State Tourney Gets Under Way At Salem

EUGENE HOOPERS ENTRAIN AT NOON FOR TITLE SIEGE

The Eugene high basketball team, accompanied by Coach Fritz Kramer, entrained for Salem at noon today to participate in the state basketball tournament. Eight players made the trip. The Eugenean's first game was slated for 5 o'clock against La Grande.

SALEM, March 21.—(AP)—Sixteen high school basketball teams representing the best in their respective districts arrived in Salem yesterday and today, and awaited only the starting whistle at 1 o'clock this afternoon to get into the scramble for the annual state high school basketball championship.

Mitchell and Coquille were matched for the starting game which was followed at intervals of one hour by the following teams in order: Ashland vs. Columbia, The Dalles vs. Jefferson, Astoria vs. Dallas and Eugene vs. La Grande. After the 5 o'clock game an hour and a half will be allowed for dinner and play will resume at 7:30 with the following teams playing in order: Klamath Falls vs. Silverton, Salem vs. Pendleton, and McMinnville vs. Franklin.

26 Tilts Slated

A total of 26 games will be played before the champion is finally determined Saturday night. Since the new system was inaugurated three years ago each team must be defeated twice before being eliminated from the play. The eight losers in today's games will enter a consolidation bracket the winner of which will be ranked in fifth place.

Officials for this year's contests will be Harry Leeding, Ralph Coleman and Emil Piluso, who will alternate in the role of referee and umpire.

Strength Unknown

From pre-tournament performances little is known as to the comparative strength of the 16 district winners. Of those teams which have played each other previously this season in several cases split series resulted, and in practically all cases scores were close.

As has usually been the custom squads from the more distant points arrived here first, La Grande being the first to check in at the Willamette gymnasium yesterday. Of the first half dozen teams to reach Salem, four were from east of the Cascades and the other two from southern Oregon. All were housed at local hotels and each placed in charge of a Willamette university student.

Arrangements Completed

All pre-tournament arrangements were completed last night and Coach "Spec" Keene of Willamette, with his staff of student assistants turned their attention to welcoming the hoop stars.

Coach Clarence Hines of Pendleton and Hollis Huntington of Salem spoke to a noisy crowd of high school students at a pep rally held at a local theater last night. Both coaches recalled the tournament of three years ago when Pendleton and Salem met in the finals for the championship, in what was termed by Huntington as the most perfect game he had ever seen played. Pendleton won that contest, in which two overtime periods were necessitated.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 21.—(U.P.)—The regulars on the Sacramento Senators squad handed the Rookies an 8 to 1 defeat yesterday.

STOCKTON, Cal., March 21.—(U.P.)—The San Francisco Seals plan to carry 26 players during the early weeks of the Coast league season. The augmented squad will give some of the youngsters an opportunity to show their wares in fast competition.

VENTURA, Cal., March 21.—(U.P.)—Bill Lawrence, husky outfielder, was back in the good graces of Portland club owners today after signing his contract. The Beavers staged a final drill during the day preparatory to opening an eight-game exhibition series with the Seattle Indians here tomorrow.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., March 21.—(U.P.)—Bill Lane, owner of the Hollywood club, waited anxiously today for replies to a number of SOS calls for a second baseman to replace Otis Brannan. Brannan, who experienced a nervous breakdown at his Arkansas home, asked to be placed on the voluntary retired list.

AVALON, CATALINA ISLAND, March 21.—(U.P.)—The big guns of the Los Angeles Angels have not yet begun to talk. The regulars were hard pressed yesterday to eke out a 4 to 3 victory over the Rookies.

NEW ORLEANS, March 21.—(U.P.)—Arrival of Willie Hudlin, pitcher, in the Cleveland camp today left only one holdout, Wes Ferrell, another moundsman.

One of the biggest golf meets of the year will be held at the Laurelwood course early in May when the annual Oregon State high school tournament is staged there. Wade Rutherford is chairman of the tourney, and more than 30 schools throughout the state are expected to send teams.

University high will be host school. West Linn had the honor last year, and it belonged to Eugene high the season before that. The meet has been sponsored by the Willamette Valley high school golf association in the past, but Rutherford hopes to make it a state-wide affair from now on.

Because of its central location, and the fact that the university is in this city, Eugene is the ideal spot for such a meet, Rutherford believes. Schools from the south, north, west and east will find it easily accessible. Visiting teams will be housed in university fraternities, and will get a chance to thoroughly inspect the school.

Invitations are being sent out to the following schools: Astoria, Seaside, St. Helens, Tillamook, Newport, all Portland high schools, Vancouver, Hill Military, Columbia prep, Oregon City, Parkdale, Milwaukie, Estacada, Hood River, The Dalles, Pendleton, La Grande, Baker, West Linn, Albany, Corvallis, Silverton, Salem, Eugene high, University high, Roseburg, Grants Pass, Medford, Bend, Klamath Falls, Ashland, Marshfield, North Bend, Bandon, Coquille, Cottage Grove, and Springfield.

