Science Vs Brute Force At Armory Tonight

JONES, THE OLD MASTER, TO MEET BULLDOG JACKSON

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM

30 minute opener—Dorry Detton, Salt Lake, versus Jack Mitchell, Longview. Best two out of three falls.

45 minute special—Mickey McGuire, West Salem, versus Hugh Adams, Sauvies Island. Best two out of three falls.

2 hour main event—Bulldog Jackson, Klamath Falls, versus Henry Jones, Provo, Utah. Best two out of three falls, or two hours to a decision.

Can science master brute force? Can virtue win over villainy? The answer to these all-important questions is to be found at the armory tonight, when Henry Jones of Provo, Utah, representing science and virtue, tangles with Bulldog Jackson, the hairy-chested gent from Klamath Falls, who gets his commission from brute force and villainy. The match will top a three bout card, getting under way at 8:30.

Jones and Jackson met at Portland Monday night, and the Bulldog won, the finishing "hold" being several nicely administered kicks to Jones vitals. The strawberry king believes Jackson "done him wrong," and says that once he gets the Bulldog in a whip wristlock, he'll have to have his arm unwound by an osteopath.

When asked for a statement on this evening's encounter, Jackson squared his chest, stuck out his jaw and growled "I'm Bulldog Jackson! I wheep him!" He refused to comment further, although assured that nothing he said would be used against him.

Although the main event will be a knock-down and drag-out affair with plenty of kicking and fisticuffs, the two specials have all the earmarks of clean wrestling. In the opener, Dorry Detton will meet Jack Mitchell, and, though Mitchell has never appeared here before, press notices from Portland list him as a clean, aggressive wrestler. Detton never resorts to rough stuff unless his opponent starts something.

Mickey McGuire and Hugh Adams, who meet in the 45 minute special, rely on skill and science also, and rarely consider an illegal blow. So that's Thursday's line-up, with a little of everything, including a probable battle between Jackson and Harry Elliot.

SIX VETERANS TO START STAGG GAME

MONMOUTH, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Coach Larry Wolfe today named six lettermen from last year on the Oregon Normal school lineup which will start against Coach Alonzo Stagg's College of Pacific eleven at Multnomah Stadium in Portland tomorrow night.

Only two of these players were regulars last year, Wolfe said. "We are pretty green to go against a team like Pacific, but we'll let them know they had a ball game."

Had he any new tricks to spring in addition to the numerous old ones?

"Well, I hope I have a new one, at least I better have," Wolfe said. "There are only nine lettermen on my squad and I understand Stagg has 27. My team is light and my reserves green. They'll make some mistakes, but they'll play hard, alert football."

The game will introduce Coach Stagg's football on the Pacific coast.

For the starting lineup Wolfe named Johnson and Benjamin ends, Allen and Murphy tackles, Carey and Arenz guards, Newguard center, Mahan, quarter, Edwards and Graham halfbacks, and Don Goode fullback. Graham will be the blocking halfback.

Robin Reed Beats Noel Franklin in Bout at Portland

PORTLAND, Sept. 21.—(AP)—After losing the first fall, Robin Reed of Reedsport came back to take the next two and win the main event of last night's wrestling card here from Noel Franklin of Pocatello, Idaho. Reed weighed 147 and Franklin 146.

Franklin applied a headlock and an arm bar to take the first fall in 25 minutes. Reed evened the match in 8 minutes with a reverse arm scissors and 25 minutes later put over the winning fall, with a body press.

Herb Bergeson, 146, Portland, won the semi-windup from Toughy Davis, 148, Portland, getting one fall.

Ray Fabrpabt, 205, Medford, and Jack Anderson, 210, Denver, went three rounds to a draw. Julian Gigi, 195, Portland, defeated Jack King, 190, Portland, with one fall in the preliminary.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH GRAYSON

HOPS UNCHANGED

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Hops quiet, unchanged.

AFTER MORGAN'S JOB!

Alex Eagle, 220 pound tackle, who hopes to fill Captain Bill Morgan's shoes on the University of Oregon football team. Eagle saw a good deal of action last year, and is one of Coach Prink Callison's outstanding line prospects! He'll be seen against Linfield Friday night.

HIGHCLIMBER Talks 'em over

By RICHARD JOHNSTON

With three football games slated for this week, and football weather prevailing hereabouts, it's hard to realize that the baseball season is still in force in the big leagues. Of course, there are only a few more weeks of play, including the world series, and in the National league the champion has already been decided.

