We received the following message today:
 "Ralph & Stanley, Eugene, Ore., 'Secretary Wallace greatly concerned enormous surplus butter. Has suggested that a promotional campaign sale on a basis of 2 cents per pound above local market be inaugurated by all retail sales organizations immediately and continued for ten days with publicity appealing to the consumer to aid the dairy industry by buying and using more butter because it is low in price and of great beneficial value as food. You are asked to co-operate this move and to wire Secretary Wallace your being agreeable to do so.'"
 Yours very truly,
 A. C. JONES,
 Secretary.

EDITORIAL—
 When a man "has to go to a general to get his explainin' done for 'im" it is getting serious, but I'm mighty glad that fellow Pearson got his wages raised to $20.00; still, I'd hate to squander half that much on "the likes of 'im."
 Yours truly,
 GEO. C. STANLEY.