The tournament will be a three day affair. The first day will be devoted to medal play, and the total score made by each team in the medalist round will seed them for the match play the following day. Cups will be awarded for low medal team, individual low medalist, match play championship team, runner-up, and consolation.

Dr. Hurst, owner of the Laurelwood course, is preparing post card snapshots of the course which will be sent out to schools invited. The rules of the tourney, together with all instructions for entrance, will also be mailed out. Each team is required to bring a faculty member with them.

Nine teams entered last year, but this season the entry list promises to be three times as large. Salem won the tourney in 1933, with West Linn runner-up. It was held on the Lake Oswego Country club. Following the completion of match play, an all-star team will be selected. Last year's allstars included Sid Milligan, Eugene, Groves, captain, and Kline, Salem, and Wanker, West Linn. Honorable mention went to Ford Young of University high and Doc Near of Eugene.

Portland experts who dropped over for the finals last season commented on the excellent brand of golf the high schoolers put up, and said the members of the all-star team were capable of playing in any amateur meet. Many of them will be here for the Eugene battle, and local golf fans have a real treat in store.

So far, the privilige of playing host has rotated among the members of the Willamette Valley association. If this meet is as successful as it promises to be, it should be made state-wide, with host honors going to schools from any locale, regardless of Willamette Valley affiliations.

Although no Portland highs entered last season, several are expected to accept this year. The purpose of the tournament, in addition to affording high school players a chance to test themselves under fire, is to stimulate interest in golf, and aid in the development of future champions. As such, it is of great value.

Incidentally, the state high school meet isn't the only tournament coming up soon. March 24 the Oakway spring tournament gets under way, with a week ending April 1 slated for the qualifying round. Match play will get under way April 2, with a week allowed for each round. Entries may be made at the course. Geo. Babcock is, of course, in charge. And the fairways and greens are in fine condition.

Fishermen, in your explorations of the McKenzie and Willamette at the start of fishing season, don't forget the Umpqua. The following note comes from the Sawyer Rapids Auto camp, ten miles below Elkton:

"The river is low and clear. Chinook salmon and steelheads are running. The next few days should see the best fishing. Salmon trout are also plentiful." Crank the tin lizzie, boys, and roll for Elkton!

DIAMOND FATALITY OCCURS

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—(U.P.)—The season's first baseball fatality was recorded by the county coroner's office today with the death of Bartolo Cabibi, 26-year-old semi-pro pitcher. Head injuries suffered when struck by a pitched ball caused his death.

Eleven western states of the United States contain 176,000,000 acres of land unreserved and unappropriated.

Salkeld New Rose City Matchmaker

PORTLAND, Ore., March 21.—(U.P.)—Big, good-natured Tex Salkeld, who has been developing boxers around these parts since Hector was weaned, was matchmaker for the Portland boxing commission today, succeeding Joe Waterman.

Salkeld was appointed by unanimous vote of the commission last night when it considered applications from a dozen men. Tex has had unusual success developing young boxers at the Bachelor club arena in St. Johns, and has managed and trained some of the best fighters who ever entered northwest rings.

Salkeld will probably put on his first commission show next Tuesday night.

GOOSE GALER TO CAPTAIN HUSKIES

SEATTLE, March 21.—(AP)—Washington's high-powered scoring threat, Bobby (Goose) Galer, will lead the Husky basketball five in next year's campaign. He is a junior, of Seattle.

Without promising that he would score 176 points again next year, equalling the record he set the past season, Galer was elected to the captaincy at the annual banquet last night. He said this year's winning spirit "should carry over to 1935."

Capt. Harold Lee was voted the winner of the first "Edmundson Medal" for having been the biggest inspiration to this year's team.

More than 300 followers of the team which battled through to the coast championship two weeks ago, over Southern California, attended the event. The fathers of varsity players were special guests.

Coach Hec Edmundson was roundly applauded; all members of the squad were given honorary watch fobs; and Mayor-Elect Charles L. Smith, a former Washington quarterback, spoke.

EGG MART PRICES SHADED, UNSTABLE

PORTLAND, Ore., March 21.—(AP)—Market for eggs continued to show shaded or unstable prices despite the announcements of advances made from several sources, checkup of sales to retailers disclosed.

General cut of ½c lb. in the price on all butter cube scores except 92 was made at the last session of the produce exchange, confirming recent forecasts of a lower market. Butterfat was unchanged.

As a result of the general cutting of cheese prices, a slower trade was suggested at wholesale but retail business was reported as somewhat improved in many spots.

First home grown asparagus of the season offered in the wholesale trade was reported with sale at $1.50 dozen bunches to a Portland Heights grocery.

