Clingman-Nemanic Mix In Armory Tonight

M'GUIRE TO MEET BULLDOG JACKSON IN SPECIAL EVENT

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM

45-Minute Special — Bulldog Jackson, Klamath Falls, vs. Mickey McGuire, West Salem. Best two out of three falls.

2-Hour main event—Otis Clingman, Oklahoma City, vs. John Nemanic, St. Louis. Best two out of three falls, or two hours to a decision.

Fans who like 'em rough and fans who like 'em clean will find satisfactory mat fare at the armory tonight, with John Nemanic and Otis Clingman meeting in the two-hour main event which will be conducted according to Hoyle, and Bulldog Jackson wrestling Mickey McGuire in a special that will be conducted according to Jackson, who employs ring posts, pop bottles and referees as deadly weapons. The matches will start at 8:30.

The main event should be the fastest, cleanest match presented here since Jack Reynolds met Wildcat Pete, and incidentally, it has an important bearing on the choice of an opponent for Reynolds when he comes here in the near future. Nemanic says he can come down to the welterweight limit, and is anxious to meet the champion, while Otis Clingm.... desires a chance at him in an over-weight bout. On top of this, Mickey McGuire will be out to show local fans that he is the logical choice for the Reynolds match by kicking the stuffing out of the unpopular Bulldog.

Fans Steamed Up

The two bouts should provide the most diversified mat offering to be presented here in a long time, and Eugene fans are steamed up over the Nemanic-Clingman go. These boys put on a red-hot special here some time ago, and fans have been demanding a longer match ever since. Promoter Herb Owen is giving it to them on this card, with the McGuire-Jackson match serving as a dash of spice to give flavor to the menu.

The main event will feature hard, fast wrestling, with both boys employing punishing but legitimate holds. Nemanic says he can hurt Clingman more with straight wrestling than any rough and tumble boy can with barred tactics, while the Sailor smiles knowingly to himself and meditates upon his chin lock.

TOURNEY SLATED BY TENNIS CLUB

The annual city tennis championships sponsored by the Eugene Tennis club will be held Aug. 7 on the university courts, it was announced Thursday. A large field is expected and many outstanding players of the vicinity will probably enter.

Last year's champions who will be out to defend their crowns include Joe Kalisky, men's singles, and Kalisky and Windsor Calkins, men's doubles. Trophies will be presented to all winners in every class, and entrance fees will be nominal.

Entry blanks may be found at the university courts, and they must be turned in by Sunday noon at the same place. Pete Buck and Jack Campbell are the committee in charge, and information desired about the tournament may be secured by calling Campbell at 3095-W.

Mapleton 3-C Men Defeat Florence

MAPLETON 3-C CAMP, Reedsport, Aug. 3.—(Special)—The Mapleton camp team defeated the Florence Townies in a fast game here Sunday, 17 to 4. The game was played on the Florence park and the 3-C outfit took an early lead and held it throughout.

The victory was the third straight for Mapleton. The team is whipping into top form and is anxious for other games. Contests with Dinty's of Eugene and the Skinner Butte 3-C teams are planned.

CARD SINGLES END PITT WIN STREAK

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(U.P.)—Yesterday the St. Louis Cardinals snapped Pittsburgh's winning streak at 8 straight with a 4 to 3 victory in 12 innings. The Cards made the winning tally in the 12th on successive singles by Frisch, Crawford and Medwick.

Frank Frisch

New York gained half a game on second-place Pittsburgh by splitting a twin bill with the Phillies, who won the opener, 13 to 6. New York smothered the Phils, 18 to 1, in the nightcap.

Chicago celebrated Charlie Grimm's first anniversary as manager by trouncing Cincinnati, 10 to 6, with Bill Herman pacing the Cubs' 14-hit attack aided by four Cincinnati misplays. Brooklyn and Boston divided a twin bill, the Braves winning the opener, 8 to 5, but losing the sleeper, 3 to 1.

Washington extended its American league lead to two full games over New York by shading Boston, 2 to 1. Philadelphia walloped the Yanks, 16 to 3.

Chicago wrested fifth place from Detroit by beating the Tigers twice, 2 to 1, and 4 to 3.

