

GRANGE AT CANARY HAS GOOD MEETING

CANARY, April 13.—(Special)—Maple Creek grange No. 551 met on Sunday with a good attendance. A dinner was served at the noon hour. The main feature being 70 brook trout caught the day before by some of the members.

The lecture hour consisted of readings from the grange paper by the lecturers, Mrs. W. L. Scott, Mrs. E. A. Baker, Mrs. W. H. Scott, Mrs. F. A. Stone and W. L. Baker. A song by Mrs. Stone was heartily enjoyed. A play by W. H. Scott on rodents and rodent control was given.

L. S. Southwick, representing the Callison's, Inc. of Marshfield, is here with a small crew of men gathering for the forest trader. Mr. Southwick teaches beginners how to gather ferns and market the ferns and says the fern and buckberry brush in this city are superior to any found any other place.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Gibbs and grandchildren, Marian and Lydia Gibbs of Eugene, motored in Saturday to inspect their ranch on Whoochink lake, now occupied by the Warren G. Pitman family.

Mrs. Max Bohm and daughter Elizabeth who have been visiting Mrs. Bohm's brother, L. W. Newcomb, left for their home in New York City on Friday. While enroute they will visit Friday. While enroute they will visit for a week with a sister at Creswell and will also spend one week at Cleveland, O.

At a recent meeting of the Berrydale school board Miss Inez Welin was engaged to teach the next term of school. This will make five consecutive terms for Miss Welin in this district.

Max Hardcastle of Portland arrived here Saturday for a visit with his brother Harry Hardcastle and family.

A party was given Saturday evening at the W. H. Scott home and games and music enjoyed until the wee small hours of morning. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner and children, Mrs. Frank Riebert, Mrs. Wilma and Billy Isaacson and Mr. and Mrs. Benita Isaacson and Fred, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott and Donald, Miss Kathleen McCrae.

The Lloyd Knepper family had the last strawberry shortcake of the season at the Sunday dinner. This is served early for strawberries to ripen in the coast section and the Berrydale section is a close second as berries are ripening fast there and will be ready for market in a few days.

Mrs. W. G. Morton and daughter Zella, Mrs. G. P. Fisk, Mrs. Pete Holopale and daughter Leola were dinner guests at the W. H. Holopale home Friday, the occasion being Mr. Holopale's 77th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Newcomb and daughter Darlene will leave Friday for Eugene where they will spend the week-end visiting with friends.

The Canary school opened for work Wednesday morning after being closed for a week due to so many cases of flu. Mrs. Fred Buss is quite ill at present.

Walterville Items

WALTERVILLE, April 13.—(Special)—A number of farmers are receiving shipments of baby chicks ranging in number from three to five and six hundred in the flocks.

The Walterville Ladies' Aid society met Thursday all day at the social room for quilting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schwering and son Jesse were delightfully surprised Tuesday evening when a number of the neighbors went in to surprise Mrs. Schwering on her birthday anniversary which came that day. The evening was spent in cards, visiting and games and at a late hour refreshments of cake and coffee were served. The following guests were present: Mrs. Schwering honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Gabriel of Coburg, Mrs. Leaven and son Harold of Coburg, Mr. and Mrs. Rubie Montgomery and son Gordon of Leeburg, Walterville guests were Mrs. A. Campbell, Polly, Martha, Howard and Claude Campbell, Mrs. Gina Momb, George Momb, Mrs. C. C. Polley, Mrs. Vern Ellis, Ted Magnus, Mrs. A. T. Easton, Gail Easton, Ned Morris, Mrs. Martin Drury, George Drury, Mrs. Mary William, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hardy, Thomas Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schwering, Fred and Winnifred Ed Schwering, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Tipton and son, and George Tipton, Ed Schwering and Jesse Schwering.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Page, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Page and Mrs. Anna Stacy motored to Eugene Wednesday afternoon on a business trip and the ladies called on Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Shrode at the Rest Cottage, old time neighborhood from Walterville.

