SURPRISING SEALS TUMBLE SACS TO BOOST BEVOS BACK

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sacramento's long summer reign over the Coast league was at an end after a week-end that saw San Francisco's

Francisco's battered Seal walloped the league leaders four straight and sent them down to fourth place. Portland succeeded to the pace-setter's berth with four week-end triumphs over the Missions, 5-3 and 3-2 Saturday night and 8-7 and 6-3 yesterday.

Lee Stine pulled an "iron man" stunt Saturday to hurt the Seals to a double victory, 3-2, 3-2. He gave the Senators but 11 hits in the two games.

Yesterday Bruce Cunningham did some effective mound work for San Francisco, beating Sacramento, 8-3. Ken Douglas followed him in the box to twirl the fourth win, 12-10, as the Seals made their 13 hits count for six runs with a pair of timely four-baggers. San Francisco took the series, 5-3.

Hollywood trimmed Seattle, 6-3 Saturday night and 7-3, 10-6, yesterday to climb into second place. Cedric Durst and Ray Jacobs backed up Archie Campbell's steady tossing with home runs in the opener. Jacobs added another in the eighth, his 20th of the season, and Vince DeMaggio, Hollywood outfielder, drove in 6 runs with timely four-baggers. The Stars finished the series with a 5-1 edge over Seattle.

Sweeping its three week-end games with Oakland, Los Angeles moved up into third place, half a game behind the Seals. The Angels outslugged the Oaklanders, 9-7, Saturday night and in both ends of yesterday's doubleheader, 15-8 and 7-5.

WASHINGTON LEAD CUT TO 3 GAMES

NEW YORK, Aug. 7. — (AP) — Launching a 13-hit attack on Chapman, Thomas, Russell and Burke, the Philadelphia Athletics downed the American League Senators, 12 to 8, yesterday at Washington.

The Yanks gained on Washington by shading Boston, 5 to 4, aided by George Uhlen's excellent relief pitching and three Boston errors.

Detroit replaced Cleveland at fourth position by beating the Indians twice, 7 to 3, and 2 to 1. Charley Gehring made a homer in each game, his four-bagger in the sixth of the nightcap proving the winning tally.

Ralph Kress' outfield fly in the 11th permitted Evar Swanson to race home for a 6-to-5 Chicago White Sox victory over St. Louis in the opener, but the Browns took the nightcap, 7 to 1.

In the National League, the New York Giants extended their first-place lead to three and a half games over Pittsburgh by beating Brooklyn, 3 to 2, in the nightcap, after losing to the Dodgers, 5 to 3, in the opener.

The second-place Pittsburgh was blanked, 6 to 0, by Chicago.

Cincinnati replaced Brooklyn at seventh place by beating St. Louis, 2 to 1, when Manion's single drove in the winning tally in the 11th of the opener, and Jim Bottomley's 12th inning single drove in Hafez with the winning tally.

The Phillies beat Boston, 1 to 0, but the Braves took the second game, 2 to 1, on Jordan's single in the 10th, with bases loaded.

FEDERALS TIED WITH BEND ELKS

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 7. — (AP) — Walter's Federals of Portland went into a tie with Bend for leadership in the Oregon State baseball league yesterday as they defeated the Elks on their home ground, 10 to 8. Bend went into a 4 to 0 lead early in the game, but the Portlanders pounded Murphy, Bend hurler, hard in the latter stages for their win.

Taking advantage of five Salem errors, the Albany Aicos took a 6 to 5 victory from the Senators. Salem lost a golden chance in the seventh when Oravee homed with the bases loaded, but failed to touch second and his tying run didn't count.

The Eugene-Schapp's contest was postponed.

Scores:
At Bend— R. H. E.
Federals..... 10 15 3
Bend..... 8 8 3
Batteries: Charles and Richards; Murphy and Eubanks.

At Salem— R. H. E.

HIGHCLIMBER Takes 'em over

In an interesting letter published in the Editor's Mail Bag on the editorial page of this paper last week, Warren D. Smith, University of Oregon professor, discusses the wrestling situation in Eugene. While commending the work of Referee Harry Elliott and applauding many of the memory shows, the professor takes a decided stand against the so-called "dirty matches" and suggests that something be done about it.

