Three-Hit Pitching Wins Game For Federals

WILTSHIRE ALLOWS BUT SEVEN BLOWS, LOSES GAME 4 TO 1

By RAY SIMS

Ira Wolfer's Federals displayed an errorless brand of ball to down the Eugene Townies 4 to 1 at the fairgrounds here Sunday. The three hit pitching of Treadway Charles was the feature of the game and when Duke Shaneman came through with the first hit in the eighth inning he received an ovation from the crowd. Eugene's only score came in the ninth as Johnnie Londahl lead off with the second hit, when he beat out a slow roller to Johnson at third. Wright pinch hitting for Gould, struck out but Chester walked and then Del Russell came through with the third hit, a line drive to right field, scoring Londahl. Fowler and Gordon then went out ending the game.

Del Russell

The Federals scored in the third inning when Wiltshire walked Courtney and Koch in succession and Warren followed with a single bringing in Courtney. Again in the fifth, Charles walked and was driven in by Courtney's single. In the sixth, Leach hit one over Gordon's head in left field, drawing up safely at third, and a moment later scoring when Wirth's throw pulled Chester's foot off the base on Charles' grounder.

Their 4th and last run came in the ninth, Johnson lead off with a single, was sacrificed to second by Courtney and came home on Warren's second hit.

Ray Brooks' bunch of youngsters are a hustling team and accounted for many of Eugene's hard hit balls being putouts.

Eugene goes to Salem next Sunday. Summary:

HIGHCLIMBER looks 'em over

By ROY CRAFT

It was something of a disappointment to wrestling fans when Thor Jensen, the Elkton ex-carnival grappler, refused to meet Otis Clingman, ex-navy champion, in a return match here.

Even the most skeptical mat critic could not claim that the Clingman-Jensen affair is anything but genuine. These boys hate each other with a 24-karat, stem-winding, 17 jewel hate and Thor's unethical treatment of Clingman at their last meeting was clear enough for anybody to see.

When you hit a guy three times with your fist and then pick him up and throw his limp body out of the ring where he lands on the back of his head on a table, you can expect him to seek a chance for revenge.

But since Jensen and Clingman can not be brought together this week, Herb Owen, the promoter, has done the next best thing in matching the weird Harold Hiebert with Clingman. Personally, I think this is the better match of the two from a standpoint of action for neither Clingman nor Hiebert believe in retiring into his shell when the going gets tough, whereas Thor has a habit of taking the the defensive once he has piled up a slight lead.

If Hiebert continues to wrestle as he has wrestled in the past, he will be a punch-drunk old man at 35. He does not know the meaning of caution and as frequently as not he finds himself landing on his head on the floor outside the rings, or wrapping his ears around a ring-post. He charges around the mat, socking, kicking and butting and while this method of attack is usually bad medicine for his opponent, it not infrequently results in a few hard blows for Hiebert.

This is not a suggestion for Hiebert to change his wrestling style. He could never have won over Thor Jensen for the Pacific Coast, middleweight title if he had tried to rassle with Thor. Instead, Hiebert played roughhouse with him and won.

But that match, and other matches the past year, have taken their toll. "True Blue" Harold has marks, scars and patches all over his body and still he comes bearing in for more. I have heard him called "yellow" by the fans during the heat of battle, but Hiebert has taken and given more punishment than any grappler in the northwest during the past few months.

Hiebert denies he will ever be a punch-drunk old wrestler. He assures us he is saving his money and plans some day to get out of the game. Meantime, he will continue to put everything he's got into every match and hope he will keep right on improving until he is at the top of the ladder.

Hiebert is banking a lot on this week's match with Clingman. Otis is probably the most popular wrestler ever to hit Eugene. It took Herb Owen two years to get the Oklahoma boy west, but now that Otis is here he says he likes Oregon better than any state in the union. If it is true that the fans like Clingman, it is also true that Clingman likes the fans.

So Hiebert wants to impress the natives with a victory over Clingman this week. The St. Helens logger plans to shoot the works and if he gets banged up, it's just too bad. The early gladiators who stuck swords in each other's ribs weren't exactly fond of the risks involved, but once they were in the racket they had to do the best they could. As Nero said when he turned the lions in on the Christians. "The show must go on!"

