Roosevelt, Wilson Cagers To Clash Tonight

TEAMS TO PLAY AT EAST SIDE SCHOOL IN 2ND OF SERIES

ROOSEVELT'S Roughriders and the Wilson Wolves will meet tonight on the Roosevelt floor in their second clash of the current basketball season. Wilson won the first game 22 to 18, on the Wilson floor.

However, Roosevelt has hit their stride since then and defeated both Roseburg and Corvallis. In comparison Wilson lost to Roseburg by quite a decisive margin. But this will make little odds if any as has been proven time and again in the bitter feud between these two old rivals.

Wolves Favored

Pre-game dope rates Wilson a slight favorite chiefly because of their win in the first struggle and also because Roosevelt will be missing the services of their star forward, Paul Muller, who received a sprained shoulder in a practice session about a week ago. Both teams have been holding strenuous practice sessions this week and will be at their psychological peak when they trot out on the floor tonight.

Both coaches, Cotter Gould, of Roosevelt and Bob Knox of Wilson, promise to send a fighting team on the floor. As yet no word has been received from the Wilson camp regarding their starting line-up but the tentative Roosevelt starter includes Smith and Brownfield at the forward posts, Swindal at center, and Edwards and Spence doing guard duty.

Prelim Slated

A preliminary game between two eighth grade teams has been added to the program. The one team represents the fourth period class and the other the sixth period class.

The preliminary will start at 6:30 and the "big-little" game will start promptly at 7:00. "Stew" Milligan, well known University of Oregon athlete, will officiate in both games.

E. F. G. is Beaten 33-24 by DeNeffe's Tuesday Evening

DeNeffes strong independent hoop club, scored a 33 to 24 victory over the Eugene Fruit Growers, city league leaders, Tuesday evening at the men's gym.

Led by Winsor Calkins, ex-Oregon star, the clothiers piled up a commanding lead in the first half, only to be outscored in the second. Few fouls were called and the game was marked by fast, clean basketball.

Jacobs, with 11 points, led the Fruit Growers assault, while Calkins annexed 15 markers for high scoring honors.

The line-ups:

DeNeffe's, 33		Fruit Growers ,24
Houghton, 2	F	5, Fornerook
Rubenstein, 9	F	3, McCully
J. Eberhart, 4	C	5, Wishard
Calkins, 15	G	11, Jacobs
Siegmund, 2	G	Morris

Subs: for DeNeffe's, Graham 1, B. Eberhart; for EFG, Hill.

HIGHCLIMBER talks 'em over

By RICHARD JOHNSTON

The year's biggest basketball tourney for this section, or, at least, the one packing the most interest, got under way today. Boys games, girls games, referees, scorekeepers, frantic coaches, cheering crowds.

Tournaments such as the present one produce some of the most exciting basketball to be seen all year. While lots of the kids have no set plays, they're all deadeyes, and they sweep up and down the floor with a do or die spirit that produces plenty of thrills.

It's still not to late to save a goodly sum and purchase a season ticket. It will be money well invested. For those unable to attend, the Register-Guard will carry complete accounts of all games.

Also, Sunday's paper will have the Coaches All-Star team, the only official all-tournament team to be selected. Following the championship game, coaches of all teams get together and vote on each position, with the result that the team chosen is invariably composed of the five best ball players in the outfit, picked by the men who know most about it.

* * *

Mickey McGuire, popular young West Salem grappler, believes he deserves a shot a Walter Achiu. McGuire has lost but one match in the last six weeks, and has won 9, an impressive record. Monday night in Portland he defeated Noel Franklyn, an outstanding middle.

Incidentally, Portland wrestling fans are the most rabid sports enthusiasts we've ever seen. Herb Owen turned them away from the Labor Temple Monday night when Achiu and Jackson met, and those who did get in were wildly partisan.

During the course of the bout, peanuts showered the ring at intervals, and one anti-Jackson spectator cast off with a beer bottle. Another launched a caster, evidently brought for the purpose, at Mr. Jackson. Which makes for an interesting evening, for fans and grapplers alike.

Bernie Hughes, Acheson To Don Gloves In Smoker

More color was added to the boxing side of the Order of the "O" smoker Friday night with the matching of Bernie Hughes, the Webfoot all-coast center, and Russell Acheson, Oregon State quarterback, in a 175-lb. class boxing exhibition. Six wrestling and six boxing exhibitions have been lined up for the program, to be held at McArthur court starting at seven-thirty o'clock.

