Wheat 72 Cents Here; Stocks Spurt Upward

CABBAGE, SPUDS LOWER; BERRIES MORE VARIED NOW

Wheat was on the upward trend again Saturday with local quotations up to 72 cents. Other grains continue to hold at prices of the past week.

Local grown loganberries were in Saturday in fair quantity. Backcaps and blackberries will be coming along soon.

Currants are coming to their peak and the next week should see a big display of them. This is a big year for currants. One local grower took 60 cases to Portland to sell, but getting only $1.25 a crate decided to sell at home.

Strawberries continue plentiful enough for the local trade.

Summer squash is in from The Dalles so the local should be on soon.

Eggs, butter, butterfat, livestock and poultry all remained unchanged Saturday.

In the vegetable list, new cabbage is down to around 2 cents a pound.

New potatoes are down a bit to around 1½ to 2 cents a pound.

Bunch stuff, including carrots, beets, turnips, onions, and radishes is all very plentiful now.

Crop Estimates Sends Wheat Up

CHICAGO, July 1.—(AP)—Sensational crop estimates by a woman did much to set grain markets on fire today and whirl wheat up 4 cents a bushel.

Mrs. Eileen H. Miller was the woman, and special significance was attached to her figures because she was two days in advance of other leading grain statisticians in making July 1 crop estimates, and also because she has been surprisingly frequent in accurately anticipating government forecasts. The Miller reports today suggested that the aggregate yield of the five major grains in the United States this season would probably be the smallest in 30 years.

Wheat closed strong, 2 3-4@3 1-2 cents above yesterday's finish, corn 1 1-4@2 1-4 up, oats 2@2 1-4 advanced, and provisions varying from 10 cents decline to an equal gain.

EGGS, CABBAGE DROP ON MARKET

Eggs and cabbage were both quoted lower on the Producers' Public market, Saturday.

Eggs dropped a cent all along the line, making fresh jumbos at 19 cents, fresh extras at 17 cents, and fresh mediums at 15 cents.

The new cabbage is now retailing at 3 cents a pound on the market.

The market had loganberries in Saturday, selling at 10 cents a box.

Mrs. G. V. Quaif at stall 27 had the first Bing cherries on the market on display Saturday, selling at 8 cents a pound. Ox Heart cherries, selling at the same price, were displayed at stall 1. Other varieties of cherries vary on down to 5 and 4 cents a pound.

Quantities of peas were seen on the market Saturday, selling at four pounds for 10 cents. Excellent quality is shown now.

Big supplies of currants were seen on the market, too, retailing still at 10 cents a box.

Many cucumbers are seen now, selling at two for 15 cents on best grades.

Butter and dressed poultry were unchanged in prices. A big supply of poultry is seen each market day now.

Flowers of all kinds continue a big item for the market.

The market will be open Monday.

SATURDAY PROGRAMS

McDONALD—"The Devil's Brother," with Laurel and Hardy, Dennis King and Thelma Todd. Ends Saturday.

COLONIAL—"Cohens and Kellys in Trouble," with Charlie Murray, George Sidney and Maureen O'Sullivan. Ends Saturday.

STATE—"Fast Life," with William Haines, Madge Evans, Cliff Edwards and Conrad Nagel. Saturday only.

REX—Double bill, "Terror Aboard," with Charles Ruggles, Jack La Rue and Kathleen Burke, and "Ambassador Bill," with Will Rogers. Saturday only.

HEILIG—"Son of the Border" with Tom Keene, Edgar Kennedy, Julie Haydon and David Durand. Saturday only.

• • •

As a distinct departure from enervating "drawing room drama," the lightning fast motorboat thriller, "Fast Life," is offered at the State today only with an exceptionally strong cast headed by William Haines, Cliff Edwards and Madge Evans. Haines plays the part of Sandy, a young motorboat mechanic who is forced into a career of piracy to finance his new engine for the international races. The picture moves at a mile-a-minute clip and will keep you sitting on the edge of your seat.

• • •

Tom Keene fights against, and not for, his leading lady, a woman bandit for whom he has enmity instead of love in the unusual, novel theme of "Son of the Border," which plays Saturday only at the Heilig. Julie Haydon, the girl outlaw, engages Keene, a Vigilante leader, in a raging conflict after he kills her bandit lover. Finally, however, she is forced to ally herself with Tom's Vigilantes in order to save herself and a protege from harm in a vicious battle.

• • •

An unusual predicament compels Laurel and Hardy to become members of a bandit gang in their latest feature comedy, "The Devils Brother," which will close tonight at the McDonald. The film is a picturization of Auber's famous comic opera, "Fra Diavolo," with Dennis King, the noted singer and stage star, portraying the Marquis de San Marco, who ingratiates himself into the good graces of all the lovely ladies while stealing their jewelry. Thelma Todd, Henry Armetta, James Finlayson and Matt McHugh are in the cast.

• • •

"Terror Aboard," nautical horror film which plays today only at the Rex, sets a new high record for the number of deaths in one picture. More than two dozen persons die, in diverse and varied manners, during the action. John Halliday, Charlie Ruggles, Neil Hamilton, Shirley Grey, Verree Teasdale and Jack LaRue play the leading roles. On the other half of the double bill is "Ambassador Bill," with Will Rogers.

• • •

Charlie Murray and George Sidney, the original "Kelly and Cohen," will close at the Colonial Saturday night in "The Cohens and Kellys in Trouble," another of the series of side-splitting comedies that have endeared this team to the nation. Primo Carnera, new heavyweight champion, is appearing in a special comedy, "The Bigger They Are."

BUTTER MARKET KEEPS STRENGT

PORTLAND, July 1.—(AP)—Indicating the strength of the butter tra all through the Portland territory d spite the fact that shipping interes were still holding Portland exchan values down, was the fact that some leading producing points the has recently been an advance of in the buying price on butterfat.

These advances were being paid the country and in spots by interes that have plants at Portland. N change was noted here, at least o enly, although some reports suggest that secret advances of 1c have be made.

Demand for butter continued to a sorb all offerings and accumulati during the last few days has be practically nil.

There was no change in gener egg market prices for the week-e The co-ops continued to quote c treme prices but reports suggest that sales were made at retail wi in the same range.

Demand for live chickens was hol ing steady along the wholesale w with prices practically unchanged f the last few days. Colored sprin were in demand as such althou some operators are buying them stags at very low values.

Both veal and hogs showed mai tained prices for country killed offe ings at the week-end. There was general cleanup of quality stuff both lines. Lambs were holding ful steady.

Practically no change was shown strawberry prices for the week-e but raspberries were cheaper. weak tone was shown in currants wi consumers evidently not yet rea to buy.

Prices were hitting unusually lo upon the open market for cherri Bings were selling as low as 4@5c l for quality stuff while Royal An was hard to move at any price. The remained steady call for pie stock.
