

Carl Hubbel Wins Nineteenth Against Cards

GIANTS SPLIT TWIN BILL TO KEEP SIX GAME LEAGUE LEAD

By ORLO ROBERTSON
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

With the start of their crucial six-game series with the Boston Braves only one day away, the New York Giants today still held a six-game lead, thanks to Carl Hubbel's pitching. But for another equally brilliant hurling feat on the part of a New York castoff, Bill Walker, the advantage of the league leaders probably would be still greater as they prepared to face the stubborn St. Louis Cardinals in the final game of the series.

First in Four

Hubbel, hurling the Giants to their first victory in four games, blanked the Cardinals in the first game of a doubleheader yesterday with five hits for a 3 to 0 decision. Walker, who had not won a game since May 22, turned the tables and, also pitching five-hit ball, shut out the Giants 2 to 0 to give the Cardinals the second game.

Hubbel boosted his total number of victories for the year to 19, his best record since joining the majors. The Chicago Cubs remained in third place, a game back of the Braves, who were idle, by splitting a doubleheader with the Brooklyn Dodgers. Max Carey's men won the first on power, 13 to 5, but fell before Lon Warneke's pitching in the second, losing 8 to 2.

Pirates Gain
The Pittsburgh Pirates advanced within one-half game of the Cubs by trouncing the Phillies for the third straight time. The score was 4 to 1. Heinie Meisner pitched five-hit ball.

The Washington Senators' lead in the American league was trimmed to eight games as the Yankees defeated the Detroit Tigers 11 to 9 and the league leaders divided a twin bill with the Cleveland Indians. The Senators won the first 2 to 1 in ten innings but dropped the second, 7 to 2.

Treating four Athletic pitchers roughly, the White Sox pounded out an 11 to 5 triumph over Philadelphia. The Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns split a bargain bill. The six-hit pitching of Bob Weiland gave the Sox the second game 9 to 4 after the Browns had taken the opener 10 to 8.

Cochet Turns Professional

PARIS, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Henri Cochet, bulwark of France's Davis cup defense for five years, finally has decided to turn professional.

The famed tennis ace, once a ball boy in his native town of Lyons and later the undisputed kingpin of the game for the three-year interval covering 1928 through 1930, is expected to announce his decision officially next week.

His first professional engagement, it was learned, will come in the Franco-American matches starting Sept. 22 when he will have a chance to renew his old rivalry with Big Bill Tilden.

Barring a last-minute hitch, Cochet and Martin Plaa will represent France in these matches against Tilden and Bruce Barnes, the former Texas amateur.

Friends said Cochet had no intention of turning professional even after France had lost the Davis cup to Great Britain this summer. He planned instead, they said, to devote himself to business chiefly because professional tennis did not particularly appeal to him. Since then, however, they said Cochet had received such substantial offers as to make him change his mind. The nature of these offers so far has not been revealed.

MAJOR CAVANAUGH

Major Frank Cavanaugh, beloved "Iron Major" of football, who died at his Marshfield, Massachusetts, home Tuesday, following a long illness. Cavanaugh announced his retirement as grid mentor at Fordham last fall.

VETERAN, ROOKIE GOLFING THREATS

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill., Aug. 30.—(AP)—Two new threats for the women's national golf championship were in the field of 16 players that entered the second round of match play today.

They were Lucile Robinson, 22-year-old Drake university senior who plays with spectacles, and Mrs. Leona Pressler Cheney, Los Angeles, 1927-28 women's western champion.

This pair—a newcomer and a veteran—at the bottom of opposite brackets—were sensations of the first round. They outplayed all other contenders. Miss Robinson, in eliminating Jane Brooks, Chicago, played 14 holes in two under par. Mrs. Cheney, playing as well as at any time in her career, played 13 holes in two under par, defeating Mrs. Mildred Green, Culver City, Cal., six and five.

WOLFE WINS BOUT
SALEM, Ore., Aug. 30.—(AP)—Les Wolfe defeated Walt Sirois two falls out of three at Salem's weekly wrestling card. Sirois won the first with a flying mare. Wolfe got the second and third with figure four holds. In preliminaries Bob Myers won from Chet Wiles and Robin Reed defeated Ray Lyness.

AMATEUR STARTS

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(AP)—C. Ross Somerville of London, Ont., defending champion, will tee off at 9:35 a. m. Sept. 11, on the first round of the national amateur golf championship at Cincinnati, paired with Jess Sweetser of Mount Vernon, N. Y., according to pairings and starting times announced today by the U. S. G. A.