Welcome Rebekah lodge met Wednesday evening at their hall for the regular first Wednesday evening of the month business meeting. Mrs. Everett Warren was elected as delegate to represent the local lodge at Rebekah assembly which meets next month at Tillamook. She also recommended as deputy president for the local order, Mrs. George Willian was nominated as alternate.

Two daily Greyhound departures from Eugene to San Francisco via the Redwood Highway offer convenient scenic travel.

KIDNEY and BLADDER

Trouble ALSO disorder of the stomach, liver, catarrh, bronchitis, rheumatism, piles, inflammation of kidneys, weakness, and female trouble will be positively relieved thru Charles H. Chan's preparation.

CHARLIE CHAN
CHINESE HERB CO.
1-2-3 W. Week-days, 8-10 Sun.
708 Will. St.
Eugene-Albany

Cottage Grove News Notes

COTTAGE GROVE, April 13.—(Special)—Battery E is sponsoring a smoke Friday night at 7:45 for the benefit of the mess fund. Chuck Smith of Cottage Grove will match folks with Stub Garoutte of Clup Creek in the first wrestling bout. In the second, Glen Swanson of Cottage Grove will wrestle Vic Lello, Brice Creek. In the first boxing bout Oscar Newton of Cottage Grove will go three rounds with Kenneth Lello, Brice Creek. In the second, Milford Mooney, Cottage Grove, will trade blows with Harold Woodfield, Gunter. The third bout will be between Warren Wright, Gunter, and Chet Meyers, Brice Creek. The fourth bout will be between Merle Wright and George Kerr. Kerr won from Wright on the last card and Wright asked for another match. Frank Leao, Brice Creek, will meet Al Mustola, Gunter, in the fifth bout. A red hot curtain raiser is arranged between local boys. Bill Collins will referee the fights and Lloyd Griggs the wrestling.

The neighbors of Woodcraft entertained with a hard times party at their regular meeting Wednesday night at which Creswell lodge were visitors and many unique costumes were in evidence. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Davis of Colorado were special visitors. Mrs. Davis is district organizer and addressed the meeting. The local lodge are launching an extensive membership campaign. Mrs. Mary Gillette, of Waltherville, a former resident, was also a visitor. The visitors were presented with flowers. A social evening at cards followed the business meeting and refreshments in paper sacks concluded a social evening. Mrs. Wilbur Wilson and Mrs. Charles Stevens were the refreshment committee. Miss Vera Guyther, guardian neighbor of the Creswell lodge was among the visitors present.

At the Keepers of the Den Luncheon Thursday at the Colonial, Mrs. K. K. Mills, chairman of the cod liver oil committee, had four children present who had been given the oil treatments by the group the past few months, showing marked improvement in the health of these children. The group made plans to entertain the senior class of Cottage Grove high May 5, at the Roy Short summer home south of town. Mrs. E. H. Luce and Mrs. D. A. Emerson were appointed as a committee to report on the SERA work.

Curtailment of service at Cottage Grove postoffice has been ordered, according to Postmaster N. J. Nelson. This curtailment began Tuesday with only one delivery a day in the residence districts. Two deliveries a day will be continued in the business section, and one parcel post delivery which will be in the afternoon.

The Brice Creek CCC camp will move next week to the Ochoco forest near Prineville. Some of the men will be sent to Tiller and a portion of the group are local men. It is expected that road work on Brice Creek will be completed by a side camp on Steamboat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kem entertained at dinner Thursday evening complimenting Mr. Kem's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Kem, Miss Myrtle Kem, and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Corey of Colorado. The latter are house guests at the home of Mrs. Corey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Kem.

Mrs. C. E. Emphrey entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. G. B. Corey of Colorado, a former resident and member of the Emphrey club. Guests were Mrs. H. B. Griggs, Mrs. Elbert Bode, Mrs. Nelson Durham, Mrs. S. L. Macklin, all former members of this club some years ago, and Mrs. O. M. Kem. Following a social afternoon, refreshments were served.

