

Eugene Team Will Enter National Tourney

QUALIFYING PLAY TO BE STARTED AT LAURELWOOD SUNDAY

TEAM of six Eugene golfers, to be selected by a qualifying tournament at the Laurelwood golf course here, will represent this city in the national public links tournament at Portland this summer.

The public links tournament will be held in Portland the first week in August over the East Moreland course. This will be the first time Eugene has been represented in the national public links tournament.

In addition to the regular six-man team, two or more alternates will be selected, Rutherford declared.

The Laurelwood course will furnish balls for the team in the tournament at Portland and other sponsors are being sought to aid in paying expenses of the team while at the tournament.

"Eugene has some excellent golfers and there is no reason why Eugene shouldn't have an even chance to win some of the prizes at the tournament," Rutherford so said. "With the tournament so close to Eugene, it is a fine opportunity for this city to gain recognition in the golfing world by entering this team."

Prominent local golfers who plan to enter the qualifying tournament include Don Anderson, Dick and Bob Near, Leonard Olson, Sid Milligan, Ford Young and Leslie Leal. All these men are veterans at national play and have given good accounts of themselves in northwest tournaments.

A special invitation to enter a team in this tournament was given by Frank Dolp, one of the leading golfers of the northwest, on the occasion of his recent visit to the city.

Anyone except a registered member of a private course, is eligible to enter the qualifying rounds for the public links tournament and there will be no entry fee, it was announced. Registrations will be taken at the Laurelwood course.

HIGH CLIMBER

Eugene will tangle with Schapp's of Portland in an important Oregon State league game here Sunday and baseball fans who like close battles will do well to turn out. Schapp's, Albany and the Tovaristas are tied for fourth place in the league and Sunday's contest will be an important one to both Eugene and the Portland team.

It is understood that Schapp's protested their game with Wolff's Federals in Portland Sunday but the nature of the protest is not known here. The Federals won but Schapp's put up quite a squawk. Incidentally, without going into the merits of the protest, it is worth observing that the two Portland teams are world beaters when it comes to protests. They are always at each other's throats about something and a very live personal grudge is always evident between the two teams.

When Schapp's come here Sunday, they will undoubtedly be in anything but a generous frame of mind and the game may prove reminiscent of the good old days. Heller will probably pitch for the Portlanders while Wittshire may start for Eugene. Bob has been hurling fair ball of late but will have to be at his best hitting Schapp's outfit.

A postcard has just arrived from Walter Achard, Chinese grappler. It is dated New Orleans, June 12, and Walt says he's been going great guns down there but hopes to be back in Oregon soon. Eugene fans are hoping Herb Owen will book Achard back in the armory before many weeks. What a match he and Clingman would make!

Lane county fishermen who have taken their beautiful streams more or less for granted should hear what the eastern officers and men of the civilian conservation corps have to say. The boys from Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas think these fishing streams are about the most beautiful in the world and Oregon's outdoor resources are all the more appealing to them because they just left extremely hot weather in the middle west. A good many fishing licenses will be bought here by the C. C. C. men for they have to have licenses the same as other sportsmen.

Obak Wollace calls attention to a widely circulated picture of Deschutes river fishermen protected from rattlesnakes by tin leggings. The picture, which first appeared in a Portland paper, has been given national circulation and a recent issue of the Denver Post gives it prominence over many other outdoor scenes. The "tin leggings" are nothing more or less than stovepipes slipped over the legs, evidently for the purpose of being photographed, for certainly no fisherman could get around in tin stovepipes that reach nearly to the hips. As Obak points out, the picture, which was somebody's brilliant idea for a news shot, will cost this district thousands of dollars in lost patronage.

The rattlesnake problem in Oregon is not an important one and nobody has to wear stovepipes on his legs to protect himself, yet this picture would indicate the state is unsafe for outdoor sports.

Straight shooters against their old rivals, the Chicago Cubs, went down to a 5-3 defeat. Bud Tinning and Burleigh Grimes collaborated on a good pitching job for the Cubs. St. Louis neatly mounded a game off the Giants' lead by throwing the Brooklyn Dodgers, 15-4, gathering 17 hits, including homers by Leo Durocher and Joe Medwick in the eighth inning when they scored eight runs.

The records today showed victories yesterday for the three leaders, Sacramento, Hollywood and Portland, and in addition, a 1-0 mound triumph for the San Francisco veteran, Jimmy Zinn.

NEW YORK BALL CLUBS CLING TO LEAD IN LEAGUES

NEW YORK'S two baseball clubs, the Giants and the Yankees, appear ready to sink or swim together this season. And the danger of their sinking is not to be regarded lightly.

When the Giants moved into the National league lead on June 4, they started the first streak of any appreciable length in six years that two clubs from the same city have topped the major leagues. Now it appears more than likely that they will go down at the same time.

Twice in the past few days the Yanks have turned aside the Washington threat just in the nick of time. Today their margin was only one game and the Giants had only half that lead over the St. Louis Cardinals.

It was Babe Ruth who led the Yankees out of danger yesterday and paced them to a 15 to 8 victory over the Chicago White Sox when a defeat would have thrown them into a tie with the idle Senators for the American league lead. The Babe climbed out of a sick bed to take part and promptly made the Chicago fans wish he had remained there by clotting his fifteenth homer as a major part of the seven-run rally in the sixth inning that put the game away.

St. Louis neatly mounded a game off the Giants' lead by throwing the Brooklyn Dodgers, 15-4, gathering 17 hits, including homers by Leo Durocher and Joe Medwick in the eighth inning when they scored eight runs.

