

TROOP TRAIN SETS NEW RECORD FOR MARSHFIELD RUN

A new Eugene-to-Marshfield train record was set by the Southern Pacific special troop train Tuesday carrying advance detachments for two civilian conservation corps camps. The train left Eugene at 5 a. m. and arrived in Marshfield at 9:30 a. m. The regular train left at 1 a. m. and arrived at 7 a. m., a difference of an hour and a half.

The time was a record for the run according to forestry and railroad officials. L. E. E. Kelley accompanied the detachment of civilian camp officers and workmen to the Loon Lake camp while Lt. Harry Killpack accompanied the detachment to the Coquille F-42 camp.

Seventeen camps have now been established in the Eugene district now commanded by Lt. Col. F. A. Barker with Major Charles Corlett as his executive officer. Sixteen hundred men arrive Thursday on four special trains. The first is due in at about 8:30 a. m.

One company of 180 men will detrain at Oakridge to complete the quota at Oakridge. Four will be trucked out to camps from here, one will be sent through on the train to Conville and the other four will go through to Roseburg and be trucked out from there.

Two new regular officers and one reserve officer reported at the Eugene headquarters Wednesday. Capt. H. A. Skerry, Sixth Engineers, and Capt. David McD. Shearer, Sixth Engineers, both of Fort Lawton, Wash., arrived early Wednesday.

First Lieut. Wm. Virgil Barney, Chaplain Reserve, reported for active duty. He will serve as chaplain for the Eugene district. Lt. Barney attended the Eugene Bible College for some time, later entering Oregon.

If you want a picture that's fresh and youthful and different, you'll like "Hello, Sister," which opens today at the Rex McDonald theater. James Dunn, Minna Gombell, Zasu Pitts and Boots Mallory head the cast. It's a story of a wise-cracking young man with serious ideas and a pickup marriage. Laurel and Hardy are being featured at the McDonald in a special short comedy, "Twice Two."

Universal crashed and burned three airplanes to obtain the vivid wreck scenes which feature the thrilling picture, "Air Mail," closing tonight at the Heilig, Ralph Bellamy, Gloria Stuart, Pat O'Brien, Slim Summerville, Russell Hopton and Lillian Bond enact the featured roles in this picture. It's the story of a flying skipper who laughed at tallpines until Cupid cracked him up.

Will Rogers plays a number of comedy scenes with Blue Boy, 900 pound hog, in the all-star picture, "State Fair," which closes tonight at the Rex. Romance of the story is carried by Janet Gaynor, Lew Ayres, Sally Eilers and Norman Foster.

Other members of the huge cast are Victor Jory, Frank Craven and Louise Dressler. If you haven't seen this one, hurry! It's really one of the best films Hollywood has produced.

A love affair between a penniless Austrian nobleman and a girl from the newly rich middle class, complicated by the presence of an American widow with a heavy bankroll, is the story upon which the action hinges. It's clever, well presented and entertaining.

Mr. Shearer says that if he is elected he will use methods of strict economy. "As to transportation of pupils," he says, "I can say that this is something for the future and will have to be studied thoroughly before anything can be said or done."

CARAVAN OF LIONS CLUBS STOPS HERE

A caravan of between 50 and 75 cars, taking members of the Lions clubs from Portland and other cities of the valley to the state convention in Roseburg this week-end, will arrive in Eugene at 2:30 p. m. Thursday. An escort of state police officers will meet the caravan at the north city limits and take the group to the Eugene hotel.

Eugene Lions club members are asked to be at the hotel at that time and remain there for a half-hour to meet and entertain the visitors. A few from Eugene will go on to Roseburg Thursday with the caravan.

The main delegation from Eugene will leave Friday, however, accompanying some 60 members of the Eugene Gleemen to Roseburg. The Gleemen are to be featured on the program Friday evening at the convention as Eugene's stunt in asking for the 1934 convention.

Among delegates going from the Eugene club are Wayne Akers, retiring president, Dr. Harry W. Titus, the incoming president, Percy W. Brown, Dr. C. D. Donahue, LaVern Hawn, Lee Clyde, Carl Field, Wilson A. Rich, and others. The local Lions have worked up a special entertainment in bidding for the 1934 meet.

The regular meeting of the club was held Wednesday noon at the Eugene hotel at which time last minute business was cared for before the opening of the state convention. Harry Gordon was chairman for the day's program and gave a cartoon lion to each member, asking each to give a half-minute talk on his business.

What does it take TO SATISFY?

Has Chesterfield got it?

A Fair Question and a Fair Answer

For a Cigarette to Satisfy—

It must have the right kind of tobaccos.

We honestly believe that the tobaccos used in CHESTERFIELD cigarettes are of better quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

It must be made right; uniform, well-filled—no particles of tobacco getting into your mouth; no hard and soft places.

It must have the right flavor and aroma—the right amount of aromatic Turkish.

It must reach you just as fresh as if you passed by the factory door.

CHESTERFIELD has what it takes to satisfy. Just try them.

They have what it Takes to Satisfy—Just Try them!