Those who will participate in the high school track meet at Roseburg Saturday in company with their coach, O. M. Bagley are Clifford Shaw, Virgil Hoven, Norris King, Harold and Wayne Macklin, Jack Caton, Elmer Mason, Bern Thorson, Byron and Floyd Thies, Edwin Cone, Aura Cook, Robert Dusenberry, Arthur Joll, Justin Brown.

The LaMercedie Post club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ivan Sams for a 1:30 bridge dessert. Mrs. Rex Wheeler was a special guest. Mrs. Fred Anderson held high score. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Leslie Booth.

At the meeting of the school board Wednesday night, all Cottage Grove teachers that were applicants were re-elected. Tentative plans were discussed relative to reducing the school budget.

Mrs. Myrtle Morgan of Klamath Falls is visiting in Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Raymond Grube and Mrs. J. Cushing of Pendra were Cottage Grove visitors Thursday.

Mrs. H. C. Wells, Mrs. Victor Chambers and Mrs. Ralph Saltzman were Eugene shoppers, Wednesday.

The Royal Arch Masons had degree work Wednesday night and refreshments were served.

The regular monthly dance and card party of Masonic lodge was held on Thursday evening at Masonic temple. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Grannis, Mrs. Clara Burkholder and daughter, Miss Belle were the committee in charge of the event.

Mrs. C. C. Cruson has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Portland.

Mrs. L. S. Crawford visited at Eugene Thursday.

Mrs. Van Allison motored to Corvallis Thursday to visit with her daughter, Miss Jean, student at O. S. C.

Mrs. Andrew Crow and daughter, Rena, of Merlin, were guests Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Melia Curran and daughter, Miss Lulu. They are enroute to their home from a visit at Vancouver, Wash.

The Eagles auxiliary will meet on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Nelson DeYoung.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Smith visited at Eugene Thursday.

Sam Rubenstein, wool buyer of Eugene, slipped through the skylight at the John Veatch home Wednesday and fell down into the kitchen, fracturing two ribs. A local physician was called and the fracture.

A fire and one-half pound baby daughter was born at three o'clock Thursday afternoon, April 5, at the C. J. Colter home, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Neisop, Glendora residents. The new arrival is the second child, both girls, of the Neisops.

A dog law went into effect here April 1 that no dog owner may allow his dog from the premises except on a leash.

B. W. Perkins, local barber, has a Japanese flowering tree, the gift of the Koida brothers, our Japanese florists, now in full flowering in his garden and that has been in the ground less than two months.

The new owners of the North Fork shingle mill, J. W. Lewis and H. C. Calhoun of Portland, have painted the name of their mill, "The North Fork Shingle Mill" on their truck and expect to do their own delivering.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Behnke have been enjoying a week's visit from their granddaughter, Miss Catharine Dallas of near Salem. The young lady is a prominent 4-H club worker.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandler returned to their home in Portland Monday after a brief visit at the Chandler, Conner and Stanton homes. They were accompanied on their return by Miss Grace Stanton, for a visit in her old home city.

Messages of bereavement came to two homes here but recently. To our druggist, B. A. Murray, of the death in Falls City of his father, L. B. Murray, 80, and resident of that vicinity the past 40 years, and to Mrs. Wm. Smith, of the death of her brother, Chas. Wheeler, 60, at his home in Bend. Mrs. Gus Christensen of Glendora is a stepdaughter of the deceased Wheeler.

Mrs. J. E. Jacobson returned Tuesday from a four day's visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. Kephart, in Eugene. A small addition was made to the ground floor of the Oddfellows' building this week to increase storage room for the Pastime pool hall, taking the place of a smaller one just razed.

Clarnan, Mrs. Spalding, Mrs. Patchen, Mrs. Drain and Mrs. Letson of Drain as visitors. Following the business session, a social evening was spent at which time light refreshments were served by the local organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lasswell are spending a few days at Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sumner of Myrtle Point visited Mr. Sumner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewellen here this week.

