

WESTFIR HAS BIG NEW YEAR'S PARTY

WESTFIR, Jan. 5.—(Special)—Westfir folks were privileged to enjoy a varied program of entertainment on New Year's eve. At six o'clock a banquet consisting of turkey with more than the usual accompanying trimmings was served in the large dining room at the Westfir house. About 50 were present to enjoy the dinner, which was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stockman, assisted by Mrs. Parker Gray. The dining hall was decorated with garlands of red and green, and with clusters of evergreens. A nicely decorated tree graced one corner of the room while the tables held centerpieces of fruit each topped with a red candle. Interesting favors marked places for the guests and added further to the enjoyment of all. Much credit is due to Mr. Larson for the successful undertaking of the party.

A comedy picture was presented at the community hall in the early evening. Following the show the floor was cleared for dancing.

Mrs. L. K. Posvar was hostess to the members of the "500" club and their husbands at her home Friday evening. Three tables of "500" were played. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Redhead, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Powell, Mrs. C. M. Powell, Mrs. Wm. Mahan, and Mr. and Mrs. Posvar.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stewart entertained for several friends at their home, New Year's eve at a "500" party. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. George Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Belle, Otis McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and daughter, Miss Lauren.
