising. This is the highest known for several years. The river was in the road so deep above the Phillips place the mail carrier had to leave the truck and carry the mail on foot until he could get another car.

Mr. and Mrs. John Orr, left Wednesday morning for Salem, where they will look after business interests and visit relatives a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Beard of Portland spent several days of last week at the McSheery home.

Miss Norma Edwards, teacher at Mr. Dell school, returned Monday after spending the holidays at home in Newport. On account of high water she had to leave the car at Earl Phillip's, and walk on to her boarding place at Lloyd Lance's.

Harry Prindel of Paris was a caller at Ray Taylor's home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Selts and family from Crow spent New Year's here, with Mrs. Selts' mother, Mrs. Ross.

Vern Follert, is now carrying mail on the Alsea-Paris route.