The records today showed victories yesterday for the three leaders, Sacramento, Hollywood and Portland, and in addition, a 1-0 mound triumph for the San Francisco veteran, Jimmy Zinn.

Zinn chose the hardest-hitting club in the circuit, the clouting Reds, for his shutout. He blanked the Reds for the first five innings, gave them a single each in the sixth, seventh and eighth and held them bitless in the final frame. The lone Seal run came in the eighth when De Maggio tripled after Funk had doubled.

Not good enough to stick with Seattle, Old Junc Walters had enough snap in his throwing arm last night to pitch Portland to a 7-4 win over the Indians. He gave his former mates five hits and four runs in the first two innings and then blanked them for the remainder of the game.

Tom Flynn did some better than average pitching for Sacramento last night as the Solons turned back Oakland 5-1. He struck out 12 Oaks and allowed only seven scattered blows. A ninth inning error gave the Acorns an unearned run. Four Oakland errors helped Sacramento to two unearned tallies and made the going tough for Glenn Gabler.

Portland, Ore., June 21.—(AP)—Weakness in the egg trade is generally shown. Weather conditions are not only against quality but likewise retard demand somewhat.

There was practically no change in the butter market situation for the day. Demand was sufficient to clean up out-state offerings as well as local churning.

Wool Advances 2 Cents; Stocks Follow Grain

LAMBS AND HOGS DROP 50 CENTS; BERRIES LOWER

Wool prices advanced again Wednesday, the local being listed from 22 to 23 cents, following similar changes in Portland on the Willamette valley wool.

Following slight drops Tuesday, hogs took another drop to 50 cents total on all classifications here Wednesday. Lambs were down 50 cents likewise, according to the D. E. Nebergall Meat company. Top hogs are down now to $4.25 and choice lambs are down to $4.50.

Strawberries made the first big break in prices Wednesday, being cut to $1.25 a crate, buying price. Supplies are much more plentiful, although nothing like normal yet. The berries are going to the retail trade at four boxes for 25 cents.

Local grown red raspberries are coming in now. Eggs, poultry, livestock, and grains all remained unchanged for the day. Butter and butterfat, too, were unchanged.

Weather Reports Send Grains Up

CHICAGO, June 21.—(AP)—Indications of a return of hot weather to the northwest did much to give a strong upward slant to wheat and other grain today.

Unfavorable crop reports were a dominating factor with spring wheat and Canadian prospects. There was also an increased disposition to consider winter wheat damage, especially adverse reports from Illinois and Indiana.

At the last September and December wheat and distant deliveries of corn reached new high price records for the season. Wheat closed buoyant, 2.22 5-8 above yesterday's finish.

BULLDOG JACKSON TO MEET CLINGMAN IN SPECIAL EVENT

Otis Clingman, Oklahoma City grappler, will meet Bulldog Jackson of Klamath Falls, in the 45 minute special event of Thursday evening's mat card in the armory.

The match will bring together two widely different types of grapplers but the Eugene fans are promised the sort of action they like. Jackson is rough and tough while Clingman is capable of meeting any kind of a boy at his own game.

Jackson is not the most popular boy over to meet here but he is one of the most colorful. The wrestling formerly traveled with carnivals and circuses and was at one time a prize fighter, it is not known whether he was born that way or whether frequent blows on the head have had their effect, but Jackson is given to fibal eccentricities that have endeared him to sports writers of the country.

Clingman, of course, remains the popular favorite here but he has no doubt as to Jackson's ability in the ring, and is approaching Thursday night's match with considerable caution.

Harold Hiebert, St. Helens logger, will meet Sammie Cohen, New York City Jew, in the main event Thursday night. Cohen was due in town Wednesday evening. He is said to be the handsomest wrestler in the business and has frequently been called upon to pose for artists and sculptors. He is ranked among the best ten middleweights by the National Wrestling association.

The Odd Fellows band will play the opening concert and will play between falls.

Formation of a Willamette valley association of public golf courses will be discussed at a meeting at the Laurelwood golf course Sunday, June 23, starting at 1 o'clock, it was announced by Wade Rutherford, of the Laurelwood course Wednesday.

The association is expected to include courses from Eugene, Albany, Corvallis, Cottage Grove, Roseburg, Grants Pass and Medford. Preliminary steps will be outlined at the Sunday meeting and another meeting, at which representatives of all these cities will be invited to attend, will be scheduled for final organization purposes.

The other three championships will be for Y members only. One for the championship of the Y with a medal for first and second place. The other will be a novice championship with a medal for the winner. And the last a junior championship for boys 12 years and under with a medal going to the champion.

PINGPONG TITLE TO BE SETTLED

The Y. M. C. A. will hold four ping-pong championships during the first part of July. The city championship will be held on July 3. This play will be open to any boy, girl, man or woman in Eugene and will require a ten cent registration fee. The winner will receive a sterling silver medal and the runner up a bronze medal.

The association is expected to include courses from Eugene, Albany, Corvallis, Cottage Grove, Roseburg, Grants Pass and Medford. OREGON BINGS ON PORTLAND MARKET

PORTLAND, Ore., June 21.—(AP)—Weakness in the egg trade is generally shown. Weather conditions are not only against quality but likewise retard demand somewhat.

There was practically no change in the butter market situation for the day. Demand was sufficient to clean up out-state offerings as well as local churning.

There has been a complete reversal of demand for spring chickens with the small stuff in best call. This does not include the skin and bone offerings. Hens are unchanged.

First Oregon grown big cherries of the season have arrived. They are small but of good quality. Prices nominally $1.25 per 15 lb. box.