Cleveland battered Rolland Stiles for 8 runs in the 9th to beat the St. Louis Browns, 16 to 8.

EX-EUGENE BOY WINS MEDALIST HONORS AT MEET

By FRANK G. GORRIE
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 3.—(AP)—Dave Mitchell, Indianapolis, Ind., and four Californians, Jack Dillon, Hollywood; Bruce McCormick, Los Angeles; Ray Hardin, Long Beach and Lyle Decker, San Jose, won the five remaining qualifying places in the National Public Links tournament here today, in a play-off which was interrupted last night by darkness.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 3.—(AP)—Coming in out of the settling dusk at the end of the long divoteering parade, Leslie Leal, a Bellingham mill worker, furnished an anti-climax today to the 36-hole qualifying round of the National Public Links golf tournament when he squeezed into a tie with Tab Boyer, Portland cub sports writer, for medalist honors.

The local lad had held the fort against the steady firing of the 160 odd sharp shooters and the final barrage by the executive rules committee until the buzz saw artist ripped three strokes off par on the last nine to post a grand total of 144, or just enough to catch the boy who had led both days of play.

Ex-Eugene Boy

Most of the spectators and golfers had left for home when Leal, a former Eugene, Ore., resident and winner of the Oregon State Junior title of 1931, plucked a par shattering 70 on the score board to add to his 74 of yesterday.

Through most of the day Boyer sported a card of 143, but about the same time Leal was making his sensational climb to the top, the executive rules committee handed the Portlander a bad jolt by adding another stroke to his score.

The officials ruled against a provisional ball played by Boyer at the third hole when he was caught in a dry creek and gave him a seven, raising the six he had reported. Tab, however, had played safe with the rules by finishing the hole with his original ball and the provisional pellet.

Two Strokes Ahead

Leal and Boyer shared the medal honors two strokes in front of Charles Ferrera of San Francisco, 1931 champion, and Joe Green of Philadelphia, who had 146 each.

Darkness halted a playoff by twelve players for the last five qualifying places and it will have to be finished tomorrow morning, before the start of match play. The other 23 to qualify and their scores are:

147—Henry Batista, Altadena, Cal.; Don Erickson, Los Angeles; Robert Tomes, Long Beach, Cal.; and Bud Ward, Olympia.

148—Louis Cyr, Vancouver, Wash., and Scotty Campbell, Seattle.

149—Tad Clarkson, Beverly Hills, Cal., and Merle Williams, Park Rose, Ore.

150—H. J. Ingle, San Diego; John Gunst, and Russell Meade, both of Portland; Pat Abbott, Altadena, Cal.; Joe Coria, St. Paul, and George Thomas, Chicago.

151—William Brown, Seattle.

152—Olin Cerrocki, Brooklyn; George Hine, Santa Monica, Cal., and Matt Palacio, San Rafael, Cal.

153—Bud Haskell, Olympia; Jimmie Beeble, Minneapolis; Robert Lee Miller, Jacksonville, Fla. (defending champion); Bob Hofer, Park Rose, Ore., and Stanley Seymour, Los Angeles.

Anderson Out

The twelve boys tied at 154 were Jack Dillon, Hollywood; Oliver Sleppy, Signal Hill, Cal.; George A. Van Horn, Garden Home, Ore.; Leonard Anderson, Eugene; Bruce McCormack, Los Angeles; Warren Riepen, St. Joseph, Mo.; Hank Foley, Chicago; James Bushong, Forest Grove, Ore.; Dave Mitchell, Indianapolis; Lyle Ducker, San Jose; Ray Hardern and Joe Nichols, both of Long Beach, Cal.

Anderson, Bushong, Sleppy, and Van Horn lost out on the first extra hole, but the other eight were unable to go any farther on account of darkness and will settle the issue for the five places early in the morning.

Scores of the four-man teams:

Los Angeles 609; Portland 613; Altadena, Cal., 615. Long Beach, Cal., 617; Seattle 619; St. Paul 620; Chicago 625; Philadelphia 629; Parkrose, Ore., 629; Brooklyn, N. Y., 628; San Francisco 629; Aberdeen, Wash., 680; Santa Monica, Cal., 635; Signal Hill, Cal., 657; Olympia, Wash., 631; Vancouver, Wash., 650; Milwaukie, Ore., 657; Louisville, Ky., 648. San Jose, Cal., 641; Spokane, Wash., 653.