HAL TURPIN BEATS HILLS CREEK 2-1

The leadership of the Cascade league narrowed Sunday, when Yoncalla scored a 2 to 1 win over the erstwhile undefeated Hills Creek Lumber team.

The pitching and hitting of Harold Turpin, ex-Coast league pitcher, for San Francisco and Seattle, brought about the downfall of his opponents. Bud Mauney pitching for the losers, kept pace with the ex-Coaster however, allowing the same number of hits but was unfortunate in having hits bunched for the scores.

This game was featured by the fast time in which it was played, taking only one hour and 20 minutes of actual playing time.

NO HOPE HELD

MOSCOW, Idaho, June 5.—(AP)—Old timers today expressed the belief that with the river at its high stage, there was little chance of recovering the bodies of Arthur Spaugy, assistant football coach at the University of Idaho, Nampa, Idaho, and Boyd Brigham, who disappeared from a raft on the Clearwater river near here Saturday.

Young Illinois Pro Wins St. Paul Open

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 5.—(U.P.)—Jimmy Foulis, young Hinsdale, Ill., professional, today held the St. Paul open golf title and was richer by $1,500 first prize money. Foulis, who weighs but 145 pounds, shot rounds of 70-72-69-72 for a 72 hole total of 283.

George Von Elm, Los Angeles, was second with 286, missing a chance to tie Foulis when he took a six on the 17th hole of the afternoon round after his tee shot hit a spectator and bounded into the rough.

Walter Hagen, Detroit, shot a 69 and 71 on his two final rounds to take third place with 288. Harry Cooper, Chicago, and Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. Y., tied for fourth, each with 289.

The Universities of Georgia and Alabama will resume football relations in 1934, restoring a rivalry that went through 30 games, until it was suspended in 1930.

BIG CROWD SEES YANKS WALLOP A'S IN DOUBLEHEADER

NEW YORK, June 5.—(U.P.)—Thirty-five thousand persons Sunday saw the Giants beat the Dodgers twice at Brooklyn, rising to first place in the National league ranking, while 65,000—the largest crowd of the season—saw the Yanks wallop Philadelphia twice, stretching their American league lead.

Hal Schumacher

Only Lefty O'Doul's home run in the fourth inning of the nightcap saved the Dodgers from a pair of shut-outs, as the Giants beat them 2 to 0 in the opener behind Hal Schumacher's three-hit pitching, and 6 to 1 in the second contest, when Freddie Fitzsimmons gave out only five hits.

St. Louis dropped five points behind the Giants after splitting a twin bill with Cincinnati. A three-run rally in the eighth gave the Cards a 4 to 2 victory in the first game, but the Reds came back to take the sleeper, 6 to 2, aided by a four-run burst in the fifth. Jim Bottomley had a perfect day at bat in this game with two singles, a double and a triple.

Pirates Drop

Pittsburgh dropped from a second-place tie to third position by splitting two games with Chicago. A seven-run uprising in the ninth gave the Pirates the opener, 9 to 3. The Cubs won the night cap, 9 to 2.

Boston and Philadelphia also divided honors, the Phillies blanking the Braves, 1 to 0, in the first game. The Braves pounded four Philadelphia pitchers for 15 hits to take the second contest, 9 to 6.

In the American league, the Yanks made it five in a row over the Athletics by beating them 3 to 2, and 6 to 0. Johnny Allen held the A's to one long single by Ed Coleman in the nightcap, striking out 11 batsmen.

In the only single bill of the day, Washington nosed out Boston, 4 to 3, in the 13th when Ossie Bluege's single drove home Fred Schulte.

Clevelad and Detroit divided a double program, the Indians winning the first, 2 to 1, and the Tigers taking the nightcap, 4 to 3.

Chicago replaced Philadelphia at fourth position by beating St. Louis twice, 13 to 6, in the first contest and 10 to 2 in the finale.

PORTLAND HOLDS ONE GAME LEAD

By UNITED PRESS

Sacramento, last week, moved into higher ground by routing the Mission Reds in six out of eight games, two of which victories came in Sunday's competition. Sacramento bats were active, walloping a total of 34 hits, 21 of this came in the opener. Scores were 15-10, and 7-5.