The Women's Study club met with Mrs. Hugh Warner April 7 and began the study of the Philippines. Roll call revealed the fact that either those islands have few patriots or that the club members are not good collectors of patriots. Mrs. Charles Dear gave an interesting travel story that made all question most seriously what is the best thing for our nation to do about the islands, and have we been doing right? Mrs. Ervin Rice reviewed the book "Sallie in Rhodesia," by Schilla MacDonald, in a very pleasing manner. Next year's program was discussed and the names of hostesses given. Delegates to the state convention to be held in May at Roseburg were elected. By virtue of her office as president, Mrs. John Kruse is a delegate. Mrs. J. R. Lasswell was elected as alternate. Mrs. Zadie Bishop and Mrs. M. H. Payne were chosen. Those present were Mesdames Emma Miller, Effie Payne, Paula Strong, Gertrude Stoute, Mary Richards, Marjorie Lasswell, Marie Rice, Leona Merk, Jennie Lasswell, Annie Kruse, Adabel Kingston, Elza Huet, Effie Howard, Blanche Dear, Lillie Brown, Zadie Bishop, Laura Applegate, Miss Genevieve Groves and the hostess, Mrs. Hugh Warner. Mrs. Ellen Warner, Mrs. Leslie Miller and Mrs. Leta Warner were present as very welcome guests.

NEEDLE GROUP MEETS
SPRINGFIELD, April 13.—(Special)—Twelve members of the R. N. A. needle club met with Mrs. Tom Munroe and Mrs. John Newman in Eugene, at the home of Mrs. Munroe, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Faust was a guest of the club.

FLORENCE SCOUTS CHOOSE OFFICERS

FLORENCE, April 13.—(Special)—Officers elected recently to head the Florence Boy Scout troop are: Scoutmaster, Tillet Torgenson; assistants, Prof. Willis Jones, Dr. H. W. McCornack, Clyde Deal, Carl Bower, Dan Cooper; junior assistants, Buddy Morrison, Loren Sweet, Alvin Hendrickson.

Court of honor: Dr. J. A. Bradley, chairman; Dr. G. P. Edwards, Dr. J. W. Tarr, Byron Murray, Orville Cox. Troop committee: C. G. Erwin, chairman; Creed Buntain, secretary; D. M. Kyle, Otto Rice, Roy Bowman, A. W. Chandler.

The local Girl Scout troop is also being revived and Mrs. Herbert McCornack chosen as guardian. Girls between the ages of 10 and 18 are eligible. The ladies' auxiliary of Siuslaw Post No. 59 are sponsoring the movement. Mesdames McCornack, T. C. Torgenson and Creed Buntain drove to Eugene Friday on matters pertaining to this unit.

The city council has made an agreement with the West Coast Power company to again furnish street lighting, beginning after April 15 and after a town darkness of the past several months. Only eight 100-watt lights at a cost of $2.50 per light monthly will be turned on for the present.

Dumping of rubbish will be permitted along the street grade adjacent to the B. A. Murray lots on First street. Rubbish to be covered later.

City ordinances governing the sale of beer on Sunday were ruled as obsolete and the recent cases brought up dismissed and fines nullified as were also the violations of displaying wares on sidewalks and warning made that fines would be levied in the future unless special permits for such displays be secured from the city council.

A fire and one-half pound baby daughter was born at three o'clock Thursday afternoon, April 5, at the C. J. Colter home, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Neisop, Glendora residents. The new arrival is the second child, both girls, of the Neisops.

A dog law went into effect here April 1 that no dog owner may allow his dog from the premises except on a leash.

B. W. Perkins, local barber, has a Japanese flowering tree, the gift of the Koida brothers, our Japanese florists, now in full flowering in his garden and that has been in the ground less than two months.

The new owners of the North Fork shingle mill, J. W. Lewis and H. C. Calhoun of Portland, have painted the name of their mill, "The North Fork Shingle Mill" on their truck and expect to do their own delivering.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Behnke have been enjoying a week's visit from their granddaughter, Miss Catharine Dallas of near Salem. The young lady is a prominent 4-H club worker.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandler returned to their home in Portland Monday after a brief visit at the Chandler, Conner and Stanton homes. They were accompanied on their return by Miss Grace Stanton, for a visit in her old home city.