CREAMERY WINS

The Farmer's Creamery edged out the Active club in a twilight league game played Wednesday night, winning 5 to 4. The tilt was slated as a play-off on a 1 to 1 tie played Monday night. Johns and Harrington worked for the winners, while Johnson and Kramer handled the battery posts for the losers. The Active loss moved Snappy Service into second place.

HIGHCLIMBER talks 'em over

What about athletic talent in the C. C. C. camps? Track fans will get a chance to see for themselves when the first of the "vest pocket" track meets is held on Hayward field Sunday afternoon. Fritz Kramer, Eugene high coach, has been drafted into service as chairman of the meet and has scheduled two events for Sunday—the 100-yard dash and the 220.

There are 21 camps in the Eugene district, with a total enrollment of more than 4500 men. Of this number, at least 3500 are young men between the ages of 18 and 25—many of them fresh out of high school. The Eugene district is fortunate in having its total enrollment made up of men from Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri in addition to those from Oregon and Washington.

The three midwestern states, with mainly rural population, have developed many fine athletes. Oregon and Washington are, of course, noted for their sturdy men and beautiful women (that last has nothing to do with the story, but should please our feminine readers).

The Eugene district is probably the best district on the coast from a standpoint of 3-C personnel. There are few of the riff-raff and rough-necks that may be found in some other districts. Most of them are intelligent, hard-working youngsters who joined up with the C. C. C. because it offered them a chance to earn an honest living and help their families and it is from this class of men that some of our best athletes have come.

Now about these track meets. It would be difficult for the district to stage one big track meet with a man from each camp competing in each event, so the one big meet has been chopped up into a series of small meets. Each camp will send in its champion in each event and in that way only about 40 men will compete each Sunday. Hugh Rosson, graduate manager of the University of Oregon, has offered the Hayward field facilities for the use of the 3-C men.

Entries for the events are coming in fast. The names may not be familiar to any of us but the advance tip is that competition will be fierce. Cape Creek camp will enter Robert Lowry in the 100 and Allen Robbins in the 220 yard dash. From Remote camp will come Lawrence E. Moore for the 100 and Chancey H. James for the 220. Tyee camp will enter Don Roberts in both the 100 and the 220. Melrose will have Carl Strate in the 100 and Harry Corwin in the 220. Mapleton will enter William F. Oseland in the 100 and Edgar Gerhardt (a Lane county boy) in the 220. Drew will be represented in the 100 by Leonard Zobel and in the 220 by Willard T. Carmody. Seven Mile Hill will have Milan C. Miller in both events. R. P. Curran will run for Loon Lake in both events.

These are just few of the entries. Thirteen camps and the headquarters detachment have still to enter their men. But all will be here Sunday afternoon.

SACS WIN, DUCKS LOSE TO MISSIONS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With its first place margin increased to one and a half games by Lauri Vinci's 15th pitching triumph of the season, Sacramento rested more easily today in the Coast league pace-setter's role.

Larry Vinci

The Sacramento ace outlasted Curt Davis in a 10-inning pitching duel at San Francisco yesterday to win, 5-2. Davis' support cracked in the extra inning and three Seal errors combined with Lahman's triple and singles by Kampouris and French to send home the last three Solon runs. Vinci gave 9 hits during the long game. Davis led the San Francisco batsmen with a home run and single.

Los Angeles pulled up even with the third place Hollywood Stars by trimming Oakland twice last night, 9-4 and 2-0. The Angels pounded McEvoy, Gabler, Salinsen and Fiebel for 13 hits in the opener, while Dick Ward, the league's leading pitcher, checked the Oaks with 8 blows. Buck Newsom, strikeout king of the circuit, whiffed two as he blanked the visitors in the 7-inning nightcap.

Lloyd Johnson was in good form as he pitched the Missions to their second straight victory over Portland, 5-3. Sam Gibson held him on even terms until the sixth inning when the Beaver flinger was forced out of the game after being struck in the wrist by one of Johnson's fast balls.

