

EVERY STORE AND EVERY HOME WILL FLY BLUE EAGLE

PORTLAND, Aug. 22.—(AP)—By Sept. 4 every store and every home in the United States will be flying the Blue Eagle. This is the belief of George Creel, in charge of NRA publicity on the Pacific coast, who flew to Portland yesterday to confer with Oregon NRA officials.

The Jordan creek area is very rough and contains a fine stand of timber, all in private ownership. Fire wardens and foresters today ordered all vacationists and owners of summer cottages down to 12-mile bridge on Jordan creek.

NEW FIRES SET

MARKSFIELD, Ore., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Two hundred members of the C. C. C. camps were fighting a 600-acre forest fire in the Leon lake district today, with a strong east wind hampering their work and throwing new spot fires. Fire Warden John Walsh said the fire was of incendiary origin.

SALEM, Aug. 22.—(AP)—State Forester Lynn Cronmiller today left for Forest Grove to take command of the forces battling the worst forest fire in Oregon's history.

HOO DRIVER, Ore., Aug. 22.—(AP)—The mid-Columbia's fireless record was broken today when flames attacked a fire fringe in the Kleklat county hills across the Columbia river from Mosier, east of here. It was believed the fire could be kept from merchantable timber. Relatively low humidity kept forest officials and the Oregon Lumber company employees on the alert.

SALEM, Aug. 22.—(AP)—State Forester Lynn Cronmiller today left for Forest Grove to take command of the forces battling the worst forest fire in Oregon's history. Deputy Forester Ted Rainwater and Sam Miller of the reforestation department who viewed the fire from an airplane, reported that a shift in the wind is apparently the only hope for controlling the fire which is running in the tree tops.

COLONIAL THEATRE advertisement for 'Picture Snatcher' featuring Slim Summerville, Zasu Pitts, and Her First Mate.

TUESDAY PROGRAMS HEILIG—"Picture Snatcher," with Jimmy Cagney, Patricia Ellis and Alice White. Ends Wednesday. McDONALD—"Double Harness," with Ann Harding and William Powell. Ends Tuesday. COLONIAL—"Her First Mate," with Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts. Last times Wednesday. REX—"Cavalcade," with Diana Wynyard, Clive Brook and all-star cast. Closes Wednesday. STATE—"Zoo in Budapest," with Loretta Young, Gene Raymond. Ends Thursday.

Two of the finest performers on the American screen, Ann Harding and William Powell, are starred in the film, "Double Harness," which closes Tuesday at the McDonald. The picture, a smart comedy of a marriage-by-bachelor and a modern maiden who "got her man," is one of the most sparkling bits of film fare to show there in many a day. Both players are ideally cast, with Powell as the suave, polished man-about-town, and Miss Harding in the dramatic role of the girl who wants him for a husband. The picture has numerous amusing twists, and is peppered with snappy dialogue. Wednesday brings "Best of Enemies," Buddy Rogers' comeback photoplay.

hard boiled role, but a delightfully entertaining one. "Picture Snatcher" is based on a newspaper story by Danny Ahearn, which treats of a little known phase of the work on a yellow tabloid of the most sensational type. Jimmy, in the title role, is the go-getter picture man who gets photographs of people and news events by hook or crook, regardless of ethics or common decency. To make every thing perfect, a major role in the film is handled by your old friend of silent days, Hotcha Alice White, who almost out-Cagneys Cagney in the part of a tough old sister who gets what she goes after.

How would you feel if you were a man who longed for a life on the open sea, and were filled with contempt for the ramshackle ferry boat which served your home town, only to learn that your wife had spent your entire joint savings to make you a present of the ferry? That's what Zasu Pitts gives Slim Summerville in their latest starring picture, "Her First Mate," which closes Wednesday at the Colonial. The film is a swift succession of such laughable incidents, and is said to be the best effort of the famous comedy team to date. Supporting Summerville and Pitts are Una Merkel, Berton Churchill, Warren Hymer, Henry Armetta, and George Marion.

