

Demaggio Hits Safely In 48 Straight Games

ANGELS LOSE TO SEALS; PORTLAND LOSES TO OAKLAND

By UNITED PRESS
Joe Demaggio, 18-year-old outfielder for San Francisco, has an opportunity to carve his name in baseball's hall of fame when the Seals play Los Angeles today.

The youngster has hit safely in 48 consecutive games. He needs another game to tie the record of 49 made by Jack Neas of Oakland in 1915.

Although this is his first season in the Pacific Coast league, Demaggio has shown the attributes of a seasoned player. He hit he was confident he would tie and then break Neas' mark.

The first two times up against Hermann of Los Angeles yesterday, Demaggio popped out to Lillard and sent a fly to Stutz in center field. He drove a double to left in the sixth. In the seventh he again knocked a fly to Stutz. The Seals won, 4 to 1, but that was incidental to Demaggio's safe hit so far as the fans were concerned.

Jim Ogleby, Los Angeles first sacker, who also is trying to reach Neas' record, hit safely in his 34th straight game.

The Sacramento Senators welcomed the Angels' defeat and Oakland's triumph over Portland, 10 to 4, for they increased their lead in first place to a game and a half. The Senators broke Seattle's jinx over them by winning 4 to 3 in 10 innings.

Trailing by one run in the last half of the tenth, Sacramento scored twice to tally the winning margin. Vinci stopped the Indians with 8 hits, while the Senators got 13 off Pilette and Sewell.

McKoy pitched the Oaks to their second straight victory over the Beavers and their tenth in 16 games this season. An error by Joe Palmisano accounted for three of the five runs made by Oakland in the first inning. The runs were scored when the Portland catcher dropped a pop fly with the bases loaded. The Beavers out-hit the Oaks 11 to 10.

The Missions turned the tables on Hollywood in an 11 inning battle. The Reds scored two of their four runs in the 11th when Louis Almada hit a home and Lloyd Johnson, who let the Stars down with six bingles, scored Dahlgren with a single. The Stars scored their two runs in the ninth.

BILLY PETROLLE BEATS DUTCHMAN

NEW YORK, July 13.—(AP)—Billy Petrolle, the rugged Duluth welterweight, today holds a somewhat disputed victory over the speedy Hollander, Bep Van Klaveren.

Petrolle was awarded last night's bout at the Polo Grounds on a technical knockout in the fourth round when Dr. Joseph Sheridan, New York state athletic commission physician, ordered the fight stopped because of a deep gash in Van Klaveren's right eye.

The interruption came between the fourth and fifth rounds, after Van Klaveren's seconds apparently had checked the bleeding. The "Dutch Windmill" put up a protest that lasted almost as long as the bout before he finally was induced to leave the ring. He followed Referee Billy Cavanaugh around trying to persuade him to let the fight continue and then dared Petrolle to get up and continue.

Billy seemed willing, and shucked his famous Navajo blanket, but that was as far as it got inside the ring. Outside the fans took sides and put on a few impromptu bouts of their own. Up to the sudden end of the scrap, Van Klaveren made a highly impressive showing in his first "big time" fight. He outsped Petrolle and easily won the first round and made a game stand after Billy landed a couple of sharp lefts on his eye, which was damaged when he came into the ring.

Petrolle weighed 144 pounds, Van Klaveren, 145½.

British Bout Is Labeled As Fiasco

LONDON, July 13.—(AP)—Boxing critics today labeled as a fiasco the bout for the British heavyweight boxing championship in which Jack Petersen, holder of the Lonsdale belt, won on a foul from Irish Jack Doyle in the second round before a crowd of 60,000 in the White City stadium last night.

Doyle was disqualified after a series of low blows. After two palpably low punches which caused the referee to step in and tell Doyle he was ruled out, the challenger continued to hammer away at Petersen for several minutes. There were some wild scenes before the bout finally came to a halt.