Easier prices were suggested for California asparagus here with continued increase in supplies. Quality shows considerable mixture with resulting erratic asking price by wholesalers. Best around 7c lb.

Market for cauliflower-broccoli continued firm with an occasional truck load from Roseburg and limited local offerings. Sales were being made up to $1.25 crate for 1s.

There was an extreme demand here for country killed calves and recent higher values were being maintained. Demand was good for all meats except mutton, which were more moderately sought.

Potatoes and onions remained dull, especially the former.

DOGNAPED!

When Yale men let Handsome Dan, their pedigreed mascot, play in the yard, they don't mean the Harvard yard! When the big bulldog disappeared from his New Haven quarters, Yalemen threatened something terrible would happen unless . . . Well, the widely sought pup was found soon thereafter on Harvard University grounds, and was to be returned to his irate owners.

Kunnel Cecil Wins Another

SEATTLE, March 21.—(AP)—Pacific northwest lightweight boxers haven't been able to de anything about it yet, and they won't at the rate they are going.

About two months ago Cecil Payne came to Seattle from Louisville, Ky., to test out Henry Woods, Yakima negro flash, and since then northwest battlers have failed in their efforts to send him back home.

Payne last night knocked out Ernie Cavelli, Walla Walla and Portland lightweight in the second round of a scheduled 10-round bout, to score his fourth victory in Seattle. He previously whipped Woods twice, and Al Lewis, Seattle negro, once. The Kentuckian knocked Cavelli down for a nine-count in the first and then finished the fight with a left to the chin.

Lewis, fighting in the welterweight class, scored a decision over Leonard Bennett, of Seattle and Detroit, in six rounds; Baby Tiger Flowers, San Francisco negro, won over Roy Ockley, Portland lightweight; Frank Wallulis, Roslyn heavyweight, knocked out Claude Davis, Bellingham, in the second of a four-round bout, and Johnny Foster, Vancouver, B. C. welterweight, beat Cecil Jordon, Oakland negro, in four.

BALL KILLS MAN

Emperor Jones Master Showman, Says Henry

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 21.—(U.P.)—When at 10:35 a. m., tomorrow, Robert Tyre Jones steps up to the first tee of the Augusta national course, waggles the big, black bludgeon that is his driver, and leans into one sport's biggest thrill for 1934 will have started.

There can't be any argument about that. Belasco, Rickard, Ziegfeld and all the rest of the mighty showmen could have spent a week together at Atlantic City without topping the masters invitation tournament which will send golf's mechanical man clicking over the fairways once again.

Look at the setup: Jones, better than three years out of competitive golf, decides to take another stab. So what does he do? Nothing but invite the world's red hottest golfers to come down and take a crack at him.

One thing you can say for the boys—they didn't back down. They're all here. Espinosa, Smith, Golden, Farrell, Hagen and the rest of the veterans Jones licked so unmercifully in the old days. Here with a burning determination to give the works to their old tormentor. And with them are the youngsters.

Jones' decision to play again, and his invitation to all the men who could possibly pin back his ears, was a gesture worthy of a De Bergerac. Nobody knows better than Bobby the almost unsurmountable odds against his out-distancing such a field single-handed.

Yet, with a superb contempt, he challenged them all and to make this gesture complete he managed when the pairings were drawn to have himself grouped with none other than Mr. Paul Runyan, the young ball of fire who has been burning up the winter tournaments.

How far, if any, Bobby has gone back will be answered this week. Judging by his scores on this course—he has had several practice rounds in the sixties—he has lost nothing but time. When a man shoots a 65, which he did a few days ago, he isn't doing anything wrong.

3-C LAD LOSES LEG IN RESCUE!

At the risk of his life, John Wilson, 18, of Charlton, Ia., stopped to warn a fellow CCC camp worker of a falling tree. His companion leaped to safety, but Wilson was crushed by the tree and a leg was amputated. He is shown in veteran hospital, glad to be alive and pleased because Portland, Ore., people have arranged to educate him in radio operation and technology.

Vegetables To Be Lower; Stock Market Depressed

ONIONS, RADISHES TO BE DOWN SOON; SPINACH IS LOWER

Price changes are expected on the vegetable market within the next two or three days, as more plentiful supplies of spring offerings come in.

Green onions are expected to drop slightly in price Thursday or Friday. Lower spring radish prices are forecast for the week-end or the first of next week. Spinach is already being bought at 4 cents a pound, one cent off the price of the past few weeks, by several grocers.

Although locally grown beets, planted in December, are being purchased by some grocers, most of the supply is being shipped in from California. The Roseburg cauliflower crop is about exhausted, and local dealers report getting most of the cauliflower from California points.

Egg and butter prices were unchanged in Eugene Wednesday. Although a one-half cent cut was made in some butter quotations in Portland Wednesday the local price was not effected, since fractional price changes are not made here.