Cavanaugh, The "Iron Major" Dead At Massachusetts Home

MARSHFIELD, Mass., Aug. 30.—(AP)—Funeral services for Major Frank W. Cavanaugh, noted football coach, will be held Friday amid the simple surroundings of his South Shore home.

A high mass of requiem will be celebrated at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Newton Center, at 10 a. m., and burial will be at Worcester, his birthplace.

"Cav," one of the most beloved football coaches of a generation, died at his home here yesterday after a courageous battle.

Falling health and fast-dimming eyesight, brought on in great part by World war wounds, forced him to give up football coaching for the quiet of his Marshfield chicken farm.

Last month, the major, who was 57 years old, underwent an abdominal operation. He had partially recovered when, Sunday, he suffered a stroke. The Rev. Louis J. Gallagher, Jr.,

DUCKS RAINED OUT; STARS GAIN ON L. A. IN 3-TEAM BATTLE

(By The Associated Press)

Rain at Portland and a home run by Daniel Patrick Michael Crowley have moved Hollywood to within half a game of the league leading Los Angeles Angels.

With rain forcing postponement of the Portland-Los Angeles tussle, Hollywood's Crowley, subbing at first base for the injured Ray Jacobs, belted a ninth inning homer last night to give the Stars a 3-2 win over Sacramento and tighten the Coast league pennant race.

The Senators hit Vance Page and Archie Campbell freely but could not convert their 12 hits into a winning run total. The Seals nipped Tom Flynn for nine safeties.

Oakland combined a mission error with two singles and a pair of sacrifice hits to score three runs in the tenth inning and take the series opener from the Reds, 5-2. Wee Willie Luphold held the Missions to seven scattered blows, one of them Oscar Eckhardt's lusty drive over the center field fence, the longest ever hit in Seals' stadium.

Joe DeMaggio swung his bat last night with the same power that carried him to a new Coast league consecutive game hitting record earlier this season and led San Francisco to a 10-2 victory over Seattle. Joe slashed out three singles, scored two runs and drove in four more. Jimmy Zinn checked the Indians with 8 hits.

CHEMAMA CANCELS

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 30.—(AP)—All football games scheduled by Chemama Indian school for the coming season have been ordered cancelled, it was reported here. Indications are that Chemama will participate in no athletics this year.

Les Lavelle, Chemama coach for the past two years, has been transferred to Turtle Mountain Indian school in North Dakota.

H. C. COOK WINNER IN SUNDAY TOURNEY

Eight men reached the finals in the Round Robin horsehoe tournament held Sunday on the city park courts, with H. C. Cook finally winning the prize, a 27 pound watermelon.

W. H. Hayden, state president of the Oregon horsehoe pitchers, and a Mr. Owens were guests at the Sunday play, and participated in the tournament. Hayden tied with W. Gerlach of Springfield for second place, each man winning five games.

Carroll Cook, son of H. C. Cook, and former northwest champion, placed third with 4 wins, and R. Prochnow, J. A. Anway, G. Ernesting and D. Gard followed.

The final game, between Cook and Hayden was a thriller, with Cook finally winning, 50 to 44. Hayden threw 47 ringers, and Cook 48 out of 84 shoes pitched. This gave Cook a percentage of approximately 60 per cent.

The local meet was held as a practice affair for the state title tourney to be held here Labor day week-end, with the outstanding tossers from every part of the state in attendance. Local pitchers have always finished near the top, and they have high hopes of bringing the crown here to stay.

Two Suspended As California Tries to Clean Mat Game

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Howard Cantonwine and Bob Kruse of Portland, heavyweights wrestling, were suspended for an indefinite period by Chaplain Leslie C. Kelley, member of the California Athletic commission, today.

Chaplain Kelley charged: "They completely disregarded the commission's edict against rowdism and clowning and the suspension is going to stick."

Cantonwine won the match after pitching Kruse out of the ring.

HIGHCLIMBER Takes 'em over

By RICHARD JOHNSTON
If any local fans give a whoop, they can breathe a little prayer over the corpse of California wrestling. Which is all ready for interment. Or if not ready, it will be soon, under the present regulations. Tuesday night Howard Cantonwine and Bob Kruse, heavyweights operating out of Portland, engaged in a regularly scheduled mat bout at San Francisco. During the course of the match Cantonwine pitched Kruse out of the ring on his head.

Promptly Chaplain Kelley of the California athletic commission entered the ring, announced the indefinite suspension of both wrestlers, and declared it no contest, although the referee had already handed the decision to Cantonwine. There may be some doubt as to the ethics of pitching one's opponent on his head, out of the ring. However, this was not the principal reason for Chaplain Kelley's act, Not at all.