Bernie Hughes

To make way for the Hughes-Acheson bout, Bob Parke, Oregon quarterback, was matched with Bill Kenna, Beaver guard, in a 165-pound class bout, while the awaited fled Franklin-Alan Wilson fray put in the 155-pound division.

Ex-Champs On Bill

Another boxing exhibition which is slated to be a four-star attraction is the heavyweight encounter between Bill Goodwin of Oregon and Frank Little, ex-Beaver fullback. Goodwin, now president of the Oregon law school student body, was a member of Washington State's 1930 coast championship team. He was at that time coast intercollegiate heavyweight champion.

The other boxing bouts will complete this portion of the card. In a 135-pound class bout Max Donnely of Oregon will face Dave Perkins, Oregon State, and at 145 pounds, Comet Gibson of Oregon will tangle with Jack Lyons of Oregon State.

Patricks to Appear

Bill and Bob Patrick, twin members of the O. S. C. varsity grid squad, will appear in two wrestling exhibitions. Bill will meet Tom Mountain of Oregon in a 155 pound affair, while Bob is slated to grapple Elton Owen at 165 pounds.

Stanley McClurg, regular tackle on the O. S. C. "iron man" eleven last fall will represent the Staters in the heavyweight wrestling class. He will be opposed by Roy Vanderzander, freshman tackle. In the 175-pound class Chuck Johnson of Oregon will face Omar Stein, outstanding Beaver grappler.

Other mat attractions as lined up include Bob Ludington of Oregon vs. Amo DeBernardis, O. S. C., at 135 pounds and Tom Clapp, Oregon, vs. John Herbert, O. S. C. at 145 pounds.

Tickets for the smoker are now on sale at the Club Cigar store, Babb's Hardware and the graduate manager's office at McArthur court. They also may be purchased from any member of the Order of the "O."

SAINTS SCORE 17-16 WIN OVER UNI-HIGH

Father Leipzig's St. Mary's "Giant-killers" furnished the most astonishing sports upset of the season Tuesday evening when they defeated University high 17 to 16 at the Men's Gym.

The Saints played fast, heads-up basketball, and led 8 to 0 at the end of the first quarter. The entire St. Mary's team was clicking in fine style, and their long range shots were sinking with amazing consistency.

Meyers, tall Saint center, who had only played three games of basketball before this season, was high point man of the fray, whipping in 7 markers and playing a good floor game. Nolan, diminutive forward, also shone for the Giantkillers, while Durbin accounted for 6 points.

Al Tingle, campus center, was the only Golden Tide hooper to score better than 3 points, with 6 to his credit, all goals from the field.

The line-ups:

St. Mary's—17		16—U. H. S.
Schoen	F	Booth
Durbin 6	F	3 Stafford
Meyers 7	C	6 Tingle
Nolan 4	G	Faust
Nurre	G	3 Mann

Subs: for St. Marys, Schaefers, Federico, Schimel; for University high, Soward 2, Gaeden 2, Cady.

Trout Being Taken In West Lane Lakes

CUSHMAN, Feb. 21.—(Special)—Tahkenitch lake trout and spiney-rayed fish are being taken these days. Siltcoos lake trout and bass are being taken.

Trout are being taken from the North Fork of the Siuslaw with eggs for bait.

No steelheads reported taken from western Lane streams as the waters are too low and clear. However most of these streams are furnishing trout 15 inches and over that may be taken with eggs. Ocean angling is reported as being very good.

Bids for a seaplane service in New Guinea have been called for by the government.

Ah Wing Beaten By Moro in First Return to Ring

SEATTLE, Feb. 21.—(U.P.)—A long layoff because of sickness and a low blow in the fourth round were too much for Ah Wing Lee, lightweight of Portland, and he lost the six-round main event of a boxing card to Kid Moro of Manila in Crystal Pool ring here last night.

Moro's style of fighting puzzled Lee until the later rounds. Then when Lee challeged Moro to come out and trade blows with him the Manila fighter knew he had won the fight on points and kept his distance. Moro struck Lee a low blow in the fourth round that folded the Portland Chinese up. Lee however, came back strong in the fifth and won the round with a wide margin. The sixth was Lee's by a narrow margin.

NELSON OUTPOINTS ROS DUMAGUILLEZ

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 21.—(AP)—Rocking right punches gained Lenis Nelson, 128, Portland, a close four-round decision over Ros Dumaguillez, 127, Manila, as they stole the show from the main eventers at the Labor Temple fights here last night.

