

SON HAS BEEN GOOD FOR CROPS

STAGE GROVE, July 7.—(Special)—How crops are growing in this year, partly as a result of a series of rains, is illustrated by a sign in the lobby of the First National bank from the Hunt and Delight valley ranch. Wheat stands six inches high and heads are well filled. Oats and speltz stalks stand five inches high and heads are also well filled. Corn plants are that farmers of the section will have a better than crop with prices well above...