With Washington still leading the American, and with just one pesky little game preventing a pennant cinch, the grandstand experts are getting the series betting started. Odds at present favor the Solons, 2 to 1, principally because of a young man who has proved poison to every team in the league. He is "General" Alvin Crowder, ace moundsman of the Washington club.

However, although Crowder has attracted much attention all season it was Walter Johnson, famed "big train" of the majors, who concentrated the spotlight on him and consequently stacked the odds against the Giants.

"Crowder," said Walter the Great, "is the greatest pitcher in baseball, and deserves to rank with Mathewson and Waddell and Alexander." Modestly, Walter left his own name out of the charmed circle. With a recommendation from Johnson such as this, the railbirds instantly sent the odds up. However, by the time the series opens, they will probably be about even, and this series is as much of a toss-up as any in recent history.

We are losing faith in Thor Jensen. Long one of his most ardent, if not ablest defenders, we fear that Thor is hoisting the white flag. For Herb Owen, local promoter, has been battering at the Thunderbolt for months in an effort to persuade him to put up his belt, emblematic of the coast middleweight championship, for a match with Otis Clingman, and Thor has consistently refused.

There is much interest in Eugene in such a bout. Clingman, the most popular boy since Sneeze Achlu, wants it. The fans are crying for it. But when Herb called Jensen last week in an effort to arrange it for Thursday, Thor went deer-hunting. If Jensen is to stay out of the realm of "cheese champs," he would do well to post the title.

YANK RALLY KEEPS SOLONS STEP AWAY FROM FLAG CINCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

Delayed by a belated rush of the New York Yankees and by their own failure to win a couple of games from the last-place St. Louis Browns, the Washington Senators were still at the door of pennantland today. The Senators were only one game away from a mathematical certainty today after snapping their brief losing spell with a 13 to 5 triumph over the Browns yesterday. They could clinch the flag this afternoon with another triumph over St. Louis or by winning any one of the next six contests. But they still hadn't succeeded in shaking off the Yankees.

Dan MacFayden

Yanks Improve

Once they were counted out of the race in actual if not mathematical terms. The Yanks, eased up in their efforts and promptly began to play better ball. When they defeated the Chicago White Sox by a 5-3 count yesterday, it was their 13th victory against two defeats and a tie in their last 16 games. And Danny MacFayden, who went the full route, was the eleventh successive Yankee pitcher to hurl a complete game.

The Senators, meanwhile, got back on the pennant trail by whacking Ed Wells and Roland Stiles. Al Crowder gave only five hits in all to win his 24th victory of the season. Lefty Bib Grove, the Philadelphia ace, trailed right behind Crowder in the victory column, chalking up No. 23 at the expense of the Detroit Tigers in a duel with Carl Fischer. The score was 2-1 as Grove proved the more effective in the pinches although the A's were outhit 8-5.

Only one game was in the National league program as the New York Giants, newly crowned champions, led the eastern teams to their home sector. The Brooklyn Dodgers stopped off at Pittsburgh and took a 3 to 0 triumph.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Bar silver weak, 1 1-8 lower at 39¼.

Workout Under Lights Sets Oregon For Game

A final workout under the lights of Hayward field Thursday night was to end preparations for the University of Oregon football squad for their first game of the season with Linfield college Friday night, starting at 8 o'clock.

Although the usual first week injuries have cut down the list of tentative starts for the Linfield contest, the majority of the Webfoot squad is in first class condition. Ned Simpson, promising end candidate, suffered a badly cut jaw when he was kicked in the face in scrimmage. Bree Cuppoletti is still nursing his dislocated shoulder and Pepper Pepelnjak has a slightly bruised leg.

Word from the Linfield campus indicates that Coach Henry Lever is bringing a hustling young squad here for the game. With a fair sprinkling of veterans, Lever and Merle Hagen, assistant coach, have built a fast, hard-driving outfit in their three weeks of practice.

The Oregon starting lineup, while not yet announced by Callison, will very likely include mostly lettermen. The backfield for this morning's workout included Bob Parke, Mark Temple, Leighton Gee and Mike Mikulak. Bernie Hughes, Con Fury and Chuck Swanson all took their turn at center. Alex Eagle, Chuck Bishop, Biff Nilsson and Dwight Neilson worked at the tackles positions. The guard berths were handled by Cuppoletti, Roy Gagnon, Dutch Clark and Gardner Frye.