Allan Franks, 146, Bellingham Indian, gamely faced Ernie Cavelli, 143, Walla Walla, but was no match and was knocked out in the third of their scheduled six-round main event. Franks was down twice in the second and two more times in the third.

The peculiar crouching stance of Roy Ockley, 134, Portland, baffled Sonny Jones, 133, Vancouver, B. C., and enabled Ockley to score a knockdown and win a four-round decision.

Rapid revenge was gained as Harry Kelson, 146, Seattle, knocked out Chet Kelsey, 143, Portland, in the furious first of a scheduled four-round fight.

Jackie Killeen, 120, Independence, pounded Frankie Villa, 120, into submission in four rounds.

Cal Smith, 157, and Georgie Sims, 161, Vernonia, naively pounded each other to pieces in the four-round curtain raiser, Smith taking the decision.

DUCKS BEAT IDAHO TO TIE ORANGEMEN FOR SECOND PLACE

MOSCOW, Ida., Feb. 21.—(U.P.)—University of Oregon went into a second place tie with Oregon State in the northern conference basketball competition last night by defeating Idaho, 28 to 27.

Captain Gib Olinger, of Oregon, scored the winning field goal in the last few seconds of play.

Neither teams were up to their usual standard, and at times the play was ragged.

Oregon led, 16 to 11, at half-time.

Olinger was high point man with 11 counters, Grenier, flashy Idaho center, led his team with 7 points.

The victory gave Oregon four straight over Idaho for the season.

EHS WINS EASILY OVER SPRINGFIELD

Eugene high's basketeers, "A" league leaders, walloped Springfield 29 to 10 at the Eugene court Tuesday evening. Except for the first two minutes of play, the Purple led all the way.

Dick Wright, start Eugene guard, led the Purple shotmakers popping in 11 markers. Fritz Kramer, local coach, used his entire squad. Carter Hartman, Mill City center, was the only member of the visiting team to score a field goal, accounting for 3 long range shots.

Hartman gave Springfield its only lead in the tilt, whipping in the first of his high howitzer shots just as the game opened. Baskets by Russell and Wright put Eugene ahead, and they led the rest of the way. Ford Danner, star Eugene center, went out on fouls mid-way of the battle.

The line-ups:

Eugene, 29		Springfield, 10
Russell, 6	F	1, Brattain
Baxter	F	1, Smith
Danner, 4	C	6, Hartman
Taylor, 3	G	Squires
Wright, 11	G	1, Cox

Substitutions: for Eugene, Burroughs, Kaufman 3, Dunn, Williams 2, McIntyre, Brownfield; for Springfield, Irvin, Carson 1.

Frank Troeh Tied For Second Money In Trapshoot Meet

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 21.—(U.P.)—Harley E. Woodward, Houston, Tex., today added the international flyer championship to the long list of trapshooting titles held by him and his father, E. E. Woodward.

The younger Woodward had a total score of 95 out of 100 flyers to win the championship, which carried a cash prize of $342.

Second prize money in the final event of the interstate tournament was divided between Spencer Olin, Alton, Ill., 1933 international champion; Frank Troeh, Portland, Ore., and R. H. Rector, Pocatello, Ida., who finished in a three-way tie. Each received $111.

SALEM WINS AT LAST

SALEM, Feb. 21.—(AP)—A basket by Ike Wintermute, Salem forward, with one minute to play, which broke up a 30 to 30 tie, gave Salem high school a 32 to 31 victory over Tillamook high in their basketball game here last night.

BEARCATS WIN

McMINNVILLE, Ore., Feb. 21.—(U.P.)—A late rally gave the Willamette University basketball quintet a 39-36 victory over Linfield college last night. Linfield led 19 to 17 at end of the half. Burdett, Willamette forward, piled up 15 points for his team.

Airplanes were used for fire patrols or transportation this season in five of the eight national forests of the United States.

Cubs Get Line On Baseballer From Girl Fan

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—(AP)—The persuasive pen of a woman fan has coaxed the Chicago Cubs into giving Don Conrads, a young sandlot southpaw, a trial.

Miss Florence M. Norman of Kewanee, Ill., is a staunch Cub fan. At home last season she watched a semi-professional club and spotted Conrads.

She wrote to President William Walker urging that the youngster be given a chance. Walker became interested when he read the part of the letter which said Conrads pitched two two-hit games, two three-hit contests and finished the season by allowing no hits and striking out 14 batsmen in seven innings. He alst struck out 18 men in another game.