The professor seems far more worried over their effect on the Social Structure and more particularly on the moral outlook of Young America, than on the physical sufferings of the rascals themselves. When Thor Jensen stomps on Mike McGuire's toes next Thursday night, the professor will suffer less for McGuire than he will for the Spirit of Sportsmanship, which, as everybody knows, takes an awful beating when Jensen climbs into the ring.

When Jensen pops McGuire on the snoot with his closed fist, the professor will worry, not for McGuire's snoot, but for Our Boys and Girls who see the exhibition and perhaps get the idea that socks on the snoot are good things.

It is true that some of the wrestlers are very Poor Sports and it is also true that the army has been the scene of some of the bloodiest, dirtiest, most ungentlemanly battles ever staged. But it is not true that the public applauds poor sportsmanship or condones the actions of those rascals who would rather win by foul means than fair.

If Mr. Smith has followed the armory matches closely, he should have learned that Virtue is its Own Reward, that unfair tactics are frowned on by all and sundry, and that dirty methods in the ring are lustily condemned.

It is in real life that our Social Structure is weak. In the armory, the people are quick to react against what is Wrong and Vile. If a plutocrat, for instance, absconds with the people's money, the public will do little more than mutter and admire. But if Thor Jensen sticks his thumb in Mickey's eye, the wrestling fans will rise to a man and boo the roof off the armory. If a gangster shoots enough people and makes enough money, he will be classified as a hero. But if Bulldog Jackson swings on his opponent with a chair, he will have his ears split by the roar of condemnation and will have to dodge pop bottles.

Here, as nowhere else, is Good Sportsmanship recognized and Villainy punished. Here we find the public crying for Justice and rioting, from time to time, in the name of what it thinks is Right. The rascals shows are not a blot on our Civilization. They are, rather, fine Moral Lessons for our young who have difficulty distinguishing the Good from the Bad in the everyday world but find them clearly defined in the professional wrestling ring.

CORWIN, HOPKINS WIN IN FIRST OF TRACK MEETS HERE

Missouri and Nebraska came through with flying colors Sunday in the first of a series of "vest pocket" track meets to be staged on Hayward field by the Eugene C. C. C. district. Harry Corwin, Hastings, Neb., a 5-5 man from the Melrose camp, walked off with the honors in the 220 and Everett Hopkins, of Lees Summit, Mo., of the Belknap company, came through to win in the 100.

All but one or two camps in the Eugene district had representatives in the meet and all of the men were garbed in complete track equipment through the courtesy of the University of Oregon. Fritz Kramer, Eugene high school coach, was chairman of the event. Trial heats were run in each race with six men getting into the finals.

Wm. Oslund of St. Louis, a member of the Mapleton company, was second in the 100 yard dash and Leonard Zoxel of West Point, Neb., who came from the Drew camp, was third.

Millen Miller, Nebraska state high school 440 yard champion, finished second in the 220. He came in from Seven Mile Hill. Edgar Gearhardt, of Eugene, a member of the Mapleton company, was third. Times in both events were comparatively slow as none of the men have had a chance to train on a regular track. Time for the 220 was 24.5 and for the 100, 10.8.

Bill Hayward, Oregon's grand old track coach, was present for the meet and complimented the men on their showings. Hayward plans to be present for the next meet to be held Sunday.

Prizes were donated by Paul D. Green, Carl Baker's film shop, McDonald theater, Hendershott's, and DeNeff's.

LOGGERS WIN

ROSEBURG, Ore., Aug. 7. — (AP) — The Couille Loggers won the championship of the Southern Oregon baseball league here Sunday by defeating the Douglas county Vets in the last scheduled game of the season by a score of 12 to 0. The Loggers landed on Nelson and Paust for 12 hits, which, coupled with four errors on the part of the local team and eight passes issued by Nelson and Paust, gave the visitors an easy victory. Gilbert allowed the Vets only three hits and gave only one base on balls.

McLemore's Sports Parade

By HENRY McLEMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Aug. 7. — (AP) — Putting the sports shot here and there: The tennis repertoire of Frankie Parker, sensational youngster, consists of 26 strokes. . . . no more, no less. . . . Equipoise, the horse many experts rate as the equal of Man O' War, has scored 24 victories in 38 tries to the post. . . . He has covered better than 34 miles in his winning jaunts and earned something like $300,000. . . . Our office statistician has figured out that each of those miles was worth in the neighborhood of $8,500. . . . Equipoise, by the way, is daffy about carrots and always has them on the eve of a big race. . . .

There are more than half a hundred ways a trainer can "dope" a horse to make him move along. . . . some of the more popular stimulants are heroin, quinine, brandy, applejack, coffee, a mixture of cayenne pepper and alcohol which is brushed across the tongue, and the "zizzer," which is an electric battery under the saddle or in the end of a whip. . . .

Elizabeth Ryan, still playing championship tennis at 42, has been knocking the ball around since she was seven. . . . Miss Ryan has won 18 Wimbledon titles, 11 in ladies doubles and 7 in mixed doubles. . . . Mrs. Helen Wills Miller, the biggest handi-capper in tennis is her weakness for blisters on the feet. . . . Mary Healey, English Wightman cupper, wears a white kid gamut on her racket hand. . . . no one knows why.

Peggy Scriven, another Wightman player, arrived here with the reputation of being the prettiest player in England. . . . maybe so, but we'll stick by Mrs. Eileen Bennett Whittinghall. . . . Hal Schumacher, Giants' amazing young pitcher, rates Riggs (Old Hoss) Stephenson of the Chicagoas, as the most dangerous batsman in the National League. . . . Hal gives George Earnshaw, big Athletics right-hander credit for much of his skill as a pitcher. . . . says George told him how to hold the ball properly.

"Track parlance for taking a horse to be "doped" is, "going to see the doctor" . . . and races in which doped horses are run are known to the boys in the know as "drug-store races" . . . Brown Berry, Mary Reynolds, King Ben, Atlantic Volo, Prince Hall, Hollywood Portia, Calumet Donald, Sir Raleigh and Spencer McElwyn are the early book favorites to capture the $5,000 Hambletonian stake for trotters at Goshen this month. . . . Hollywood Portia, by the way, will be driven by John L. Dodge, Millionaire Lexington, Ky. sportsman, who, despite his 60-odd years, is rated as one of the best drivers in the business.

Tomato supplies were greatly increased during the day, resulting in a basket to the former firm prices. Sales in general are around 50c box with a few higher or lower.

With the Dalles practically cleaned up, the only remaining supplies of apricots in this territory are from Yakima and prices there are being held firm as a result. Quality is fair. Prices are holding up well in the market for country killed meats with the continued exception of beef. The latter remains in an oversupply and prices are a trifle easy.

and told us how she's perfectly happy. And she told us why. Listen: "It's all so silly, the way they're talking about it. Did I look sick? Blue? Why should I? Did you see that demonstration they gave to General Balbo Saturday? Well, they gave me one like that. They gave me the biggest demonstration on lower Broadway that has ever been given to a girl, and that has been given to but two men—Lindbergh and General Balbo. Don't you think that will always be with me? That triumphal march up to the city hall? Millions were there cheering. It was the most tremendous thing that could happen to a girl. It still leaves me limp to think about it."

"Should I have expected that they would give me such a demonstration every day the rest of my life? Certainly not! I swam the English channel and was the first girl to do it. They paid me plenty, in that New York reception."

"So what if they have forgotten me? I haven't forgotten them!"

A small ravine in the northeast corner of Yellowstone park is known as "Death Gulch." In the early days, numerous bears, elk and squirrels met their deaths there from natural poison gas.

HINES, SCOVILLE THRILL CROWD AT AUTO RACES HERE

Walt (Cannonball) Cannon of Portland furnished the major thrill of Bobby Rowe's auto races at the fairgrounds Sunday when he skidded through the fence at the west end of the track in the fourth race. Cannon was leading, and in an attempt to add to his margin, he hit the curve too fast. His machine went through the fence like tissue-paper, and ended up in a field fifty yards from the track. The driver was uninjured, but the car was crumpled up considerably.

The largest crowd to see a sporting event in Eugene this season turned out, and were rewarded with an afternoon of thrills climaxed by the Hines-Scoville duel in the 25 lap main event, last race of the program. Hines was leading by a couple of lengths in the second lap when Scoville, former Ascot star and Seattle sensation, blew a tire. He limped into the pit, the tire was changed in less time than it takes to write about it, and he was back in the race, almost a full lap behind the Portland driver.

Scoville goes wild
The crowd was on its feet the rest of the race as Scoville threw discretion to the winds and roared around the course in a desperate effort to cut down Hines' lead. After the blow-out, the diminutive Ascot driver was in eighth place, but when the last lap came around, he had cut down the distance to third, passing car after car.

All the races were exciting, although Hines and Scoville outclassed the field in every event they entered. There were several narrow escapes and two cars went through the inside fence in the last race, but no one was injured, and they did not turn over.

BUTTER MARKET IS FAIRLY STEADY

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 7. — (AP) — Market for butter Monday appeared fairly steady in spots, but generally speaking there was noted weakness in the undertone, assertedly occasioned by withholding of churnings by some creameries.

The market for cheese is under pressure at most points, but no change is reported in local prices. Some fractional shading is reported by northern interests.

Seasonable quietness is showing in the market for eggs here. The increasing pullet supplies are quite noticeable but there was no change in open market. Much storage stock is still moving as fresh goods.

Market for live chickens remains firm locally; prices are held at the late advance here despite increased offerings.

Tomato supplies were greatly increased during the day, resulting in a basket to the former firm prices. Sales in general are around 50c box with a few higher or lower.

With the Dalles practically cleaned up, the only remaining supplies of apricots in this territory are from Yakima and prices there are being held firm as a result. Quality is fair. Prices are holding up well in the market for country killed meats with the continued exception of beef. The latter remains in an oversupply and prices are a trifle easy.

and told us how she's perfectly happy. And she told us why. Listen: "It's all so silly, the way they're talking about it. Did I look sick? Blue? Why should I? Did you see that demonstration they gave to General Balbo Saturday? Well, they gave me one like that. They gave me the biggest demonstration on lower Broadway that has ever been given to a girl, and that has been given to but two men—Lindbergh and General Balbo. Don't you think that will always be with me? That triumphal march up to the city hall? Millions were there cheering. It was the most tremendous thing that could happen to a girl. It still leaves me limp to think about it."

"Should I have expected that they would give me such a demonstration every day the rest of my life? Certainly not! I swam the English channel and was the first girl to do it. They paid me plenty, in that New York reception."

"So what if they have forgotten me? I haven't forgotten them!"

'Wildcat' Near Death At L.A.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7. — (AP) — Ace Hudkins, who has tasted the bitter and the sweet of flistic fames was scheduled to go under a surgeon's knife today to ward off the threat of death.

Shot twice in what was described as a beer parlor brawl, the one-time "Nebraska Wildcat" was reported in a serious condition. One shot, allegedly fired by R. H. Harris, beer parlor operator, pierced the right upper lobe of his lung. The second penetrated his pelvis.

Hudkins was wounded after he and several friends entered Harris' establishment early yesterday. Harris said the fighter was in a belligerent mood and struck several patrons. When he intervened, Harris said he was rebuked in abusive language and that when he remonstrated further, Hudkins drew a gun. Harris allegedly fired twice. The proprietor was booked at police station on a charge of suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon.

The largest crowd to see a sporting event in Eugene this season turned out, and were rewarded with an afternoon of thrills climaxed by the Hines-Scoville duel in the 25 lap main event, last race of the program. Hines was leading by a couple of lengths in the second lap when Scoville, former Ascot star and Seattle sensation, blew a tire. He limped into the pit, the tire was changed in less time than it takes to write about it, and he was back in the race, almost a full lap behind the Portland driver.

Scoville goes wild
The crowd was on its feet the rest of the race as Scoville threw discretion to the winds and roared around the course in a desperate effort to cut down Hines' lead. After the blow-out, the diminutive Ascot driver was in eighth place, but when the last lap came around, he had cut down the distance to third, passing car after car.

EGGS SHIFTED; GREEN PEPPERS ON MART HERE

Higher prices in some livestock quotations, changes in some of the egg lists, and some shifts in the vegetable list featured the local markets, Monday.

Both hogs and cattle were higher in the livestock list.

New York grade of eggs were quoted down to 18 cents on the extras, 16 cents on standards, and 15 on mediums, other grades remaining unchanged.

Local grown green peppers are on the market in good quantity now, quoted at 8 cents a pound, buying price.

The outdoor grown tomatoes will be coming on in fair quantity in about 10 days or so. The ones from The Dalles are in now and Dillard grown will be coming on this week.
