

SEWAGE TESTS TO BE MADE IN CITY

Test of Eugene sewage to determine the best type of disposal methods will be made here by O. S. C. chemists, it was announced Thursday by W. C. Clubb, city engineer.

The tests are being conducted in all Willamette valley cities as a part of the sewage disposal campaign being carried on along the Willamette river.

Sample of sewage will be taken from the trunk sewer every hour for 24 hours and sent to the O. S. C. laboratories.

Officials studying the sewage disposal problem commended Eugene's policy of measuring the sewage flow every day, declaring this city was the only one along the Willamette that maintained this practice. Each day the flow of sewage is measured here and measurements taken over a period of three years indicates the average summer flow is eight cubic feet per second.

C. C. C. Boys Find Gold Panning Is Profitable Sport

Gold panning, a new experience to many of the C-C-C boys from midwestern states, is also proving a profitable one, according to Charles H. Corlett, district commander, who returned from an inspection tour of several camps this week.

Several old-timers among the forestry quota showed the boys in the camps how to pan for the dull metal. The men went at it with a vengeance and have found "color" in many Oregon streams. On one stream in the southern part of the district, the panners are finding coarse grain gold and the major found them throwing away the "dust" in the bottom of the pan and saving only the small seeds of metal.

Although none are making sensational "kills" with their gold panning, many of the men are finding it a profitable way to spend their spare time. The men in this district are from Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas and Iowa in addition to those from Oregon and Washington.

THURSDAY PROGRAMS
COLONIAL—Double bill, "Crime of the Century," with Jean Hersholt and Wynne Gibson, and "Heritage of the Desert," from the Zane Grey novel. Ends Saturday.

MCDONALD—"Made on Broadway," with Robert Montgomery and Sally Eilers. Closes Thursday.

REX—"A Lady's Profession," with Allison Skipworth, Roland Young, Sari Maritza, Roscoe Karns, and Warren Hymer. Ends Friday.

STATE—"Rackety Rax," with Victor McLaglen, Greta Nissen and Nell O'Day. Thursday last day.

HEILIG—"Soldiers of the Storm," with Regis Toomey, Anita Page, and Barbara Weeks. Last times Friday.

The story of a pair of penniless titled Britons who attempt to recoup their fortunes by opening a speakeasy in New York is "A Lady's Profession," which opened Thursday at the Rex. Allison Skipworth, of "Madame Racketeer" fame, plays the leading role, with Roland Young, be-mustached comedian, and Sari Maritza, golden-haired Hollywoodite, sharing featured honors with her. Also in the cast are Kent Taylor, Roscoe Karns and Warren Hymer.

Two innovations in presentation of a mystery story are offered in "The Crime of the Century," showing with an inspection tour of several camps this week.

Several old-timers among the forestry quota showed the boys in the camps how to pan for the dull metal. The men went at it with a vengeance and have found "color" in many Oregon streams. On one stream in the southern part of the district, the panners are finding coarse grain gold and the major found them throwing away the "dust" in the bottom of the pan and saving only the small seeds of metal.

Although none are making sensational "kills" with their gold panning, many of the men are finding it a profitable way to spend their spare time. The men in this district are from Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas and Iowa in addition to those from Oregon and Washington.

"Soldiers of the Storm," who swoop down out of the skies to "get their man," takes possession of the Heilig theater screen, Thursday and Friday. Regis Toomey, Anita Page and Barbara Weeks appear in the cast, and the picture was directed by Ross Lederman, from the story by Thomson Burris. It has to do with the activities of Uncle Sam's Mexican border patrol, the flying counterpart of the famous Texas Rangers, and how they handle smugglers from the clouds with convincing machine gun fire.

One of the liveliest and most entertaining pictures of this season is "Made on Broadway," the farce-drama with Robert Montgomery and Sally Eilers closing Thursday at the McDonald. The sensational story of life "behind the scenes" in metropolitan politics provides Montgomery with a role that has the dash and flip humor at which he excels. A tempo that races along at breath-taking speed is packed with situations that are thrilling and at the same time blended with comedy. Sally Eilers portrays a lady of questionable reputation who is the center of hectic high pressure leading to a smashing climax.