Messages of bereavement came to two homes here but recently. To our druggist, B. A. Murray, of the death in Falls City of his father, L. B. Murray, 80, and resident of that vicinity the past 40 years, and to Mrs. Wm. Smith, of the death of her brother, Chas. Wheeler, 60, at his home in Bend. Mrs. Gus Christensen of Glendora is a stepdaughter of the deceased Wheeler.

Mrs. J. E. Jacobson returned Tuesday from a four day's visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. Kephart, in Eugene. A small addition was made to the ground floor of the Oddfellows' building this week to increase storage room for the Pastime pool hall, taking the place of a smaller one just razed.

Clarnan, Mrs. Spalding, Mrs. Patchen, Mrs. Drain and Mrs. Letson of Drain as visitors. Following the business session, a social evening was spent at which time light refreshments were served by the local organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lasswell are spending a few days at Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sumner of Myrtle Point visited Mr. Sumner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewellen here this week.

The Women's Study club met with Mrs. Hugh Warner April 7 and began the study of the Philippines. Roll call revealed the fact that either those islands have few patriots or that the club members are not good collectors of patriots. Mrs. Charles Dear gave an interesting travel story that made all question most seriously what is the best thing for our nation to do about the islands, and have we been doing right? Mrs. Ervin Rice reviewed the book "Sallie in Rhodesia," by Schilla MacDonald, in a very pleasing manner. Next year's program was discussed and the names of hostesses given. Delegates to the state convention to be held in May at Roseburg were elected. By virtue of her office as president, Mrs. John Kruse is a delegate. Mrs. J. R. Lasswell was elected as alternate. Mrs. Zadie Bishop and Mrs. M. H. Payne were chosen. Those present were Mesdames Emma Miller, Effie Payne, Paula Strong, Gertrude Stoute, Mary Richards, Marjorie Lasswell, Marie Rice, Leona Merk, Jennie Lasswell, Annie Kruse, Adabel Kingston, Elza Huet, Effie Howard, Blanche Dear, Lillie Brown, Zadie Bishop, Laura Applegate, Miss Genevieve Groves and the hostess, Mrs. Hugh Warner. Mrs. Ellen Warner, Mrs. Leslie Miller and Mrs. Leta Warner were present as very welcome guests.

NEEDLE GROUP MEETS
SPRINGFIELD, April 13.—(Special)—Twelve members of the R. N. A. needle club met with Mrs. Tom Munroe and Mrs. John Newman in Eugene, at the home of Mrs. Munroe, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Faust was a guest of the club.

Creswell Community News

CRESWELL, April 13.—(Special)—Honor Rebekah lodge met in regular session Wednesday evening. Miss Nieta Zinkler and Mrs. W. O. Spencer were elected delegates to the meeting of the state assembly at Tillamook May 21. Alternates are Mrs. Ethel Treanor and Mrs. Clara Traxler. Mrs. Spencer was recommended for district deputy. An invitation was received to attend the district meeting of I. O. O. F. at Cottage Grove April 28, the anniversary of the founding of the order and to supply a number for the program. Mrs. Clara Traxler and Mrs. J. E. Woodson were arranging for the number and also provide entertainment for the next meeting. Mrs. M. T. Jackson and Mrs. Shank will serve on the refreshment committee. The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Elizabeth Caviness, a recently departed member. Mrs. J. Iderhoff, Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Treanor were chosen on the resolution committee.

The Garden club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Smith. Plans were made for the annual flower show at the Civic club house early in May. A tea will be served in connection with the exhibit. The show affair will be open for community competition and all having flowers are urged to bring them for exhibit. Those in charge are Mrs. J. R. Miller, Mrs. F. K. Noordhoff, Mrs. J. H. Martin, Mrs. Ed Anderson and Mrs. T. C. Brown. Donations were brought for Mrs. Smith's new pool and rock garden. Those present were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. G. H. Davidson, Mrs. F. B. Block, Mrs. E. W. Hougland, Mrs. J. S. Taylor, Mrs. J. H. Martin, Mrs. Clara Traxler, Mrs. T. C. Brown and Mrs. Smith. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Davidson.