Jeff Dickson, the American promoter who staged the fight, promised a purse of $25,000, but it was believed Doyle's share would be held up pending an inquiry by the British board of boxing control.

TANGENT WINS HARRISBURG, ORE.

(Special)—Harrisburg lost a ball game with Tangent Sunday 7 to 9. Tuttle, Harrisburg pitcher struck out 16 batters. This was the last game of the season for the Linn county league, and it leaves Harrisburg at fourth place, with a standing of .400. Sweet Home is winner, with standing of .500. Ten games were played. Sweet Home will contend with teams from other counties in the finals.

FOUR AMERICANS IN QUARTER FINAL

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 13.—(AP)—Four of the five American entries entered the quarter finals of the dominion championship at the Shaughnessy golf club here today.

The fifth entry, Jack Finger, San Francisco, who was a favorite, was eliminated in the second round by Scotty Campbell, Seattle, Pacific northwest champion, on the 19th hole.

Besides Campbell, the other Americans still in the contest were Dr. Cliff Baker, Portland, who beat John Lewis, Brantford, Ont., in an extra hole match; Frank Dolp, Portland, who defeated Alan Taylor, Victoria, 4 and 3, and Harry Givan, Seattle, who beat Jack Morrison, Vancouver, 3 and 7.

Don Gowan, former British Columbia champion, defeated Gordon Taylor, Montreal, defending champion, on the twelfth hole, 7 and 6. Other remaining contestants were Jack Cameron, Toronto, who beat Bobby Reith, Winnipeg, 7 and 6; Cecil Colville, Vancouver, who eliminated Fred Hohlitzel, one up at the 18th, and Ken Black, Vancouver, who defeated Dick Moore, also of Vancouver, 5 and 4.

Today's quarter final matches, all 36 holes, were as follows:
Cameron vs Dolp; Coville vs Campbell; Baker vs Black; Gowan vs Givan.

Wonder Horse May Race at Gresham

PORTLAND, Ore., July 13.—(AP)—Tentative arrangements were being made today for a match race between Winooka, Australian "Wonder Horse" and heralded as successor to the late Phor Lap, and Quickaway, the Kentucky colt which swept everything out of its way on the winter tracks of the west.

William P. Kyne promoter of a race meet to start on the Gresham track here July 21, said the race probably will be held the first week in August, possibly on a winner-take-all and $5,000 side bet basis.

Kyne is in possession of a challenge by Rufe Taylor, San Francisco, agent for Winooka's Australian owners and is negotiating with Harry Walters, trainer, and John D. Sprackels III, owner of Quickaway. Walters indicated the challenge would be accepted.

Sonnenberg, Lewis Losers in Bout

LOS ANGELES, July 13.—(AP)—Jim Brown defeated Gus Sonnenberg in the feature wrestling match at the Olympic auditorium last night, taking the last two falls after Sonnenberg annexed the first by butting his opponent into a stomach ache in 32 seconds.

An aeroplane turnover scissors secured the first fall for Brown in 24 minutes 48 seconds, and a modification of the same hold brought the second fall in 5 minutes 37 seconds. In the semi-windup Ed Strangler Lewis was thrown for a third and deciding fall by Sammy Stein.

JENSEN GETS CRACK AT LOGGER'S BELT IN MATCH TONIGHT

ARMORY PROGRAM
Main Event—Thor Jensen, Elkton, vs. Harold Hiebert, St. Helens, Pacific Coast middleweight title at stake. Best two out of three falls with 2 hour time limit.

Special Event — Gorilla Pogi, Argentina, vs. Lory Detton, Salt Lake City, 45 minute limit.

Opening Event — Tesura Higami, Japan, vs. John Nemanic, St. Louis, 30 minute limit.

Thor Jensen, Elkton Thunderbolt, will mix with Harold "True Blue" Hiebert, of St. Helens, in the main event on the armory wrestling program Thursday night. Hiebert, who took the Pacific Coast middleweight championship away from Jensen some months ago, will post his belt for this match and the wrestling fans are assured of a knock-down-and-drag-out battle.