"Zoo in Budapest," reported to be one of the most unusual pictures ever screened, opened a three day engagement at the State theater Tuesday. The story, built around the activities and the atmosphere of a great zoological park, deals with the romance of a young man who has lived all his life among the animals, and a simple, unsophisticated orphan girl who comes to the zoo for a lesson in natural history. "Zoo in Budapest" features Loretta Young and Gene Raymond, with a supporting cast fer with Col. Edward F. Bailey Tuesday afternoon regarding a list of speakers.

Bayard Welch, colonel of the investigating division, was to meet with his captains at the chamber of commerce to perfect his organization.

Plans Are Laid At the meeting of the general directorate Monday afternoon, it was decided to start the educational campaign Sunday, Aug. 27. When the list of speakers has been completed, arrangements will be made for them to appear at theaters, luncheon clubs, civic groups and other meetings, spreading the story of NRA to the consuming public. Under George S. Turnball, colonel of the publicity committee, literature will be prepared, outlining the part the consuming public is to play in Eugene's participation in the NRA campaign.

At present there are no consumers' pledge cards and stickers at the local postoffice, but they are expected soon and when they arrive consumers will be urged to display them. Meanwhile,

NRA MEETINGS

Tuesday, 7 p. m.—Meeting of Colonel Bayard Welch's investigating division at chamber of commerce. Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.—Wood Dealers, chamber of commerce. Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.—Plumbers meeting at chamber of commerce. Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.—Journeymen painters meeting at Eugene Mirror and Glass plant. Tuesday, 8 p. m.—Eugene transfer men, chamber of commerce. Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.—Eugene meat dealers, chamber of commerce, 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.—Meeting of painter contractors at chamber of commerce. Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.—Meeting of Industrial union at Labor temple. Wednesday, 8:00 p. m.—Milk producers and distributors meeting at chamber of commerce.

The educational program will urge that consumers patronize establishments displaying the sign of the Blue Eagle. A new supply of NRA Blue Eagles arrived at the postoffice Tuesday for distribution, according to Postmaster Darwin E. Moran.

Meat Dealers to Meet

On Wednesday night, starting at 7:30 o'clock, meat dealers of the city were to meet at the chamber of commerce for the purpose of discussing a price adjustment for this city. At 9 o'clock, representatives of the public will be invited to attend the meeting and express their opinion on the price adjustment under consideration. Meat dealers wish to perfect a code of prices which will give the public a fair deal and at the same time give the dealer a fair profit. It was said.

Grocers Get Together

Other meetings scheduled Wednesday include painter-contractors at 7:30 o'clock at the chamber of commerce and the Industrial Union at the Labor temple at 7:30 o'clock. Dissension among Lane county grocers was ironed out at a meeting held Monday evening at the chamber of commerce and Colonel George H. McMoran and E. G. Harlan were authorized to arrange the code for final action the coming Monday.

"Cavalcade," the Fox Film presentation of Noel Coward's play, is the current attraction at the Rex theater, and will close Wednesday night. It is one of the outstanding screen hits of recent years, and ranks with the greatest successes ever produced. The featured roles are played by Diana Wynyard and Clive Brook, with Ursula Jeans, Herbert Mundin, Una O'Connor, Frank Lawton, Irene Browne, Merle Tottenham and Beryl Brewer in the leading supporting parts. The direction is by Frank Lloyd, and the screen play was written by Reginald Berkeley.

chief issue and after arguing pro and con most of the evening the following scale was drawn by the group: $20 a week for all experienced male help. $15 a week for experienced women help. $13 for apprentices with boys and girls under 18 years of age receiving 25 cents an hour, the work not to exceed three hours on any one day between the hours of 8 and 7.

Establishing of hours was the other main issue. The following code was adopted. All downtown grocery stores will be open from 8 to 6 every day of the week except Saturday when hours will be from 8 p. m. to 9:30 p. m.

