

CRESWELL NEWS NOTES

CRESWELL, June 16.—Mrs. J. R. Miller entertained the members of the Garden club on her lawn near the lily pool Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in the discussion of the culture of flowers including hydrangeas, and star daisies and in the rooting of roses. Several articles were read. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, June 28, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Martin. Those present were Mrs. W. W. Parsons, Mrs. E. W. Bousland, Mrs. A. W. Schwering, Mrs. N. E. Steele, Mrs. Clara Traxler, Mrs. H. N. Tenzler, Mrs. J. E. Smith, Mrs. J. A. Blankenship, Mrs. Margaret Martin, Mrs. J. H. Martin, Mrs. C. I. Kent and Mrs. R. W. Stone and Mrs. Miller.

At the regular meeting of Honor Rebekah lodge Wednesday evening plans were made to sponsor a float for the Fourth of July parade. The committee appointed consisted of Mrs. W. O. Spencer, Mrs. Cora Olson, Mrs. L. C. Goheen, Mrs. Ethel Treanor, J. P. Lane and J. R. Miller. Suggestions were also made for the annual joint picnic with the L. O. O. F. lodge the date to be set later. The serving committee for the next meeting will be Mrs. Fred Wulschleger, Mrs. Ethel Everson and Mrs. W. L. Wallace. Mrs. F. J. Sly presided in the absence of the worthy matron, Mrs. W. O. Spencer.

Mrs. Ed Anderson entertained the members of the Presbyterian missionary society at luncheon Wednesday noon. Covers were laid for twelve. The guests were Mrs. S. G. Gregor, Mrs. Henry Taylor, Mrs. David Francis, Mrs. F. K. Noordhoff, Mrs. C. H. Sedgwick, Mrs. F. D. Lacey, Mrs. Lina Chapin, Mrs. Rosetta Woods, Mrs. A. A. Emmons, Mrs. Margaret Marquart, Mrs. W. B. Gillespie and Mrs. A. H. Olson. Toasts were given at the table as an added feature of entertainment. Mrs. Gillespie was leader of the lesson that followed. The study was on the West Indies and the Philippines.

Before the regular meeting of the firemen Tuesday evening the boys spent some time in practicing the laying of hose and getting the water through in a given time. With these volunteer workers on the job the citizens of Creswell and the community adjoining feel they have adequate protection in any emergency.

Miss Ivy Cooley left Thursday morning for Lacombe where she will have work in the strawberry fields. Mrs. Cooley accompanied her for the outing.

Miss Anna Lou Groshong, graduate nurse, who has been visiting with her people in Mt. Green, Saskatchewan, Canada, returned to Eugene Wednesday. She visited often at the home of her cousin, L. C. Goheen and family.

Roy Sanders, F. W. Ogram, Fred Wulschleger and Melvin Miller put on the prime coat of paint on the Methodist church annex Monday. Women of the church sent in supplies for the dinner and Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Wulschleger served it.

Mrs. Izan Wasmack of Seattle, Wash., arrived Wednesday to visit at the home of her brother, J. P. Rutan and family. Mrs. Wasmack and Mr. Rutan had not seen each other for nearly thirty years. Mr. Rutan recently moving here from the east.

Mrs. Lillie Cawte of Eugene visited from Friday to Monday at the W. L. Wallace and V. E. Groshong homes.

Mrs. C. A. Bush and Mrs. R. F. Scott attended the regular meeting of the Camas Swale community club at the home of Mrs. Arthur Demarest Tuesday.

Both the state and federal dairy inspectors visited the ranch of M. G. Viles on the north Pacific highway Thursday morning and were well impressed with the new modern barns and their equipment.

Large banners and other advertising material for the local Fourth of July celebration were put up Thursday by the advertising committee of the firemen.

Miss Elizabeth Sedgwick is in Corvallis this week attending a Home Economics conference. She plans to return Friday.

The menu of the Methodist supper to be served at the church annex Friday evening will include creamed chicken on hot biscuits choice of salads, hot vegetable, choice of pie, pickles and coffee.

News of Heceta

HECETA, June 16. — (Special).—County Commissioner Cal Young and Art Striker came in Monday to inspect the bridge work being done on Mercer lake and to give further instructions.

Mr. Bond, one of the men on the men on the R. F. C. crew, cut his leg badly Monday. He will be unable to work for some time.

Olaf Dahlin has been working his trained bull, Bruce, in hauling out the heavy timbers for the bridge. Bruce is quite a character here and is frequently "snapped" by tourists.

J. C. Herren expects to be home for the week-end.

The Colorado river basin covers about one-thirteenth of the area of the United States, yet has a population within its limits only as large as the state of Rhode Island.