A flock of ends, including the three veterans—Butch Morse, Bud Pozzo, and Chuck Wishard—alternated with Bud Jones and Mason McCoy in the workout. Simpson was kept on the sidelines with his injury.

Prices for the game will be 40 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. University students will be admitted free upon presentation of their student body cards

GOLDEN TIDE OF UNIVERSITY HIGH MEETS REDMOND

University high's Golden Tide, coached by Jean Eberhart and Bill Bowerman, open their 1933 football season against Redmond Saturday night on Hayward field. The game will start at 7:30. Although Eberhart is none too optimistic over his team's chances, he believes they will give the Easterners a battle, and he admits that they look better now than they did at this time last year. Redmond is coached by Larry Winter, great Oregon end who came here with Doc Spears, and is said to have a strong outfit.

Bill Bowerman

Starters Named

The campus coaches have been working their men hard during the past week, and probable starters have been selected. Nies, a transfer from North Bend, is looking good at one of the end posts, and will likely start there. Bob Booth is in line for the opposite wing.

Don Brace is a cinch for one tackle position, but Ken Kirtley is being crowded hard by Fred Heidel and Elroy Jensen, and any one of the three may get the call Saturday night. Skene has been shifted to center, and may start there. Frank Roberts, regular pivot man, has shown some weakness on defense, and it is to bolster this defect that Skene has been moved. Rosson, snapperback candidate from Roosevelt, has plenty of fight, but lacks experience.

Guard positions are still in doubt, although Dick Hill and Prenny Weber have been outstanding so far. Winfield Gredvig, Fred Booth and Art Soward will see action.

Goodpasture Certainty

There are plenty of backfield aspirants, with Bob Goodpasture, captain, the only certainty. Goodspasture has the fullback post nailed down, and is one of the outstanding line-crashers in the district. Marion Mann understudies him, but may be shifted to half. Rex and Ray Soward, Chuck Igoe and several others are battling for the half posts, with the Soward brothers holding a slight edge. Jim Mountain has been getting the quarterback assignment of late.

PENNANT HOPES OF HOLLYWOOD WILTED

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hollywood pennant hopes are fading rapidly before the slants and fast balls of the Los Angeles pitching force. The Stars trailed the Coast league leaders by six full games today with only six more remaining to be played this week and seven next before the season's close.

Fay Thomas, one-time University of Southern California athlete, did the job last night, limiting the movieland boys to 8 divided hits as Los Angeles won 5-3. He struck out 12 Stars during the evening. The Seraph home run king, Gene Lillard, hit his 43rd of the season in driving Dick Schultz to the showers in the eighth. Jim Oglesby, Angel first sacker, also hit for the circuit in that frame.

Back in April Curt Davis, ace of the 1932 San Francisco hurling staff, dropped his first six games. The bleacher coaches admitted Davis was through. Yesterday Curt stopped the Missions 5-2 for his 20th victory this year. He demonstrated he had "come back" by scattering the 8 Red blows through 8 innings. To top off the day's work Davis clouted a four-bagger after hitting a double earlier in the game.

Rain forced postponement of the Sacramento-Portland and Oakland-Seattle clashes.

EHS Grid Aces Are Confident Of Jeff Win

Eight 1933 Eugene high footballers played against Jefferson high last fall when Coach Fritz Kramer's Eugeneans took a 33 to 0 lacing at the Portland city. The eight, all veterans, are first stringers on this season's squad which tangles with the Democrats Saturday afternoon.

"What are you going to do to Jeff this year?" they were asked Thursday. Here are their answers, just as they gave them, and if Eugene lacks anything Saturday, it certainly won't be confidence, judging from the following:

Hugh Mercer, star halfback whose brother, Jay, is playing for Jeff—What am I going to do to Jay? It's probably more what he's going to do to me, but he'll know he's been in a ball game when I'm through with him.

Captain Homer Reed, tackle—If we all get behind the team and go out there and give 'em everything we've got, we'll win.

Leonard Brown, halfback—We're better than last year, and they're going to get the battle of their lives.

Dick Wright, end—We're going to win.

Wayne Warner, quarterback—If we go out and give them all we've got, they can't stop us.

Ernie Robertson, fullback—Jeff's not so tough as they were last year. We have a good chance.

Waldo Campbell, end—I think we have a good chance to beat 'em if we all get out and fight.

Ray Muhr, tackle—Jeff's not so tough. We've an even up chance to beat them.

