

JOHNSON REVISES PRICE SCHEDULES IN LUMBER CODE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—(AP)—NRA Administrator Hugh S. Johnson, in response to appeals from several west coast lumber groups, has modified price schedules laid down by the lumber code authority. The modifications are effective tomorrow. The code authority, in "Bulletin 22," had prescribed that when Oregon and Washington lumber was sold on a delivered basis, the actual cost of transportation should be added to the minimum mill price. It also had ruled that shipments to California by rail should in no case be priced less than the sales of the same item shipped by water. Johnson cancelled these orders and prescribed 15 pages of rules and rates, defining points, laying down rules of calculating delivered prices for water and rail shipments and establishing minimum transportation allowances to various destinations. Deputy Administrator E. A. Selbridge, who heard voluminous testimony on the issue last month, said the principle was that "in order to maintain free and fair competition between shippers to common competitive markets, it is necessary that partial absorptions of published established transportation costs, whether by rail or water, be permitted so that the trade and the consuming public may be assured of fair and stabilized prices at points of delivery to prevent unfair and unfair competition." A new amendment to the lumber code, requested in the name of President Roosevelt, would place heavy taxes, pulpwood, acid wood, mine prop, cord wood and coopers staves and their industries under the lumber code. NRA will hold public hearings on this amendment March 12 in Washington. The president has asked leaders of the lumber industry to confer with him late this week on the industry's plans for undertaking the forest conservation program provided for in the code.

ROOSEVELT WARS ON BOOTLEGGERS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—(AP)—President Roosevelt and his aides are concerned over continued activity of bootleggers and are investigating the prices of legal liquor. This was made known today as lawmakers gathered at the president's semi-weekly press conference. Joseph Choate, administrator of the federal alcohol control board, has reported that imports are below expectations. The administration is seeking to determine if there is a shortage of supplies necessitating the high price of liquors, against which many complainants are being made. A suggestion has been made for lowering the tariff on liquor imports as one method of approaching the problem. Whatever happens, it was emphasized that Mr. Roosevelt wants to put the bootleggers out of business. To that end a serious study is in progress.

Thus the opening date for Eugene is indefinite.

Seven Men at Work On Lucky Boy Road

Seven men are at work blasting off the rocky points on the road from Blue River to the Lucky Boy mine, according to Cal M. Young, county commissioner, who inspected the work Tuesday. The commissioner said that a crew from Camp Belknap of the CCC will be put to work next week grading the road and widening it so trucks can reach the mines. They will use a "bulldozer," which is a tractor with a scraper attached in front, and will maintain the grade as it proceeds up the mountain.

A stork's nest, in the village of Grunewald, Germany, was found to contain 30 sparrow nests worked around the outside border.

"B" LEAGUE HOOP TOURNAMENT MARKED WITH FAST GAMES (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

The fans were provided with an upset in the first game of the tourney as Walker came from behind to edge out a 24 to 20 victory over Santa Clara. Led by Wither, star guard who scored 16 points, the Walker eagles overcame a 14 to 10 halftime disadvantage and annexed the first victory of the day. Baker, Santa Clara forward, was outstanding for his club with 7 points. Both teams missed numerous foul shots. The Lowell girls scored a 27 to 10 victory over the Thurston team in the second tilt of the forenoon, after leading 19 to 8 at the half. Hamilton, flashy Lowell forward, accounted for 20 of her team's points. Both outfits played good ball, but Lowell's shooting was more accurate, and their floor game a little smoother. The Oakridge boys, Eastern division champions, came through as expected against Mohawk, winning impressively 36 to 11. Gilbert Sprague, Oakridge coach, played his entire game. Laddy Galt, believed by Thurston to be the outstanding center of the district, scored 14 points, while Dorlier and Nelson looked good on the floor. Wojniak, diminutive Mohawk forward, was responsible for 8 of his club's points. In the 11 o'clock game, the Crow girls showed a close-checking defense and a deadly eye for the basket as they defeated Lorane in a hard fought encounter, 39 to 22. Harmon, Crow forward, slumped in 28 points to lead the scoring. Edna Mitchell, Lorane forward, got 20 for her team, while Addison, her running mate, made 4 field goals, all of them spectacular. Lorane started a rally as the game drew near its close, but the final gun cut it short.