Pounding three Seattle pitchers for 21 hits, Hollywood outslugged the Indians, 14-12, to even the series. Durst of the Stars and McLarney and Welsh of Seattle collected four hits apiece during the game. McLarney, Welsh and Burns of the Indians hit homers. Although relieved by Wetzel in the seventh inning, Frank Shellenback was credited with the victory. The second scheduled game was postponed because of rain.

Bald Bill Ends Job With Tribe

SEATTLE, Aug. 3.—(U.P.)—William H. (Bald Bill) Klepper has finally quit as president of the Seattle Indians.

He had planned to leave for weeks, but officially severed his connection at a board of directors' meeting yesterday. George Vanderve, chief stockholder, became the nominal head of the club.

As usual, Klepper said he had two or three "big propositions" under consideration.

"One of them concerns a baseball job of some importance," he confided. "It would be funny, wouldn't it, if I came up with a big proposition in baseball?"

The baseball club recently submitted a plan to the city council asking that it construct a new field at old Rainier park on borrowed funds. The club guaranteed to take a long-term lease. The proposition is still pending.

Sports Parade

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. — (U.P.) — It would come as no surprise to us if the tennis fathers put the old chill on Mercer Beasley, for the eminent coach was guilty of a most serious breach of tennis etiquette upon his arrival from Europe yesterday.

When Mr. Beasley, standing on the deck of the S. S. Paris, took the blame for the blow-up of the United States Davis cup team in the interzone final with England, he shattered all tennis precedents. His admission of guilt brought gasps of amazement from the tennis writers who went down to greet and interrogate him. Not even the oldest old-timer could recall such a frank admission.

Mr. Beasley's statement was in direct opposition to the tennis code, which, as you know, calls for a blanket excuse in case of defeat. By blanket excuse, I mean one which includes everything from faulty food to an atmosphere disturbance over Uruguay. None of this sort of business for Brother Beasley.

"I'll take the rap so far as the coaching affected the result," said the father of the Beasley "program" system of tennis, which many thought would bring the cup across the Atlantic. "Vines and Allison followed my instructions in practice, but not in competition. That was my fault, however, because I failed to give them the stuff to stand up under fire."

Beasley then went on to explain what he thought licked Vines.

"Over-confidence and 100 per cent cockiness whipped Elly. He refused to consider Bunny Austin as anything but a set-up. Even after Austin had taken the first two sets, Elly continued to play with a nonchalance that made many of the French spectators, who are accustomed to see cup players battle with all they've got, wonder if the heat hadn't gotten him. Anybody that has ever seen Vines play his real game knows that Austin, even at his peak, has no business even coming close to beating him. But I'll take the blame for his showing, however. I should have driven that non-sensical idea of Austin being a push-over out of his head."

George (never-will-I-be-a-tennisbum) Lott is Mr. Beasley's idea of a real cup player.

"There's a fighter for you, that Lott," Mr. Beasley said. "The tougher things get the tougher he gets. I'll never forget his play in the doubles. Knowing that defeat would end our chances then and there he stepped out on the court, called out to Johnny Van Ryn: "Let's polish these boys off," and proceeded to do just that. He was the man to throw in there against Perry after Austin had crushed Vines. Placing the burden on his shoulders wouldn't have worried Lott. He would have enjoyed it. The situation would have lifted his game to a new peak."

So saying, Mr. Beasley ducked below for a glass of beer. He was closely pursued.

Wheat Goes Down, Stages Recovery

CHICAGO, Aug. 3—(AP)—Extremely bullish crop reports both from the American and Canadian northwest gave wheat prices a brisk upturn late today.

The wheat market earlier averaged lower, influenced a good deal by trade forecasts that world import requirements for 1933-34 would be the smallest met with in years. World import wheat needs were put at 576,000,000 bushels, against 704,000,000 last year and 776,000,000 two seasons ago, a circumstance attributed largely to determined governmental efforts likely to result in Europe (exclusive of Russia) raising 60,000,000 bushels more wheat than last year.

Wheat closed unsettled, ⅝-1 cent above yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to ½ lower, oats ¼-1 down, and provisions varying from 22 cents decline to a rise of 5 cents.
