Gleemen to Start

The Eugene Gleemen, civic chorus, will start their rehearsals next Tuesday evening, September 12, at 7:30 o'clock in the chamber of commerce rooms, announces Dr. Charles E. Hunt, president. A good supply of new music has arrived and the Gleemen are planning "big things" this year, reports Dr. Hunt. The home concert will come in December at McArthur court. At least three outside engagements are to be lined up, including one at Portland. The three outside concerts will come after the home program. John Stark Evans, well known director of the Gleemen, is particularly enthusiastic over the coming year and the music planned for the group. There are to be a few vacancies filled this season.

To Give Plays

The University Players will present a group of plays, monologues, pantomimes, and musical numbers at the First Methodist Episcopal church next Monday evening, Sept. 11, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Wesley club and the Epworth league of the church. The plays to be given are "Evening Dress Indispensable" and "Laughter of the Simps." The players have been giving performances throughout the Willamette valley during the past summer. The group of players includes Wilbur Walker, Elizabeth Scruggs, Louise Marvin, and Bruce Martin. A small admission is being asked.

Here On Thursday

Worthington C. Smith, traveling passenger agent of the Northern Pacific railway, was here Thursday on one of his regular business trips to this section. Business is looking brighter, he reports. He was registered at the Eugene hotel. Among others at the hotel for the mid-week were Al Sherrig of the Blake-Moffitt-Towne Paper company, Portland, and a former Eugene resident; William Bell of the Pacific Finance corporation, Portland; A. O. Walker, service station man and J. Arthur Berg, attorney, both of Coquille; F. H. Spens, Salem; Claude Nasburg, insurance man from Marshfield; P. H. Schnell, Union Oil company man from Salem.

Kindergarten Planned

Registration for kindergarten pupils will start Monday, September 11, at 9 o'clock in the kindergarten room of the Frances Willard school. This is the fourth year the kindergarten has been held in the Frances Willard school. The program this year will be conducted on the same plans as formerly. The curriculum includes hand work, music, rhythm, dancing, expression, supervised play, general citizenship and piano instruction with supervised practice. Mrs. Blanche Jackson and Mrs. Max Combs are the teachers.

Broadcast Stated

Members of the International House on the campus will present a musical program over station KORE Friday evening from 6 until 6:15. Victor P. Morris, faculty sponsor for the house, will also give a short talk about the institution and its purpose. Several new members are expected in the house this year, according to Mrs. H. S. Tuttle, housemother, as several foreign students will come here and others already here are interested. Five Japanese students from the Hawaiian islands are among those who will be in the house this year.

Lectures Scheduled

Dr. Thaddeus M. Nindard of the Portland Divine Science church is to give a series of lectures at the Unity Truth Assembly, 877 Willamette street, beginning this coming Sunday at 11 a. m. Three meetings a day are planned for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. At 10 a. m. a healing class will be led by Dr. Nindard, and at 2:30 and 8 o'clock he will give lectures. Dr. Nindard has been in this work for over 30 years, and has many friends in Eugene.

Forest Exam Stated

Civil service examinations for the position of junior forester and junior range executive in the national forest service have been announced at the office of P. A. Thompson, supervisor of the Willamette national forest. The entrance salaries are from $2000 to $2600. Applicants must register by September 26.