Barbers Change Hours

The barbers of the city at their meeting Monday night adopted a code and beginning next Monday shops will be open from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. week days and from 9 to 8:30 on Saturdays. Final organization of the Eugene Barber Shop Owners' association was postponed till next Monday.

The Lane County Bakers' association met Monday night and agreed to adopt the modified code approved by General Johnson, upon action taken at a meeting of governors of the various districts of the state to be held in Portland next week. Harry Korn, governor for this district which comprises Eugene, Junction City and Cottage Grove, will attend the meeting and bring back word of the action taken there.

The modified bakers' code calls for a 44-hour week and a minimum wage of 40 cents an hour. It is expected all bakers of this district will operate under this code pending adoption of the final code in Washington.

Officials of the Eugene water bond were seeking information on NRA matters Tuesday to determine if the local organization was affected by NRA provisions. J. W. McArthur, superintendent of Eugene public utilities, was studying the code of the private power companies, but said he believed the public companies were not included in the NRA provisions.

Except for the 40-hour week, the local organization is practically under the provisions of the NRA at present. It was pointed out. It is understood here that General Johnson has issued a statement declaring that so far public employees were not affected by NRA regulations, but that after completion of organization of industry, attention might be turned to public employees.

Penalties Provided

The code carries a stiff penalty for its non-observance and any mill man or logging operator who violates its provisions will suffer the consequences. It was pointed out. It is a self-governing system to a large extent. Labor organizations will check the labor end and the regional associations will execute the provisions of the code. The West Coast Lumbermen's association is the regional group in this instance.

Complying with the production control provisions of the code, the companies that are now operating must notify the association whether or not they intend to continue to operate next month and those who are not at present must notify the association of their intentions. In this way an accurate check on future production may be had and as there will be made an estimate of future business the output can be controlled to conform to the business at hand.

Woman 66 Sues For Decree of Divorce

Eva Luella Lewis, 66, Tuesday filed suit in circuit court against Samuel Lewis, 65, for divorce, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. Fleem Henderer is plaintiff in a suit filed Tuesday against F. E. Nighswander, seeking a judgment in the sum of $110-55, with six per cent interest from Dec. 1, 1929.

HIGHWAY SURFACING WORK IS DUE SOON

The contract will be let for the hard-surfacing of the McKenzie highway between Duyle Hill and Nimrod, a distance of 14 miles, this week but it is not probable that the entire job will be finished this fall. Unless the weather is more than ordinarily favorable, Raymond Walsh, state highway engineer in charge of maintenance in this district, said Tuesday. Mr. Walsh said that it will take a month perhaps to surface the highway, but continued dry weather is necessary and it is not likely that the rain will hold off that long. However, the highway with its present coating of oil is expected to remain in good condition all winter and even if none of the pavement were laid this fall there would be no traffic difficulties, it was pointed out.

has taken the position that no reservations to the industrial control laws grant of a free right to organize labor unions was possible, but a somewhat different attitude has been taken by Johnson. Indications today were that the question remained unsettled.

Behind Johnson's plea for keeping prices down there was being shaped a thorough investigation of the effects upon retail prices of increased pay-rolls under the NRA and other price-raising elements of the new laws, to determine whether the consumer was being given a square deal by manufacturers and merchants. Both the newly-created central statistical board of the government and the NRA's own consumers advisory board were occupied with the task.

A new division was set up informally at the recovery offices to handle the increasing number of requests by code-signing manufacturers for tariff and embargo protection against cheap foreign imports.

Franklin O. Billings, formerly assistant director of valuations in the New York customs office, was placed in charge of the work. He will study the manufacturers' applications made under a section of the industrial control law providing for protection to those who raise their own costs in conformity with the recovery objective.

However, Billings said that until President Roosevelt officially delegated to the new agency the authority for tariff action conferred upon him by the industrial law, the new unit would have no power to act.
