

High Water Causes Old Logs to Float

CUSHMAN, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The heaviest last week brought down logs that had been on the banks of the creek and situated above tide water for many years.

The Sauter Fish company expect to ship a car load of frozen salmon to New York this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Basford, accompanied by Mr. Basford's father and mother, drove in from Munsell last Saturday.

Jack Bester has his new logging camp at Clearwater lake running and is collecting the logs to the Umpqua by truck.

The R. Spencer family expects to leave soon from the Nuts place on Clark slough to the Thomas place up the main river.

L. I. Wheeler reports his wife, who is in Portland, steadily improving and that the doctors think she can come home before long.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Mackey and children of South slough, accompanied by Miss Ellen Shultz, were in town Sunday.

Curt Sweet's many friends will be glad to learn he is getting along nicely and hopes to be able soon to leave the hospital.

terville grange next Friday evening, Jan. 13, postponed their visit until later in the spring months. Illness among the members and other reasons were given for the postponement. The Walterville grange will hold its regular meeting Friday evening, Jan. 13. The newly installed officers will be in the chairs.

Mrs. F. W. Page received the certificate of achievement for the 4-H Sewing club work which was done last summer by seven of the girls in the community. The girls names on the certificate are Evelyn Hansen, Sylvia and Frances Vaughn, Winnifred Kiebusch, Nellie Easton, Gladys Zehner and Nora Lanning. These girls all finished 100 per cent.

Mrs. Lester Millican went to Eugene Sunday called there by the illness of her father, Mr. Collins. Lucile Millican came home Sunday evening with a badly sprained knee from being hurt on a toboggan while sliding at the snow line.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Clark, Dr. Thompson of Portland and Dr. Neal of Portland were callers Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page. The party was on its way to Leaburg where Dr. Thompson was guest speaker for the evening. Dr. Neal remained at Walterville for evening services.

Deerhorn Items

DEERHORN, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The 4-H cooking club met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Irvin Friday afternoon with Mrs. Everett Wearin, leader of the group. David Holmes finished his work of last year and will receive his 4-H pin.

Each member present sang a song or gave a recitation. Visitors were Mrs. E. E. Potter, Marvina Holmes and Jimmie Wearin. Members present were: Lorens Holmes, president; James Irvin, vice-president; Goldie Rauch, secretary; Anita Benson, Mary Irvin and David Potter.

The 4-H Sewing club also met at Mrs. Irvin's on Friday. Those present were Mary Irvin, president; Goldie Rauch, vice-president; Anita Benson, secretary and Lorens Holmes.

M. J. Dikeman of Seattle was a guest of his brother Ray Dikeman and wife over the week-end.

Mrs. Robert Steele and Ed Blenis were among those ill the past week.

Mrs. Fred Williams Jr. was among those attending the party Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thienes. The 32 telephone meeting was postponed Saturday night until next Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Le Zan and son Darin of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Thienes and son Donald were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dikeman of Leaburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carrel and children John, Howard and Ruth were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cadwalder.

Paul Jensen of Harrisburg was also a guest Sunday at the Cadwalder home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Howells and son, Jimmie of Leaburg stopped on their way home at the Vern Gillespie home Sunday. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Howells' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hart for the day.

PARTY IS HELD
WALKER, Jan. 10.—(Special)—Fred Kinsland was surprised when a host of friends came in Saturday night and helped celebrate his birthday. The evening was spent in playing cards and visiting. At midnight sandwiches, cake and coffee were served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Harpole, Howard and Helen Harpole, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Scott, Jessie Lu and Millie Louise Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Schooling and Lucille Schooling, Joe Donipier, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Marks, Mrs. Ben Jackson and Fred Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hite and Bennie Dave Hite and the hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kinsland.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

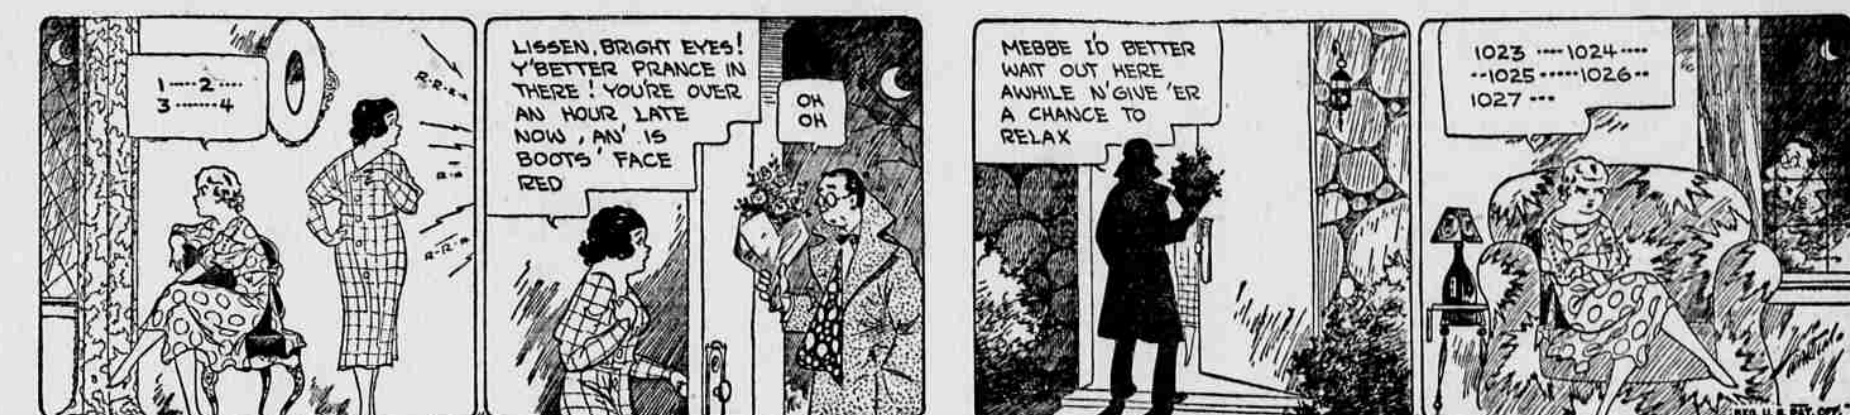

The Best of the Nation's "Human-est" and Funniest Comics On This Page Daily

TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

BRINGING UP FATHER

THIMBLE THEATRE

OUT OUR WAY

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

ALOCUST
THAT CATCHES
MICE LIVES IN AFRICA!

FRENCH OFFICERS,
DRESSING HURRIEDLY FOR THE
BATTLE OF STENKERQUE, 1692,
TWISTED THEIR CRAVATS CARELESSLY
AROUND THEIR NECKS, AND THUS
SET A NEW FASHION IN THE WEARING OF NECKWEAR...
THE STEINKIRK CRAVAT.

THE STALK-EYED FLY
HAS EYES ON THE ENDS OF LONG
EXTENSIONS FROM THE SIDES OF THE HEAD.

THE RIGHT FLAVOR
KEPT RIGHT IN CELLOPHANE
WRIGLEY'S