Of no less interest to the public gaze will be the 45-minute special event between Gorilla Pogi, Argentine flash, and Lory Detton, Salt Lake City leg specialist. Detton does most of his wrestling in the air and boasts a flying head scissors that is said to be better than any ever seen here.

Tesura Higami, Japanese jiu jitsu artist, will meet John Nemanic, St. Louis, in the 30 minute opener. Nemanic wrestled Clingman to a 45-minute draw here one night and the fans have taken a liking to him. Higami is a colorful boy and will give the folks something out of the ordinary tonight.

The Odd Fellows band will supply the musical interlude. The band has played frequently of late and the music is always appreciated.

The clash of Jensen and Hiebert, arranged with considerable difficulty, promises to pack the armory tonight. There is a real, live, active grudge existing between these boys and that always helps from the fan's point of view.

Tiny Roebuck Is Winner in Bout; Wong Beats Thyne

PORTLAND, Ore., July 13.—(AP)—Using body slams to take each fall, Tiny Roebuck of Chicago defeated George Nelson of Logan, Utah, in two straight falls in the main event of last night's wrestling matches here.

Roebuck's tremendous weight advantage was apparently a barrier Nelson could not surmount. Roebuck weighed 275 and Nelson, 218. Roebuck took the first fall in 21 minutes and the deciding tumble in 10 minutes.

Wong Buck Chung, 212, Chicago Chinese, won the semi-windup from Ted Thyne, 198, Portland, when Thyne shouldered butted Chung while the Chinese was climbing into the ring, and the referee called it a foul. Each had taken a fall.

Chet Willes and Fred Maracci, both 175 and both of Portland, went three rounds to a draw in the preliminary.

Irish Sportsman Dies On Wednesday

DUBLIN, IRISH FREE STATE, July 13.—(AP)—Sir James Craig, member of the Dail Eireann since 1921, died here yesterday at the age of 71. He was a promoter of the Irish hospital sweepstakes and responsible for the first bill in the Irish parliament which legalized these sweepstakes to raise money for hospitals.

Moffitt Home From State Conference

School problems of interest to all superintendents and to the public in general were discussed at the annual conference of county school superintendents at Salem the first three days of this week.

L. C. Moffitt, Lane county superintendent, took an active part in the conference. He gave a report of the committee on different supervisory plans and addressed the conference on that subject. He returned to Eugene Wednesday night.

The superintendent visited the state normal school at Monmouth and listened to an address by President J. A. Churchill on the elementary teacher training.

The new non-high school district law was one of the principal topics of discussion, Mr. Moffitt said.

GOSS TO BE RETRIED
SALEM, July 13.—(AP)—O. H. Goss, Unemployed Council organizer, will be retried here beginning July 20. The five-man jury was unable to reach agreement on a vacancy charge against him, so his first trial ended yesterday.

HIGH CLIMBER Takes 'em over

Determined to retain their undisputed leadership of the Oregon State league, but somewhat fearful of the pitching prowess of Wiltshire, the Bend Elks will circulate the McKenzie pass Sunday for the circuit's most important game of the week. Bend and the Townies will mix on the Lane county fairgrounds. With the exception of Eugene, not yet played this year, the Elks have met and defeated at least once every team in the Oregon State league. Bend topped the Federals from the league leadership a week ago with a crushing 23 to 5 defeat.

A victory for Eugene Sunday will place the Townies in a tie for first place, but if the Elks continue the pace they will be traveling since July 4, Eugene may have a tough time in halting the nine from the upper Deschutes city. However, local players recall, Eugene has been a Jonah for Bend teams in past years, especially when the games were played on the Townies' diamond. Some of the most unexpected upsets suffered by Bend nines in recent years were in Eugene.