He will go west with the club March 1. If he is as good as Miss Norman thinks he is, he will pitch for the Los Angeles club, a Chicago subsidiary, during the Pacific Coast league campaign.

FRANKLYN TO MEET PERKINS THURSDAY

Two of the cleanest, smoothest and most sensational grapplers to appear here in some time will meet in the opening bout of Herb Owen's mat card Thursday evening at the armory. Noel Franklyn, Portland mat artist, is to wrestle Art Perkins, the Detroit whirlwind.

Although Franklyn lost a two out of three decision to Mickey McGuire in Portland Monday night, he showed a world of stuff, and had the advantage most of the way until McGuire clamped on the Indian deathlock.

Franklyn features a hold seldom seen here, the Joe Malcewiz backward slam. He applies it in much the same manner as a flying mare, except that his opponent is turned around, so the two grapplers are back to back just before one is flipped over.

Robin Reed and Cowboy Heinz will battle in the main event, with Jack Curtis and the Big Bad Wolf, Bulldog Jackson, tangling in the second bout.

PURPLE TEAM TO BATTLE GROVERS

Originally scheduled for Friday, the tilt between Fritz Kramer's Eugene high school A league leading hoopers and Cottage Grove high will be played Thursday evening on the local floor. The meet is to get under way at 7 with a tilt between the second teams of the two squads.

It will be the second meeting of the season between the two schools, Eugene being victorious in the first, and the locals are rated to repeat in spite of all the Grovers can do in their determination to upset the undefeated Eugene squad.

Kramer will use his usual starting lineup, taking no chances of dropping the fray. At forwards will be Ed Russell and Eddie Baxter, at center, Ford Danner, and at guards, Dick Wright, and Chuck McIntyre. The Kramermen's next tilt will be a McArthur court meeting with Jean Eberhart's University high hoopers, next Tuesday.

M'GRAW SLIGHTLY BETTER WEDNESDAY

NEW ROCHELLE, Feb. 21.—(AP)—John McGraw passed a fairly comfortable night, his physicians reported today, with signs of the uremic poisoning with which he is suffering "much diminished."

The following bulletin on the condition of the former manager of the New York Giants baseball club was issued at New Rochelle hospital:

"The patient passed a fairly comfortable night. He was quite restless at intervals. Signs of uremia much diminished. Stuporous only at intervals.

"No new physical signs, although patient shows rather wide variation in temperature. General conditions about the same as reported in last bulletin, although he is still seriously ill. Temperature 105, pulse 94, respiration 32."

The bulletin was signed by Drs. L. R. Chapman and E. L. Kellogg.

FOREST GETS LAND

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—(AP)—The senate today approved and sent to the house the bill to add about 5,000 acres to the Mount Hood national forest in Oregon. The title to the land passed to the government in partial settlement of fire trespass.

Approximately 250 aviation technicians will be employed by the CWA to select and develop airport sites under the program for establishing a nation-wide network of landing fields.

DEMAND IS BETTER FOR STORAGE EGGS

PORTLAND, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Increasing movement of eggs into coolers has followed the recent setting of sale of cold storage pack eggs by the Pacific Egg producers in convention in Portland.

Not only has there been an increased demand for eggs to go into storage, but the market has acted much better although receipts continue to show seasonable increase.

The action of the P. E. P. in boosting the price about 2½c dozen over the opening a year ago, suggested the general improvement in trade.

Now with the storage input season under way, the trade here in resales was being made mostly by storage rejects which were good eggs, but not suitable for long keeping in store.

Strength of the veal market with sales of country killed supplies of 10c was confirmed. Hogs were around 9c for tops generally with yearling lambs 15c lb. Beef demand was strong with a ready call for bills to 5c lb.

Trading in the butter market was about steady here, although a trifle easier in spots. However, latest reports suggested no burdensome surplus anywhere along the coast.

Premiums were being paid above established quotations for live chickens as a result of continued shortage. Killers were unable to even secure material supplies out of western Washington.

SHARES IN LOWER PRICE RANGE ARE ACTIVE WEDNESDAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Low priced specialties, principally of the automotive classification, furnished what little excitement there was in today's generally quiet stock market. Most of these active issues held gains of fractions to around a point. Elsewhere fluctuations were narrow. The close was steady. Transfers approximated 2,000,000 shares.