The leading Portland Beavers split even with Los Angeles, winning the first game behind Kallio's steady pitching, 3 to 2, and dropping the second, 11 to 0. Hermann was in high fettle in the nightcap and allowed only five hits. Lillard hit a homer in the opener.

Ray Jacobs, Hollywood first baseman, clouted his 21st home run of the season as the Stars were defeating Oakland, 12 to 5. The second game was washed out. The single triumph preserved the Stars' position as runner-ups, one game behind Portland.

San Francisco batted out a 12 to 5 victory over Seattle but failed to solve the offerings of Haid in the sleeper, losing 10 to 1. The Seals pounded three Seattle hurlers for 16 hits in the first contest. Seattle turned the tables in the finale by rapping Henderson and Douglas for 11 hits.

With today a holiday for all clubs, the week's hostilities resuming tomorrow will find Los Angeles at Sacramento, Portland at Mission, San Francisco at Oakland and Seattle at Hollywood.

Helen Jacobs Out Of French Meet

AUTEUIL, France, June 5.—(AP)—British Empire tennis stars furnished opposition for the French in the singles finals of the French hard court tennis championships in Roland Garros stadium today.

The last American survivor, Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, Cal., was eliminated in the semi-finals of women's singles yesterday, leaving that title a matter for dispute between Mme. Rene Mathieu, No. 1 ranking French player, and Margaret Scriven, English sensation of the tournament.

Miss Jacobs, holder of the American championship, put up a great fight against Mme. Mathieu in the semi-finals, but finally bowed to the French woman's steady play, 8-6, 6-3. It marked the second year in succession that Miss Jacobs had been eliminated from this particular tournament by Mme. Mathieu.

JOHNSON IN SALEM

Fish Running, Wires Gibson

The Register-Guard received a wire from Rainbow Gibson, well known fisherman of the Rogue, Monday morning, stating that another big run of Chinook salmon is coming in at the Savage Rapids dam.

Twenty-eight were caught Sunday, all of them bright fish, the largest weighing 30½ pounds. They averaged 23 pounds. Gibson says the fishing will be good all month, and ends his telegram with "Come and get them!"

TEX KNIGHT-THOR MEET IN SPECIAL

Otis Clingman and Logger Hiebert will have to extend themselves to the utmost Thursday night if they are to prevent the special event from stealing the show. Herb Owen has lined up a 45 minute match that promises more thrills than any similar bout to go on here in many moons.

Tex Knight, the greatest wrestler in the world, according to his own statements, has been circulating about town for the past week flinging challenges, and making remarks to the effect that he could throw any or all of the boys appearing on Owen's cards. After last week's card, he addressed his statements to Thor Jensen in particular, with the result that he has been matched to meet Thor in a no-holds-barred, winner-take-all bout this week.

Knight has been a wrestler, fighter and rough and tumble fighter for years, so he says, and he jumped at the chance to take on Jensen in the wide-open match. He claims that he'll show Thor something about real rough-stuff, Jensen on the other hand, has become irked at Knight's insulting remarks, and intimates that the match will be over long before the 45 minute mark is reached.

Clingman, who meets Hiebert in the main event, is probably the greatest wrestler ever developed in the navy, and held the American fleet championship for three straight years.

A. feather king, in Paul's home town, Buffalo, N. Y., Friday night. They are slated for 10 rounds. Paul also meets Jackie Wilson at Pittsburgh tonight.

Here's the week's schedule:

Damage Reports Boom Wheat Bids

CHICAGO, June 5.—(AP)—Sensational crop damage asserted to total upward of $10,000,000 in Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma hoisted wheat prices late today.

Temperatures of 110 were reported in Kansas, and many messages indicated the wheat crop was being prematurely ripened. Forecasts pointed to no relief, and wheat harvesting is now expected to become general much earlier than looked for.

Wheat closed strong, 1@1¼ above Saturday's finish, corn 1-2@7-8 up, oats 1-2@5-8 advanced, and provisions varying from 15 cents decline to 10 cents gain.
