

EDGE PUPILS GET FREE HOT LUNCHES

OAKRIDGE, Jan. 11.—(Special)—Hot lunches are again being served at the grade school at noon, free of charge to any of the students. Miss Dorothy Thomson of the faculty has charge and she is assisted by members of the boys and girls 4-H clubs. A crew of three serve for one week. The money is furnished by the school district but in previous years the school raised the money by giving plays and operettas.

Dr. Yarns, district superintendent of the Methodist church, will be here today on his annual visit to Oakridge. He will occupy the pulpit at the community church from 10 to 11, Sunday morning. In his honor, the members of the church have planned a potluck supper in the church Sunday evening at 8:30. Everyone in the community is invited to attend and to bring their own dishes. The supper will be served at 8:30. Coffee and cocoa will be served.

The chamber of commerce met in the Legion hall Monday night. The water situation was discussed and it was decided to send the members of the water board to Portland and Eugene to investigate prices and means of financing a new water system for Oakridge. The election of officers was postponed until the February meeting.

The study group met at the community church Monday afternoon to continue the discussion on child training and parent education. Mrs. W. A. Austin led the meeting and the subject of "Punishments" was taken up. Those present were Mrs. Claude Jones, Mrs. Roland Dimick, Mrs. Claude Miller, Mrs. Virgil Winkler, Mrs. Roy Putnam, Mrs. Peter Rude, Mrs. H. M. Harkins, Mrs. Austin and Mrs. C. H. Croner. The next meeting will be January 28.
