

CROW GRADUATION HELD WEDNESDAY

VAUGHN, June 2.—(Special).—Graduation exercises for the seniors of the Crow high school were held at the Crow gymnasium Wednesday night. Prof. Clark of the University of Oregon gave the address and Conley Shady, pastor of the Vaughn Christian church, gave the benediction. The diplomas were presented by Wm. Hawley, Maud Morford, Leola Hooker, following: Alice Farmer, Margaret Howley, Maud Morford, Leola Hooker, Wm. McBride, Herbert Hooker, Cecil Benninger and Kenneth Hooker.

The pupils, friends, and parents of the high school district take this opportunity to thank Mr. Bowers, Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Mosby for the years of faithful work they have rendered to the Crow high school.

Mrs. Josephine Williams, underwent an operation on her arm Wednesday at the Eugene hospital. The operation was the result of a burn, which she received last fall. She was able to return to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Harbert entertained a dinner party Saturday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Will Emery and daughters, Aubrey and Catherine of Portland. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Snellstrom and the host and hostess and their two sons, Wayne and Darrel Harbert.

Tuesday, June 6, a program and pie social will be held at the Vaughn school house for the purpose of raising funds to send one or more pupils to the summer school at Corvallis. The affair is sponsored by the Vaughn P. T. A. and the program is in charge of R. E. Lher and Duke Rankin. Fifty cents admission will be charged. Women are to bring pies. The pie social will be in the form of a "shadow social."

CRESWELL NEWS NOTES

CRESWELL, June 2.—(Special).—Baskets of iris, roses and syringa beautified the rooms of the Civic club Wednesday afternoon at the regular meeting. Mrs. Ed Anderson presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. M. A. Horn. Mrs. A. A. Reeves and son Billie of Eugene and Mrs. F. W. Ogram were introduced as guests.

Under committee reports Mrs. W. W. Parsons announced 163 library books checked out for the month of May. Mrs. J. D. Radabaugh of the literature, art, education committee read an article "Parable on Taxes."

Mrs. J. Kirkham was requested to read a review of a recent talk on what our high school means to Creswell and the advantages of the small high schools.

Mrs. Sedgwick spoke of the annual school meeting June 19 and a note relative to this meeting was read from Miss Tryon. Mrs. H. N. Traxler of the music committee read an article on "The Inspiration of Music." Expressions of appreciation were given for the splendid work of the high school students along musical lines and for their honors received at the district tournament. F. K. Noorhoff, director, was highly commended. The ways and means committee through Mrs. T. C. Brown, reported $1.60 as receipts from the sale of bulbs and plants. The May baskets sent out by this committee have not as yet returned but interesting tales were told by the members of the visit of the basket at their homes.

Mrs. Clara Traxler, chairman of the Friendly Neighbor Sunshine committee, was in charge of the program. Billie Reeves of Eugene gave two piano numbers, "Baby Jesus" and "Sunbeams and Roses." He responded with an encore. A few of the Girl Scouts under the direction of their leader, Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne, gave sketches of their scout laws, mottoes and songs. Those responding were Marian Shaffer, Roberta Syphers, Ruth Burgoyne, Marguerite Hubbard, Doris Kirkpatrick, Helen Kirkpatrick, Jane Alice Everson, Pauline Land, Dorothy Coleman and Martha Yoder.

Assorted cakes and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. M. Hudspeth, Mrs. J. Kirkham, Mrs. J. Idehoff, Mrs. T. P. Jackson and Mrs. C. L. Kent.

The regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mae McKay. Mrs. Frank Bush, oracle, presided. Plans were made for a pot luck dinner at the next meeting, the place to be announced later. By vote it was decided to hold but one meeting during the months of July, August and September, that to be a joint business and social meeting the first Thursday of each month. Mrs. C. I. Kent was appointed special auditor. A resolution committee consisting of Mrs. Kent, Mrs. McKay and Mrs. R. F. Scott was also appointed.

Thursday was clean up day at the I. O. O. F. hall. Armed with brooms and brushes, several Rebekahs began work at a good season in the morning and by quitting time everything was in order in both the lodge hall and dining room. Those responding were Mrs. Fred Wullschlaeger, Mrs. W. O. Spencer, Mrs. Cora Olson, Mrs. Minnie Riddle, Mrs. Ethel Treanor, Mrs. N. E. Steele, Mrs. L. C. Goheen, Mrs. F. J. Sly, Mrs. J. B. Miller and Mrs. Ethel Everson and Mrs. C. I. Kent.

Miss Gladys Fisher was injured in an automobile accident near town on Wednesday evening. She was returning with a party of young people from an entertainment in Eugene. Some part of the mechanism of the car seemed to lock and it turned over, throwing the occupants out. Miss Fisher was taken to the Pacific hospital in Eugene where it was found she had suffered a bad cut on a leg and a bruised hand. She returned to her home Thursday morning. The car was damaged considerably.

Mrs. Jane Holder, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Viles, left Tuesday for Portland to attend the commencement activities of the Oregon medical school from which a son graduates this year. She will return here before returning to her home at Paisley.