It seems that all through the match the boys had disregarded the association's iron-bound edict and had cuffed, rabbit-kicked and bit. They had groaned in agony. Eckhardt's lusty drive over the center field fence, the longest ever hit in Seals' stadium.

Joe DeMaggio swung his bat last night with the same power that carried him to a new Coast league consecutive game hitting record earlier this season and led San Francisco to a 10-2 victory over Seattle. Joe slashed out three singles, scored two runs and drove in four more. Jimmy Zinn checked the Indians with 8 hits.

John Nemanic of St. Louis will meet a newcomer, Karl Martin of Austria, in the opening bout on Thursday's mat card, Promoter Herb Owen announced Wednesday. This completes a three-bout card, with Herb Park, Canadian ace, meeting Otto Klingman in the main event, and Mickey McGuire tangling with Henry Jones, the Provo strawberry grower, in the semi-final.

Martin comes here with good notices, and should give Nemanic a terrific battle. The St. Louis boy, who is gaining a reputation as a strong, silent man, is one of the smoothest, most clever wrestlers ever to show here, and is probably the leading heavyweight in the vicinity. Excepting Henry Jones, of course, who can never be ruled out until he has been pinned twice, which is something of a task.

Jones will have a battle on his hands when he meets the youthful McGuire in the 45 minute event. Mickey is strong, fast and knows the game. He has no particular "pet" hold, but can polish them off with any one of a number. Jones, of course, will rely on his whip writhes, the finest in the history of the game.

Herb Park, the Canadian whirlwind, is set to take Klingman to the cleaners, and Owen, who saw Park wrestle McGuire in Portland Monday, gives him an excellent chance to do so.

A lot of fellows grabbed hold of a lot of girls and started kissing them. Some of them sat down and took their girls on their laps. Others stood up and kissed as though at a depot. Still others kissed with a show of violence after the manner of octopi (same as octopuses) college alumni (same as alumnuses) meeting once again at Homecoming week.

Meanwhile your correspondent stood back coldly, watched the proceedings, and speculated to-wit: Kissing is a sport that should have been organized long ago. Place it on a competitive basis and it is some fun. Place it on any basis and it is still some fun. Mr. Bert Nevins, the father of competitive necking, told this correspondent that he would not be surprised to see the game sweep the country like the black sheep of the wildlife family.

"It has everything polo has got, and more," Mr. Nevins explained. "Every person is fully equipped to participate. You need absolutely no equipment. Of course, a Ford car or a canoe or a penthouse or a screen porch might be considered necessary equipment by some. But the game in its rudimentary form is so inexpensive that it should have an immense appeal to the masses. Of course they said that about Dr. Coue, wearing assiduous bags around the neck to ward off disease, and bundling. But I honestly and sincerely believe that kissing is here to stay."

We are inclined to agree with Mr. Nevins. But on one point we must dissent. The idea in this Coue Island kissing bee is endurance. The contestants try to hold one kiss for several hours. We believe that later on, when people catch on to this kissing, points will be awarded for technique and beauty of execution, rather than ability to take it.

Mr. Nevins also pointed out that kissing, unlike golf, water polo, tennis and volleyball, was a simple sport to learn, and not cluttered up with a silly lot of instructions such as "keep your head down," "keep your elbows in," "follow through," and the like.

Those interested in learning the new sport are advised to take a stroll along Riverside Drive some moonlight night when the fleet's in. The sailors, it seemed, adopted the game from the Far East, where it has been known for many years.

Grains Nervous, Finish Strongly

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Grains fluctuated nervously today in a relatively light and easily influenced market, but finished strong.

Wheat skidded around over a range of more than six cents a bushel and by its gyrations pulled all other grains up and down. A mixed opening in wheat was followed by sharp breaks of three cents or more, but these were later recovered. Liquidation of September contracts before the first delivery date, Friday, was the chief unsettling influence. The general run of news was bullish, but was of little consequence. Corn and oats were depressed and rallied by wheat action.

Wheat closed strong and near the high point at gains of 2 3/8 to 2 7/8 cents, compared with yesterday's finish.

Corn was 1 7/8 to 2 1/4 cents higher. Oats 3/4 to 1 7/8 up, rye 1 3/4 advanced, and provisions ranging from 25 cents lower to 8 cents higher.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Wheat No. 2 red 83; No. 1 hard 82 1/2 to 84 1/4; corn No. 1 yellow 48 1/2 to 49; No. 2 white 50 1/2 to 51 3/4; oats, No. 2 white 38 1/2 to 39; rye, No. 1, 68 1/2; No. 2, 67 1/2. Barley 46 to 47. Timothy seed $5.50 to 5.60 cwt. Clover seed $9.50 to 11.45 cwt; hard $5.45; bellies $8.