F. K. Noordhoff was re-elected principal of the Creswell union high school at meeting of the directors Tuesday, and Carroll Grosbong was re-elected as instructor. The third teacher has not been chosen as yet. The selection will be made at the next meeting of the board.

The Helpful Workers Cooking club, Mrs. H. N. Traxler leader, has completed the projects and work for the year. The last meeting was celebrated in a picnic lunch on Creswell butte. The members numbered nine.

Mrs. A. H. Dahl returned Monday from a trip to Sherwood and Portland. While in Sherwood she visited with her daughter, Mrs. George Borchers and family and attended the confirmation exercises Sunday of her granddaughter Dorothy Borchers. Mrs. Dahl made the trip with her son N. D. Pohl and family of Eugene.

Clarnan, Mrs. Spalding, Mrs. Patchen, Mrs. Drain and Mrs. Letson of Drain as visitors. Following the business session, a social evening was spent at which time light refreshments were served by the local organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lasswell are spending a few days at Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sumner of Myrtle Point visited Mr. Sumner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewellen here this week.

The Women's Study club met with Mrs. Hugh Warner April 7 and began the study of the Philippines. Roll call revealed the fact that either those islands have few patriots or that the club members are not good collectors of patriots. Mrs. Charles Dear gave an interesting travel story that made all question most seriously what is the best thing for our nation to do about the islands, and have we been doing right? Mrs. Ervin Rice reviewed the book "Sallie in Rhodesia," by Schilla MacDonald, in a very pleasing manner. Next year's program was discussed and the names of hostesses given. Delegates to the state convention to be held in May at Roseburg were elected. By virtue of her office as president, Mrs. John Kruse is a delegate. Mrs. J. R. Lasswell was elected as alternate. Mrs. Zadie Bishop and Mrs. M. H. Payne were chosen. Those present were Mesdames Emma Miller, Effie Payne, Paula Strong, Gertrude Stoute, Mary Richards, Marjorie Lasswell, Marie Rice, Leona Merk, Jennie Lasswell, Annie Kruse, Adabel Kingston, Elza Huet, Effie Howard, Blanche Dear, Lillie Brown, Zadie Bishop, Laura Applegate, Miss Genevieve Groves and the hostess, Mrs. Hugh Warner. Mrs. Ellen Warner, Mrs. Leslie Miller and Mrs. Leta Warner were present as very welcome guests.

NEEDLE GROUP MEETS
SPRINGFIELD, April 13.—(Special)—Twelve members of the R. N. A. needle club met with Mrs. Tom Munroe and Mrs. John Newman in Eugene, at the home of Mrs. Munroe, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Faust was a guest of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lasswell are spending a few days at Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sumner of Myrtle Point visited Mr. Sumner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewellen here this week.

The Women's Study club met with Mrs. Hugh Warner April 7 and began the study of the Philippines. Roll call revealed the fact that either those islands have few patriots or that the club members are not good collectors of patriots. Mrs. Charles Dear gave an interesting travel story that made all question most seriously what is the best thing for our nation to do about the islands, and have we been doing right? Mrs. Ervin Rice reviewed the book "Sallie in Rhodesia," by Schilla MacDonald, in a very pleasing manner. Next year's program was discussed and the names of hostesses given. Delegates to the state convention to be held in May at Roseburg were elected. By virtue of her office as president, Mrs. John Kruse is a delegate. Mrs. J. R. Lasswell was elected as alternate. Mrs. Zadie Bishop and Mrs. M. H. Payne were chosen. Those present were Mesdames Emma Miller, Effie Payne, Paula Strong, Gertrude Stoute, Mary Richards, Marjorie Lasswell, Marie Rice, Leona Merk, Jennie Lasswell, Annie Kruse, Adabel Kingston, Elza Huet, Effie Howard, Blanche Dear, Lillie Brown, Zadie Bishop, Laura Applegate, Miss Genevieve Groves and the hostess, Mrs. Hugh Warner. Mrs. Ellen Warner, Mrs. Leslie Miller and Mrs. Leta Warner were present as very welcome guests.