While "Rackety Rax," the football satire closing Thursday at the State, and featuring Victor McLaglen is definitely a comedy, it also has a generous contribution of fast-stepping dances, songs and a rhythmic musical score. The theme song of the picture is by James Hanley and J. Wolfe Gilvert. The dance number which was conceived by Sammy Lee, presents an entire football game with kick-offs, tackles, huddles, touch-downs, drop kicks and a complete Rockne formation. A comedy Alma Mater song and dance are also featured in "Rackety Rax."

KIDNAPINGS STORY

no threats had been made against the presidential family and the moves were purely precautionary.

FACTOR PAYS RANSOM
 CHICAGO, July 13.—(AP)—John Factor disclosed today that $50,000 was paid in $5 and $10 bills to his kidnapers as the price of his freedom.

"I suffered unbelievable tortures," Factor said, "which it is impossible for me to describe or for you to believe."

Awakening from a 12 hour sleep, after twelve days a prisoner of a kidnaping band, he shaved off the long growth of beard that gave evidence of his captivity.

Factor asserted there must have been 20 men in the gang that seized him July 1 as he motored home from a night club. He said he was "struck in the face, bound, threatened with machine guns and driven near hysteria by the brutality and threats of his captors."

APPEALS FOR WORD
 ALTON, Ill., July 13.—(AP)—A public appeal to the kidnapers of August Luer, wealthy 77 year old banker and meat packer, to allow him to communicate with his wife and relieve her anxiety over his health, was made today by the two agents appointed by the Luer family to deal with the abductors.

Mrs. Luer, 75 years old, was described in the statement as "in an extremely nervous and distressed condition" because of worry over her husband's delicate health. He is a sufferer from heart disease and subject to frequent attacks likely to prove fatal, physicians said, if he is roughly handled.

OFFICIALS STYMIED
 ALBANY, N. Y., July 13.—(AP)—With city and county authorities virtually stymied by order of the politically powerful O'Connell brothers, state police officers alone were reported today to be making vigorous efforts to track down the kidnapers of the democratic leaders' nephew, John J. O'Connell, Jr., strapping soldier and athlete, who was snatched six days ago.

Brothers Ed and Dan O'Connell and John J. (Solly) O'Connell, the 24-year-old six footer's father, cling to the preference to deal personally with the young man's abductors, while the gray-clad troopers maintained a watch on the highways in Greene county, which adjoins Albany county.

Ordered into action by Governor Lehman, whose nomination last fall was opposed by the O'Connell clan, the state troopers kept an all night look out on the widely travelled motor lanes for an automobile resembling "the green car" which police said young O'Connell was believed to have been whisked away in by his captors.

Eugene Products in Philippines Give Eugene Man Thrill

Eugene products served at the army mess tables in the Philippine Islands brought a touch of home to Andrew J. Cummins, of Eugene, who enrolled in the army two years ago. In a letter to Sgt. William Dietz, recruiting officer now with the C. C. C. headquarters here, Cummins tells of his experiences as a soldier.

He says that Eugene Fruit Growers vegetables and fruit are used in the kitchen while the celery served at the army tables comes from James Gardens in Eugene. Cummins, a private first class, serves as an army cook and recently earned his mess sergeant's diploma after attending the school for bakers and cooks at Fort McKinley.

"I may be back to visit the city of Eugene one of these days," Cummins says, "Eugene happens to be the best little city, and incidentally the cleanest little city that I've ever been in."

Reach for a Lucky — for always Luckies Please!

Men smile at my simple reasoning

Whenever the subject of cigarettes comes up, I sit back quietly and let the men explain about the "Toasting" process. Then, if they ask my opinion, I'm pretty frank and tell them why "Luckies please"—me, at least. After all, there's an intimate relationship between a cigarette and my lips —and I'm very sensitive about my personal daintiness. Certainly I enjoy Luckies' delicious tobaccos and their mellow-mildness—but the comforting purity of "Toasting" is what I prize almost above everything else. And that is a woman's reason for saying "Luckies Please!"

because "It's toasted"