Dorena Downs Lowell

In the noon game, most exciting of the day's play, Dorena boys edged out Lowell 11 to 8. The tilt was featured by close checking, with a halftime score of 3 to 2 in favor of Dorena. At the beginning of the second half, Hafford, Lowell forward, sank two free throws to give his team a temporary lead, but Vaughn, Dorena guard, tied it up, and then sank a field goal to give Dorena a lead never relinquished. The Pleasant Hill girls came through as expected in the 1 o'clock game taking a 27 to 19 win from Coburg. The game was fast and rough, featured by the sharpshooting of Barsum, Hill forward, who scored 22 points. Fox made 13 for Coburg. The Hillbillies led 14 to 7 at the half. Consolations to Start Thursday morning will be taken up with boys consolation games. Santa Clara will meet the loser of the Elmira-Triangle Lake game, at 8 o'clock; the loser of the Pleasant Hill-Linslaw tilt will battle the loser of the Thurston-Creswell game at 9; Lowell will play the loser of the Coburg-Crow game at 10 o'clock, and Mohawk will tilt at 11. The basketball used in the tournament was presented by the merchants' division of the Eugene chamber of commerce, following a tradition in effect since the tournament has been held here. The ball usually is presented to the runner-up in the tournament.

PORTLAND, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Alleging abrogation of contract, C. A. Houghtaling, Inc., architects, have filed suit in circuit court here for $21,000 and interest for drafting work in connection with the proposed medical and dental building in Eugene, a project that ultimately was abandoned. Interest at the rate of 6 per cent from Oct. 1, 1929, is demanded. C. A. Houghtaling's complaint declared he performed the required services but the defendants, including the North Willamette association and ten men, refused to carry out the work. The building in question was to have been located at the corner of Eighth avenue and Willamette street where a three-story brick building, known as the Hovey block, was torn down to make way for the new structure, which was planned to be 12 stories high.

WORK DONE FOR HANDICAPPED TOPIC FOR LIONS MEET

The need for and the work being done by the local development room for handicapped children were discussed in a talk by Mrs. Carl H. Phetteplace at the weekly meeting of the Eugene Lions club, Wednesday noon, at the Eugene hotel. The Lane County Medical society auxiliary is sponsoring the room with Mrs. Phetteplace as the chairman of the committee in charge. The room opened in early November and is now caring for 20 children with between 25 and 35 on the waiting list. Eugene is the first place in the state to set aside a program for the care of the handicapped children and if a center is selected within the state, it should be at Eugene which has launched the work first, Mrs. Phetteplace said. There is a great need for this work, Oregon is among the most backward states in helping the handicapped children get their education and chance in life, only four other states being in the same position of Oregon. Reports show that more than 85 per cent of such children are the ones filling up our reform schools, the speaker pointed out. The handicapped children she spoke of included those with speech defects, the emotional children, the retarded group, the illiterate. Under these first three classifications are found the children with such defects as word blindness, tone blindness, and the motor cases. Mrs. Phetteplace outlined two cases handled at the room this year where, in these few months, two children are being returned to normal life after it was believed by those not knowing of their speech, emotional, and sound defects that the two were mean, lazy, and deficient. A center for this type of work and a plan of organization to advertise its purposes and its program and to secure support for it are the big needs in the state now, Mrs. Phetteplace said. Children in this classification have their rights and should be given their chance for health and education and a full life, she said. Hugh P. Curran introduced the speaker. LaVerne Howa, chairman of the state convention, made announcements regarding plans for the state meeting, dates for which have been set for June 7, 8, and 9. Dr. Harry W. Titus, president, announced that Dr. William G. Everson of Portland will speak next week. Guests for the luncheon included Major G. E. Sandy, airport engineer with the department of commerce, Portland; T. O. Russell, Tom Stoddard, and G. S. Garner, Ted Harmon and Bob Devereaux gave a skit for the entertainment. Announcement was made of the boxing and wrestling program to be given at the university Friday evening by the Order of the "O." The club made observance of Dr. C. D. Donahue's birthday.

