Page and George Willian. Bert Weeks spent his Christmas vacation with her cousin, Vivian Jeans of Eugene.

Cheshire News CHESHIRE, Jan. 7.—(Special)—The recent high water was a severe test on the new road grade east from Cheshire, but aside from slight damage a few of the bridge ends, no further damage was done. Patrolman Dade and crew were promptly on the job and kept the situation well under control by rippapping with large rocks and bags of gravel so that traffic was not interrupted at any time. This was the only highway open across the Long Tom flats and was found a great convenience by travelers going across from Notti to Monroe and the whole western end of Lane county. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert McBee visited friends at Nashville, Ore., several days last week. Lindsay Duval and Robert Cheshire visited relatives near Springfield over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Anderson and son, Kenneth, R. D. Anderson and wife, visited Cheshire all of Portland, were guests at the A. S. Cheshire home Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson of Santa Clara celebrated New Year's day at the Even Johnson home. Elinor Cheshire returned to Portland Monday after spending the holidays at her home here. George Mounts and son, former residents of Franklin, but now of Goshen, were business visitors in this neighborhood Friday. Donald Freeman visited relatives at Crow last week, returning Sunday to his home at Ern Linggo's. Margaret Allen returned to Eugene the first of the week after spending the holidays with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cheshire visited relatives in Springfield New Year's. A group of young people held a surprise birthday party for Verne Cheshire Monday evening, Jan. 2. The evening was spent playing cards and chess.

Leaburg News LEBURG, Jan. 7.—(Special)—D. A. Thompson, syndicate executive of Oregon of national missions, will leave for R. E. Clark to the Leaburg church Sunday evening. Services will be held. Special feature will be a feature for the Christmas season at the home of Mrs. A. W. Thompson. Mrs. A. W. Thompson also will give a talk.

News of Blachly BLACHLY, Jan. 7.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slayter and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pontius and daughters, Mrs. Anna Pontius and Orval Pontius drove to Creswell New Year's day to dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Hervelette Pontius. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hulbert were guests New Year's day of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Horton. The annual telephone meeting was held at Slayter's hall Monday morning. Two new directors and a new president were appointed. Robert Slayter and Orval Pontius drove to Portland last Thursday for a lot of food. Charles Pope, Robert Slayter and son, Orval Pontius and C. G. Abbey were business visitors in Eugene Wednesday. Mrs. Charles Slayter and Mrs. Anna Pontius left Thursday afternoon for Portland where they will visit friends for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Dysinger and son, Orval Pontius, returned from Portland Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hulbert. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor and daughters, Miss Shirley Slayter and Miss Mona Wheeler spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hulbert. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Dysinger and son left Friday for their home at Oakland, Ore. Several lectures will be given in Blachly church, beginning Jan. 4, at 8 o'clock. They will be held every night each week except Saturday and Monday nights, C. J. Ryder is minister.

HARRISBURG TOWN OFFICERS SWORN

HARRISBURG, Jan. 7.—(Special)—The new town officers were sworn in at the council meeting Tuesday night. Half of the ten are holdovers. They are as follows: George Scott, mayor; W. E. Wadsworth, recorder; J. W. Owen, marshal; Nona Hort, treasurer; J. J. Cramer, Robert Stroda, C. A. Gilbert, H. T. Widdifield, Willard Ingram and A. J. Jacobs, councilmen. As the mayor was ill at the time no appointment of committees was made. A. J. Jacobs was chosen as president of the council, and Dr. D. G. Clark was chosen local health officer. The old council closed its affairs at a meeting the same night. The treasurer's report showed that the town had paid off $5000 of its indebtedness last year and was still on a cash basis. Its debt now stands at $10,500.

On Camp Creek UPPER CAMP CREEK, Jan. 7.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Nye, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shackelford, and Mrs. Will Ruth motored into California this week for a short trip. Marjorie and Silvia Jensen and John Burnett of Eugene spent part of their Christmas vacation at the home of their uncle, John Jensen. School began January 3 after being closed for the Christmas holidays. Robert Willian and family of Springfield Junction were entertained at the George Willian home New Year's day. Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher entertained at dinner New Year's day. Their guests were J. A. Montgomery and family. Marietta Ruth is staying with Mrs. Chester Nye this week while her grandmother, Mrs. T.