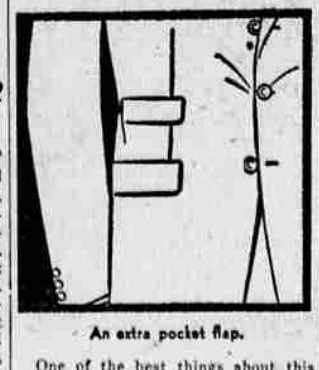
Changes In Men's Fashions Discussed By Style Leader

It's easy to see the reason for the new, loose-fitting loungy styles in men's clothing. It's simply the result of more leisure time men now have for giving more thought to their physical well-being. The new styles are good for all the hours that the average man has to lounge about nowadays.

The new drape and lounge styles are the best example of this trend to more comfort. They have loads of fullness in the chest. The shoulders are broad, but natural.

The most unusual characteristic of these styles is the soft-making, that is, there is very little padding and stiffening in the coat. This relieves the wearer of all the clumsiness and feeling of confinement experienced in former styles.



An extra pocket flap.

One of the best things about this new drape style is that it is very flattering for most men. It makes you look taller and broader—smaller at the waist and larger at the shoulders and chest.

The distinguishing feature is a soft, easy drape, which is definitely molded to fit the figure perfectly with remarkable comfort and freedom. The coat is sharply depressed at the waist, has high notched lapels and two buttons. Only the top button is used.

The extra cash flap, which is illustrated here, appearing on the right side of the coat is another interesting-looking detail which identifies the newest of fall models. Don't be deceived, there's no pocket there. Instead, the cash pocket is placed on the inside of the right hip pocket. It's simply a new style note.

The new zipper fastener.

The trousers for this style are high-waisted and the waistband is finished with a tab. There are two front pleats. The style is semi-peg with full hips tapering to the bottom and they are worn just to reach the shoes. The vest is short with six buttons. Only five are to be buttoned.

Many of the better suits will have trousers with the Talon zipper fly fastener in place of buttons. It is very practical, convenient and neat. This is what science has contributed to the new suit styles. The zipper fastener looks much better and the wearer has the satisfaction of knowing that it can't be one o'clock. With modern life crowded with complications, at least this one worry is eliminated.

Another added feature of the newest suits is shirt clasps on the inside of the trousers band. These attach in a simple way to the shirt and keep it neatly in place—prevent the usual unsightly bulge under the collar.—Duncan Paige.

WHEAT CUT TWO CENTS HERE FOR THURSDAY LISTS

Butter and butterfat were up one cent all along the line Thursday while wheat dropped two cents.

Buying prices on butterfat bring it back to 18 cents on the sweet and 16 cents on the cour. Wholesale prices on butter are now 25 cents on the sweet cream and extra quarters, 24 cents on the extra prints, and 23 cents on the standard prints.

Wheat is down to 65 and 63 cents, following cuts in the Portland price. Chicago wheat was down 5 cents.

Spinach is up a bit, being a little scarcer.

This week will clean up the local peaches, it is said.

Eggs, poultry, and livestock were all unchanged in the Thursday listings.

Following was the price list for the day here:

Wheat Tumbles 5 Cents Thursday

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A storm of stop-loss selling that broke out late today tumbled wheat prices down 5 cents a bushel, the extreme limit allowed for any one session.

Moderate rallies which were seen after noon in the wheat market were more than wiped out. Conflicting reports from Washington as to whether there would be inflation or not, with weakness of stocks, cotton and sterling, and a sharp reduction in the price of free gold, caused grain holders to become uncertain of their position, and led to heavy liquidation.

At the low point, wheat was off 7 cents from Tuesday's high.

Wheat closed semi-demoralized, at the day's lowest level, 5 to 5 1-8 under yesterday's finish, corn 3 5-8 to 4 cents down, oats 3 to 3 1-8c off, and provisions unchanged to 25 cents lower.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Table: Wheat:

Sept., open, 90¼; high, 90¼; low, 87¼; close, 87¼.

Dec., open, 93 3-4 to 94½; high, 94½; low, 90 3-4; close, 90 3-4.

PUBLIC MARKET HAS BUSY DAY

The Producers' Public market reported a fair trade Thursday.

Spinach was quoted up a bit to two pounds for 13 cents.

Butter, eggs, and poultry all continued unchanged.

Peaches are getting much scarcer on the market as the season ends.

Pears are coming in fairly plentifully still, as are prunes. More apples are coming in, too.

Grapes are due soon in good quantity. A few have been coming in small quantities the past week.

Following was Thursday's list at the market:
