City News Notes

WHAT'S DOING
Tuesday

7:30 p. m.—Lane County Grocers meeting, chamber of commerce.
7:30 p. m.—Auto repair group meeting, chamber of commerce.
7:30 p. m.—Plumbers meeting, chamber of commerce.
8 p. m.—Commanders' council of veterans' group heads meeting, armory.

Wednesday

12 noon—Weekly luncheon of Eugene Lions club, Eugene hotel.
7:30 p. m.—Open forum for men and women employes, Labor hall.

Stories Published—

Two stories written by Dorothy Orr Hesse (Mrs. J. L. Hesse) of this city appear in magazines out this month. "Love Takes a Chance" appears in the Aug. 8 issue of Love Story magazine. Mrs. Hesse has received word also that a fiction story, "Strangers Are Born," sold in the Saturday Evening Post, will be published next Sunday, Aug. 13, in the Sunday magazine of the Philadelphia Ledger and in all the syndicated newspapers upon that date. This is a story of interest to many fishermen around town.

Book Players—

The committee in charge for the programs at the union services sponsored by the Ministerial association announces that the "Pilgrim Players" of Los Angeles are to give the drama "The Rich Young Ruler," Sunday evening, Aug. 27. The program will take the place of the one originally planned with Rev. Clay E. Palmer of the Congregational church as speaker. Rev. Mr. Palmer will be away on his annual vacation at that time.

P. T. A. Meeting—

The departmental study class of the River Road P. T. A. met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wesley Purdy. They studied the duties of elective officers, and had a round table discussion of parliamentary law. Those present included Mrs. A. B. Holeman, Mrs. Arthur Beebe, Mrs. Ray Wilmore, Mrs. Lewis Hoiland, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. George Cardell, Mrs. Roy Woodruff, Miss Nettie May Coleman, and Mrs. Wesley Purdy.

Man Is Injured—

Carl Berger, employe of the Williams bakery, received injuries to his right hand when it was caught accidentally in the rolls at the shop. No bones were broken but the hand was badly torn. He is at the Eugene hospital. Others listed in the morning report from the hospital, Tuesday, included Mrs. C. E. Carlson of Florence, admitted, and O. M. Brandt of McGlron, dismissed.

Interest Turned In—

The sum of $226.18, interest collected on 1932 taxes, was turned over by the sheriff's office to County Treasurer Grace Schiska Tuesday. The amount was segregated as follows: State and county, $181.25; cities, $21.36; school districts, $21.98, union high schools 94 cents; county high school tuition, 65 cents.

Going to Grove—

The Cottage Grove chamber of commerce has invited E. G. Harlan, secretary of the Eugene chamber, to attend a milk meeting there Wednesday at 2 p. m. J. D. Mickle, state dairy and food commissioner, is to address the group. Cottage Grove has had trouble with milk prices, it is said, some cutting their quotations to 4 and 5 cents a quart. It is hoped to get all troubles ironed out and have the group line up in a NRA code.

Theft Case Under Advisement—

The case of Clyde Rockwood, 17-year-old youth arrested by city police Sunday morning on a charge of the theft of a car belonging to Delbert Pickens of McGlynn, has been taken under advisement by County Judge Fred Fisk, as juvenile judge. The matter of his exact age is being investigated before action is taken.

Remain for Week—

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gorton who planned to return to their home Tuesday after spending the week-end here have decided to stay for the remainder of the week. They are guests of Mrs. E. A. Lundy, city school clerk. Mr. Gorton is traveling representative of the Postal Telegraph company.

Correction Made—

The item from police court in Monday's Register-Guard should have read that Ted Stansbie pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving and was fined $10, the fine being suspended on condition that he be more careful in the future. The item said he was sentenced to ten days in jail, the sentence being suspended.

Going to Portland—

E. G. Harlan, chamber of commerce secretary, and H. F. Allen, representing the meat dealers, are to be in Portland late Wednesday to attend a meeting of meat dealers there. The two Eugeneans will also confer with officials of the NRA and department of commerce relative to the code drawn up for the Eugene meat men.

Visit in Portland—

Miss Dollie Johnson and Miss Ethelyn Smith of Eugene spent the week-end in Portland with Miss Johnson's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson and son Billy. Sunday afternoon they visited the cruiser Marblehead and then to Swan Island to see Ironsides.

To Meet Tuesday—

The commanders' council, made up of all present and past heads of veterans' groups, will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Eugene armory.

Report From Hospital—

The report from the Pacific hospital Tuesday morning listed as dismissed, Mrs. Gladys Ballantyne and Miss Celia Peterson and as admitted, Kenneth Gay, Mrs. N. Reva Finley, Joan Jacobson, Alvin Fegles and Leo Seigler.