Clarence Murphy, winner of six games in a row, including the 7 to 1 victory over Albany at Bend last Sunday, will start against the Townies Sunday, with Ray Eubanks, veteran Timber leaguer, behind the bat. Harry McCall, University of Oregon first baseman, will hold down first for the Elks and Pete Hepting of black bat fame will play short, with Byron Haines, Bend boy who played with Chief Bender and his Old Timers last spring, on second. Floyd ("Bud") Russell, a player who is batting .441, will be on third. In the outfield will be Clarence McNeely, brother of Earl McNeely, chief of the Sacramento team of the Coast league; Pete Allen of Madras and way points and Guy Weedman of Redmond.

So far this season, Bend has only lost two league games. Early in the season, the Federals won 10 to 8 and on the following Sunday, "Squeak" Wilson of Salem, pitcher like a major league find, blanked the Elks 4 to 0. It was the only shutout suffered by the Elks this year. Two weeks later, the Elks pounded Wilson from the box and won 12 to 6.

In their eight league games of the 1933 season, the Elks have amassed 68 runs to 39 for the opposition. Nine of the 13 players on the Bend club are batting above .300.

Eugene was scheduled to play in Bend on June 11, but the game was postponed, due to the fact that the McKenzie pass was blocked by snow on that date.

Here is the way the teams line up in the league:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Bend	6	2	.750
Eugene	5	3	.625
Federals	4	4	.500
Salem	4	4	.500
Shappas	3	5	.375
Albany	2	6	.250

CHICAGO CUBS IN WINNING STREAK; IN SECOND PLACE

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR. (Associated Press Sports Writer)
The champion Chicago Cubs, who haven't been attracting a great deal of attention this season, have climbed unostentatiously to second place in the National league.

While the St. Louis Cardinals and then the league leading New York Giants floundered, the Cubs have been winning games quietly but steadily. They haven't been hitting hard, but their blows have been timely and they have had some great pitching. The result is 13 victories in 18 starts.

The Cubs extended their current winning streak to seven straight victories with a 5 to 3 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers, who haven't won a game at Wrigley field since last July. The Giants meanwhile shook off their streak of bad fielding as Hal Schumacher presented them another six hit pitching performance, and they defeated St. Louis 3 to 0 to increase their own lead and to shove the Cards down into third place.

The Pittsburgh Pirates interrupted Boston's winning ways by taking a ten inning slugfest 9-8 on Arky Vaughan's triple after the Braves had slammed out all their runs in the ninth inning. The Cincinnati Reds, after a day in the National league cellar climbed out again by defeating the Phillies 4-1 behind Larry Benton's seven hit fling.

Washington's Senators held their place two games ahead of the New York Yankees in the American league race when good pitching and a hot team victory, Washington defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-1 as Earl Whitehill pitched five hit ball and Bill McAfee finished the job when he began to wobble in the ninth. Johnny Allen's expert elbowing enabled the Yanks to turn in their fifth straight victory 4-2 against the St. Louis Browns.

The Boston Red Sox moved a step nearer the top of the second division by outpointing the Detroit Tigers 1-0 in eleven innings when Roy Johnson smacked a single to drive in Rabbit Warstler and break up a mound duel between Lloyd Brown and Vic Sorrell.

Jimmie Fox's 25th home run sent the Philadelphia Athletics off on a three run rally in the sixth that produced a 6-4 victory over the sixth place Cleveland Indians.

Twilight League

The Knights of Columbus team defeated the Underwood and Elliott team 5 to 4 in their twilight league game Wednesday night. Batteries: Knights, Maxwell and Coghlan; Elliotts, Cole and Mercer.

The Farmers Creamery beat the Moose, 13 to 5. Batteries: Creamery, Jones, Moore and Harrington; Moose, Forncrook, Green and Gleakie, Green.

Snappy Service won from the McMorran and Washburne team, 20 to 1. Batteries, Service, Howard and J. Reeson and Curry; M. and W. Jones, Wheeler and Hayden.