ANTI-WAR GROUP IS REFUSED ROOM

The newly formed campus organization, "League Against War and Fascism" was ordered to adjourn from its meeting Tuesday night at the Craftsmen's club, Masonic clubhouse, by Leslie M. Scott, Portland, representing the trustees. Ray Martin, manager of the building, requested the group to leave. Mr. Scott gave as his reason the fact that he had read in a recent issue of the Emerald of the activities of the organization, and did not believe it would be desirable to hold meetings which might be termed controversial in the Masonic building. So far the "league" has studiously refused all proposals to link it with "communism." At the meeting Tuesday night the group rejected the motion made by one student, Eugene Allen, to add the word "communism" to the things the league opposed, thus keeping free altogether, one way or another, from this subject. To date the chief activity of members has been argument over policies of the new organization. One member Tuesday night offered a motion that would provide that the action of the body would be considered only of the individuals voting for that action. When the motion was rejected, three students left the group. One student read a clipping from a communist paper advocating preparation for war, and then asked any communist present to explain how membership in such a party and in a league opposed to war could be consistently maintained. Another student bitterly denounced communism. The meeting adjourned from the Craftsmen's club to the Y Hut. Future plans of the league were not announced.

THEATERS

WEDNESDAY PROGRAMS COLONIAL—"Beloved with John Boles, Gloria Stuart. Held over. Last day. HEILIG—"Before Midnight," with Ralph Bellamy, June Collyer. Ends Thursday. McDONALD—"Double bill, "Eskimo," with native cast, "Search For Beauty," with Buster Crabbe, Ida Lupino. Last day. STATE—"Broadway to Hollywood," with Frank Morgan, Alice Brady. Ends Thursday. REX—"Double bill, "Paddy, The Next Best Thing," with Janet Gaynor, Warner Baxter, plus "One Sunday Afternoon," with Gary Cooper, Fay Wray and Frances Fuller. Ends Friday.

Ralph Bellamy is starred in "Before Midnight" at the Heilig theater. It has all elements usually included, with a ghostly mansion, hidden doors, and piercing shrieks that come from "out of nowhere." On top of this, however, is an original plot that lifts the picture out of the ordinary run of detective mysteries.

"Beloved," John Boles great picture in which he is co-starred with Gloria Stuart, is held over today at the Colonial. Fine music and unusually good acting characterize the film. The story of a composer who sees three generations of his descendants achieve what he vainly sought, only to gain renown at the last.

Janet Gaynor and Warner Baxter have the leads in "Paddy the Next Best Thing," playing today at the Rex theater as part of a double bill with "One Sunday Afternoon." Gary Cooper's first comedy attempt, Janet is a fiery little Irish gal, Warner a pleasant millionaire, and Margaret Lindsay, Janet's designing sister. Good mainly because Garner forgets much of her cloving awkwardness, really acts, "One Sunday Afternoon," excellent quiet comedy, with Cooper handling a new type of role skilfully.

"Eskimo" and "Search for Beauty" end today at the McDonald. One, "Search for Beauty" is light entertainment, while "Eskimo" is a fine picture, one of the year's best. Dramatic, packing a terrific wallop at times, the picture is an epic of the relations between the Eskimo and the white. A native cast performs with incredible ability.

"Broadway to Hollywood" at the State is described as "The 'Cavalcade' of the theater." Tracing a family through three generations before the footlights, the picture blends pathos and comedy, drama and burlesque. Frank Morgan, Madge Evans and Alice Brady give unforgettable characterizations in the leading roles. A really fine picture.

he left unfinished by May 1, the time set to cease all operations. The gene sewer project, the largest now under way, will probably be completed in time, it was thought although if the crews are reduced the rate as announced for next week it may rush them more than expected at the present time. Needs Studied Additional information on the production of the new Lane county was contained in a letter from Administrator Goyett, received after the men for next week includes construction of own teams and trucks. In making off the men the instructions work the least are to be dropped, dismissing first all workers in whose family another worker is at work, leaving no more than one person gainfully employed in one family. If it is necessary to discontinue any projects now under way, the least desirable ones should be dropped first, the letter of instructions states. Any new re-employment or replacements or for any other employment must be on the basis of need. The hours of work will be the same as they have been the past two or three weeks—24 hours a week in cities and 15 hours a week on rural projects.