Humbert Family Arrives—

Rev. and Mrs. G. S. O. Humbert and youngest son, Royal, former residents of Eugene, were expected to arrive Tuesday afternoon from Enid, Oklahoma, where they are interested in a Christian church Bible school. They formerly lived in Eugene many years, Rev. Mr. Humbert being with the Eugene Bible university, now Bible college.

I SAW—

A car pulled down Agate street by a cow which was being led by a man.—Mrs. J. H.

What Did You See?

On Vacation—

Mrs. Willis J. Chamberlain, stenographer in the office of County Engineer Morse, is on her vacation. Accompanied by her husband and her mother, Mrs. Irene Thorpe, she has gone to Portland, Seaside and Newport.

Visit "Old Ironsides"—

Among those going to Portland over the week-end to see "Old Ironsides" are Alice Bates, Woodrow Bates, Blanche Bates, Juanita Seaman, George Sutton, Floyd Hoffman and Maxine and Louise Cogill.

Returns From Los Angeles—

Mrs. Harry Powell returned Sunday from a five-weeks' visit in Los Angeles with her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Buck. She made the trip both ways on the steamer, Dorothy Alexander.

At Cottage Grove—

L. C. Moffitt, county school superintendent, and R. C. Kuehner, county agent, were at Cottage Grove Tuesday on business connected with their offices.

Ben Owen in City—

Ben Owen, well-known resident of Veneta, was in Eugene Tuesday.

Lions Meeting—

The weekly meeting of the Eugene Lions club will be held Wednesday noon at the Eugene hotel. Edward F. Bailey is chairman for the program.

To Attend Banquet—

Mrs. Ella T. Edmunson and Mr. and Mrs. Sig Seashore planned to attend a banquet of the retail credit association at Corvallis Tuesday evening.

At Seaside—

Mrs. Jennie Clemmer and granddaughter, Margery Brown, are at Seaside and Portland for a few days.

Shinn in City—

H. J. Shinn, attorney of Cottage Grove, was a visitor in Eugene Monday.

From Bremerton—

B. A. Strong of Bremerton, Wash., is here spending a two-week's vacation.

Accident Reported—

H. B. Brady, 875 Franklin boulevard, filled out a blank at the city police for a minor accident at Sixth and High streets involving a cutting in case. He was going south on High street when car two cut in to turn north while going east.

Mrs. Moore Here—

Mrs. Anna Moore of Junction City R. F. D. 2 was in Eugene on business Monday.

Mr. Lind Here—

Herman Lind of the Smith, Camp and Riley company, Portland, is a business caller in Eugene for two days.

Visits Father Here—

Mrs. E. A. Pryor of the Junction City district came Monday to visit her father, L. C. Scott, who is seriously ill at Eugene hospital.

Potter On Vacation—

Roy Potter, deputy in the office of Sheriff Swarts, is on his annual vacation.

Here from Veneta—

J. A. McCutcheon, dairyman of the Veneta section, was in Eugene on business Tuesday.

Cottage Grove Man Here—

Jesse Lansing, resident of Cottage Grove, was in Eugene on business Tuesday.

Miss Hathaway Home—

Miss Janez Hathaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hathaway, is home from a visit at Cascadia.

McKinley Here—

H. G. McKinley is down from Alder Grove on the upper McKenzie for a day or so.

Blachly Resident Here—

F. Pendergrast, resident of the Blachly section, was a business visitor in Eugene Tuesday.

Lumberman Here—

Roy A. Beebe, a lumberman of Leona, formerly of Eugene, was here on business Tuesday.

Charles Cochran Here—

Charles Cochran, resident of Cottage Grove and a former Eugene man, was here Tuesday.

Attorneys in City—

H. W. Lombard and Alta King, attorneys of Cottage Grove, were here Tuesday on court business.

Elmer Vitus Here—

Elmer Vitus, farmer of the Crow stage route, transacted business here Tuesday.

Elks Meeting—

The Eugene Elks lodge is to have its regular meeting Wednesday evening, initiation being planned.

Hop Yards Look Good—

All hop yards around Independence and Salem are looking fine, E. E. Orton, of this city, who made a trip through that district a few days ago, says. Much new hop acreage has been set out there, he said, and the new growth is coming on fine.

In Records

BORN

HAYNES—At Nelson's maternity hospital in Eugene, August 8, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. L. Haynes of Noti, a son.

DIVORCE SUIT

Daisy Pitcher against Harold Pitcher, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment.

COURT DECREES

Prudential Insurance company against J. J. Chapin and others, judgment for $3442.04.

Prudential Insurance company against Carl Myers and others, judgment for $7353.48.

BUILDING PERMITS

Miss Bertha Comings, 968 Hilyard street, permit to reshingle residence, $150.

Dr. H. H. Peters, 390 Nineteenth avenue west, permit for repairs, $10.

Permit to Mrs. R. B. Henderson, 56 Sixth avenue east, to reshingle residence. H. F. Fish, builder, $85.

Permit to E. U. Lee to build woodshed, 1332 Eighth avenue west, $20.

Permit to Frank Chambers for repairs on office building, 610 Willamette street, $35, L. E. Byrd, builder.

Permit to Frank Chambers for repairs to residence, 1424 Emerald street, $52, J. L. Sterling, builder.

Permit to Guardian Building and Loan company for repairs to residence, 1839 Orchard street, $45, W. Hargreaves builder.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Milford Mooney and Genevieve Lansing, both of Cottage Grove.

DIVORCE DECREES

Pearl I. Hollis from Albert Hollis.

Lela Alice Fallis from James Willis Fallis.

Clarence Halladay from Maude Halladay.

Jack Baumgartner from Bessie Baumgartner.

MINING LOCATIONS

Notice of location of three mining claims in Winberry district filed by William Winfrey.

Gaius Gracchus, the Roman tribune who lived in 146 B. C. was the first to practice farm relief by distributing grain to the poor. He supplied, at the expense of the Roman government, a bushel and a quarter per month at half price.

Echo River has never seen daylight; it runs its course in Mammoth Cave, Kentucky.

SPRINGFIELD NEWS NOTES

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8. (Special)—Fortnightly meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. hall. A social hour will follow the regular business session.

8-Months' School Decreed By Board

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8. (Special)—Springfield schools will open Monday, October 2, and will remain open for eight instead of nine months this year, it was decided by the school board at its monthly meeting Monday evening. It became necessary to reduce expenses of the district still further, and by cutting off a month of school it is still possible for the system to operate the number of days required by the state for accredited high schools.

The board also entered into a contract with the non-high school district of the county whereby Springfield high school will accept students from the non-high district at the per capita cost of keeping these students in the school.

The annual budget of the district will be up for consideration at the September meeting. The approved budget must be completed by Oct. 1.

State President Visits Rebekahs

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8. — (Special).—About 120 Rebekahs from this city and surrounding lodges were present Monday evening when Mrs. Esther Frisbee Bond of Halsey, state president, made her official visit to Juanita Rebekah lodge here. Four lodges, from Eugene, Creswell, Halsey and Coburg, attended in a body. Mrs. H. F. Barber of Bend was a visitor, and several from other lodges were also at the meeting.

Mrs. Bond was presented with a gift from the local lodge by Mrs. Sarah Johns, noble grand. The initiatory work of the order was put on by the Progressive 22, drill team.

Following the business session a social hour was held. Mrs. Nellie Jordan, Mrs. Al Pohl, and Mrs. Elsie Lambert were in charge.

CAFETERIA PLANNED

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8. (Special)—The ladies Aid and the Cooking club of the Christian church are planning to hold a cooked food sale and cafeteria at the Springfield Electric store next Saturday. The public is invited to attend the affair. Mrs. Al Pohl and Mrs. I. A. Valentine are the general committee in charge, while Mrs. W. P. Tyson has charge of gathering food.

HAMLIN AT REUNION

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8. (Special)—The annual reunion of students of Prof. John H. Cochran, now of Medford, which was held at the Coles Valley Grange hall last Sunday was attended by F. B. Hamlin, who was Douglas county school former students of Professor Cochran was superintendent of the schools of Wilbur and Oakland. About 200 former students of Professor Cochran attended the basket dinner and program in his honor which followed. The program included instrumental music by the Mahoney Brothers of Oakland, two solos by Frank Grubb of Wilbur, who also led community singing; an address by Professor Cochran; short talks by Mrs. Ella Walter Simmons, now school superintendent in Pacific county, Washington; Mr. Hamlin; Fred Goff; Ray Henderson, principal of one of the Medford schools; Oscar Hauser, U. S. Forest ranger at Glide; and Ed Schalling, of Tillamook.

POSTER SUPPLY OUT

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8. (Special)—The NRA Blue Eagles still have not arrived at the post office, according to Postmaster F. B. Hamlin, Portland and Washington, D. C. NRA headquarters supplies of the posters have been exhausted but more are being printed and will be sent here soon, the postmaster reports. Additional NRA certificates have been filed at the post office by J. M. Larson, W. N. Long, Wilhelm Guske, and Charles H. Gary.

PERSONAL ITEMS

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8. (Special)—Charles Cook of Hartford, Connecticut, was a visitor at the Floyd Flannery home Manday eening. Mr. Cook and Mrs. Flannery were boyhood friends at Perrydale, Oregon.

M. B. Huntley left Tuesday morning for Klamath Falls, where he will attend the American Legion convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Craft of Medford, visited friends in Springfield Tuesday on their way to Leaburg, where Mr. Craft's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Craft, are going to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Roth of Monmouth visited in Springfield over the week-end.

Mrs. Carletta Buell of Falls City returned to her home Sunday after visiting at the home of her son, W. E. Buell, for the past three weeks.

Mrs. A. C. Chase has returned to her home in Myrtle Point. Her mother, Mrs. M. O. Howe, went with her to spend several weeks in Myrtle Point.

Among those who went from here to Creswell Sunday to attend the funeral of Eugene L. Howe were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Louk and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Putman and son Tommy, Mrs. Alice Doane, Mrs. Sarah Johns, and Mrs. Edna Spencer.

FATHER DIES

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8. (Special)—Word was received here this morning of the death of J. B. Hewgley at his home in Moberly, Missouri, last Saturday. Mr. Hewgley was the father of Mrs. D. C. Ogilvie of this City. He was 77 years old at the time of his death. Mrs. Ogilvie does not plan to attend the funeral.

Overseas Caps to Be Issued to 3-C

Members of the C. C. C. forest army, who have been appearing in a variety of headgear, will soon don "overseas caps" as the result of authority received here from the war department.

The issuance of these natty olive drab chapeaux to members of the civilian conservation corps has been authorized and the Eugene district has radioed its requisition for 4500 in assorted sizes.

Several of the camps in the Eugene district have planned to purchase special camp headgear but it is probable that all will accept the "overseas caps" as distinctive enough.

DURKEE'S certified MAYONNAISE

The only mayonnaise Certified to be pure by an accredited analytical chemist.

CERTIFIED to contain the purest refined salad oils, strictly fresh eggs, and other ingredients of highest quality, inspected daily by the undersigned.

L. C. Ingraham ANALYTICAL CHEMIST

Insist on the mayonnaise with this Certified Seal

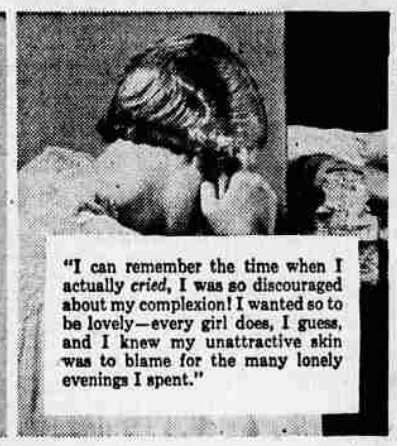
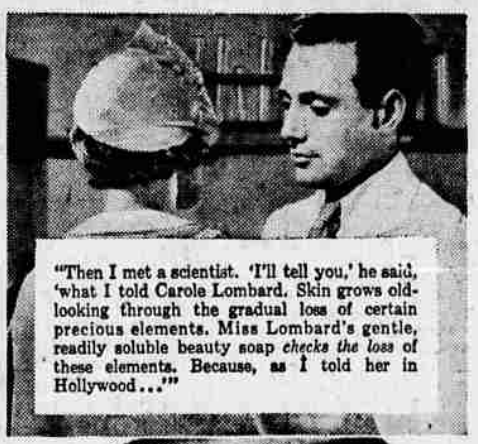
"I wanted to be lovely like Carole Lombard — then a Scientist told me about the beauty soap she uses" says Lillian Kenton, of Great Neck, L.I.



"I can remember the time when I actually cried, I was so discouraged about my complexion! I wanted so to be lovely—every girl does, I guess, and I knew my unattractive skin was to blame for the many lonely evenings I spent."



"Then I met a scientist. 'I'll tell you,' he said, 'what I told Carole Lombard. Skin grows old-looking through the gradual loss of certain precious elements. Miss Lombard's gentle, readily soluble beauty soap checks the loss of these elements. Because, as I told her in Hollywood...'"

Now is the time for everyone to stand behind the President — NRA — "We do our part"

I can't help feeling that "Toasting" makes a difference

I do not treat my choice of a cigarette lightly... for, as with other little niceties of life, my cigarette is a matter of intimate concern with me. After all, I do place my cigarette between my lips! And so, when I say "Luckies Please" —I am paying a tribute to that immaculate feeling I have when smoking a Lucky. And that is my own individual reason for saying "Luckies Please!"

Copyright, 1933, The American Tobacco Company

— because "It's toasted"