Obituaries
 In memory of Elery H. Holesapple, born Oct. 29, 1885, in Green Briar country, W. Va., departed this life at the American Lake veterans' hospital, Monday, Feb. 19, 1934, aged 48 years, three months and 21 days. He was a World War veteran and had served 22 months overseas. He had been shell-shocked, gassed and wounded. He had been in the hospital about seven years, and seemed to be getting alone fine until early in last November, when he contracted side pleurisy from which he never recovered. He visited in Florence and Canby over a year ago, and seemed in very good health. He was a good, kind man, and liked and was liked and respected by all who knew him. Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holesapple, those surviving him are four brothers, Luther of Florence, Grover of Westlake, Sam and Pete of Canby; and one sister, Mrs. Ida Robinson of Marcola, and 11 nieces and nephews.
 Funeral services were conducted at the Buckley-King funeral church Wednesday at 2 p. m. Burial in Mountain View Park cemetery at Tacoma, Washington.
 Those present at his funeral from here were Luther, Grover, Sam, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Holesapple, and Mrs. Ida Robinson and daughter, Mae, of Marcola.
 He is sleeping, calmly sleeping, in a new made grave today. We are weeping, sadly weeping. For the loved one gone away. Gone, dear brother, gone forever. How we miss your smiling face. But you left us to remember. None on earth can take your place. We loved you so, we miss you. In our memories you are dear. Loved, remembered, longer for always. Thoughts of you are always near. Sleep on, dear brother, and take your rest. We loved you so, but God knows best. You'll live with him above the skies. Where joy and pleasure never dies. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Holesapple.

Funerals
Nelson G. Hickson
 The funeral of Nelson G. Hickson, who died at the Eugene hospital Wednesday from injuries received when a falling tree struck him the day before, will be held at the Pool-Gray-Bartholomew chapel in Eugene Saturday at 2 p. m., with interment in the Coburg. Rev. E. V. Stivers will conduct the services.

Thornton Corners
THORNTON CORNERS, March 1.
 (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tonole and son Melvin were guests four days of last week of Mrs. Tonole's brother, Charles Miller, in Portland. Ellena Golden of Eugene and Bud Scott of Marcola visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Shortridge. Otis Dickey spent the week-end in Albany and Corvallis, returning home Sunday afternoon.
 Mrs. T. C. Shaw went to Roseburg Monday to help care for a daughter-in-law, Mrs. O. H. Shaw, who is quite ill.
 Major Washburn of Junction City was a caller Tuesday of George Foster.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Baldwin and family were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Johnson at Saginaw.
 Mrs. J. W. Evans, Miss Myrtle Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Guy French of Eugene were week-end guests of Mrs. Evans' daughter, Mrs. Benton Schenk.
 Miss Uleta Olin left Saturday for Portland where she plans to remain indefinitely.
 Mrs. Joe Premazzi gave a birthday party Saturday for her little daughter Joanne. Refreshments were served to fifteen little guests.
 Mrs. Dora Woods of Portland visited last week with a daughter, Mrs. Ethan Tonole, who accompanied Mrs. Woods to Portland on her return, to spend a week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ben Reid of Portland were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boslough.
 A farewell party was given at the Wilbur Black home Friday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. A. Schermacher of Cottage Grove, formerly residents of this neighborhood, who are leaving this week for their former home in Iowa, and also in honor of Art Bender, who will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Schermacher. The evening was spent in dancing, with music by Ed Lombau of Cottage Grove and Joe Tonole. Refreshments brought by the guests were served.

It is possible to fly on a regular schedule from California to New York in 10 hours, but it takes longer to return, due to prevailing head winds.

Yoncalla Grange Has Its Meeting
YONCALLA, March 1.
 The grange met in regular session Saturday morning with the master, Fred Merk, presiding. All officers were present. Regular business, with reports from committees was attended to until a call came from the dining room that a real grange lunch was ready.
 After lunch the lecturer's program was as follows: Music by the grange orchestra; readings, "Washington's Grave," by Mrs. Tavenor; "Alphabet Crazes," by Mrs. Cowles; "How Can We Pay For It All," by Mrs. Bishop; cornet solo, by Arne Bjork; reading, "Burial of Bill McKee," by Theresa Warner.
 After the program necessary business was transacted, including giving the third and fourth degrees to two members.
 This grange gladly promised to help the third Douglas county hold the community fair for 1934 at Drain and is hoping it will be the best ever.

GROVE GROUP ASKS EARLIER FISHING

COTTAGE GROVE, March 1.
 (Special)—Opening the fishing season in this district on April 5, instead of April 15, and closing it 10 days earlier in the fall will be asked of the state game commission as the result of action taken at a meeting of the South Lane Sportsman's league held Monday night.
 The organization will endeavor to raise funds for the construction of a pheasant shed, to be located inside the city. Chicks would be received from the state game commission and kept in the shed until they reached maturity. It was said that 600 or more birds could be secured by this method. Wednesday from injuries received when a falling tree struck him the day before, will be held at the Pool-Gray-Bartholomew chapel in Eugene Saturday at 2 p. m., with interment in the Coburg. Rev. E. V. Stivers will conduct the services.

It All Happened Because of Cash

And we pass the savings on to you! All former prices disregarded! All merchandise Ridiculously LOW PRICED! Some of our friends tell us we're crazy to do this! "Don't you fellows know what's happening to prices?" they ask. "Salt away your merchandise—You'll get lots more for it in a couple of months!" . . . Maybe they're right! But that's not the way we do business! Our job is to SELL—NOT SALT. . . So let's forget tomorrow's prices. Good business for us because we keep things moving. Good business for you, because you get the choice of our entire stock at a substantial savings. The quantities are limited and we don't want anyone to be disappointed. Note Prices! Come Early. Every sale not final until you are entirely satisfied! Therefore we will cheerfully refund your money if you can duplicate these values.