NEEDLE GROUP MEETS
SPRINGFIELD, April 13.—(Special)—Twelve members of the R. N. A. needle club met with Mrs. Tom Munroe and Mrs. John Newman in Eugene, at the home of Mrs. Munroe, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Faust was a guest of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lasswell are spending a few days at Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sumner of Myrtle Point visited Mr. Sumner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewellen here this week.

The Women's Study club met with Mrs. Hugh Warner April 7 and began the study of the Philippines. Roll call revealed the fact that either those islands have few patriots or that the club members are not good collectors of patriots. Mrs. Charles Dear gave an interesting travel story that made all question most seriously what is the best thing for our nation to do about the islands, and have we been doing right? Mrs. Ervin Rice reviewed the book "Sallie in Rhodesia," by Schilla MacDonald, in a very pleasing manner. Next year's program was discussed and the names of hostesses given. Delegates to the state convention to be held in May at Roseburg were elected. By virtue of her office as president, Mrs. John Kruse is a delegate. Mrs. J. R. Lasswell was elected as alternate. Mrs. Zadie Bishop and Mrs. M. H. Payne were chosen. Those present were Mesdames Emma Miller, Effie Payne, Paula Strong, Gertrude Stoute, Mary Richards, Marjorie Lasswell, Marie Rice, Leona Merk, Jennie Lasswell, Annie Kruse, Adabel Kingston, Elza Huet, Effie Howard, Blanche Dear, Lillie Brown, Zadie Bishop, Laura Applegate, Miss Genevieve Groves and the hostess, Mrs. Hugh Warner. Mrs. Ellen Warner, Mrs. Leslie Miller and Mrs. Leta Warner were present as very welcome guests.

NEEDLE GROUP MEETS
SPRINGFIELD, April 13.—(Special)—Twelve members of the R. N. A. needle club met with Mrs. Tom Munroe and Mrs. John Newman in Eugene, at the home of Mrs. Munroe, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Faust was a guest of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lasswell are spending a few days at Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sumner of Myrtle Point visited Mr. Sumner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewellen here this week.

The Women's Study club met with Mrs. Hugh Warner April 7 and began the study of the Philippines. Roll call revealed the fact that either those islands have few patriots or that the club members are not good collectors of patriots. Mrs. Charles Dear gave an interesting travel story that made all question most seriously what is the best thing for our nation to do about the islands, and have we been doing right? Mrs. Ervin Rice reviewed the book "Sallie in Rhodesia," by Schilla MacDonald, in a very pleasing manner. Next year's program was discussed and the names of hostesses given. Delegates to the state convention to be held in May at Roseburg were elected. By virtue of her office as president, Mrs. John Kruse is a delegate. Mrs. J. R. Lasswell was elected as alternate. Mrs. Zadie Bishop and Mrs. M. H. Payne were chosen. Those present were Mesdames Emma Miller, Effie Payne, Paula Strong, Gertrude Stoute, Mary Richards, Marjorie Lasswell, Marie Rice, Leona Merk, Jennie Lasswell, Annie Kruse, Adabel Kingston, Elza Huet, Effie Howard, Blanche Dear, Lillie Brown, Zadie Bishop, Laura Applegate, Miss Genevieve Groves and the hostess, Mrs. Hugh Warner. Mrs. Ellen Warner, Mrs. Leslie Miller and Mrs. Leta Warner were present as very welcome guests.

NEEDLE GROUP MEETS
SPRINGFIELD, April 13.—(Special)—Twelve members of the R. N. A. needle club met with Mrs. Tom Munroe and Mrs. John Newman in Eugene, at the home of Mrs. Munroe, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Faust was a guest of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lasswell are spending a few days at Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sumner of Myrtle Point visited Mr. Sumner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewellen here this week.

The Women's Study club met with Mrs. Hugh Warner April 7 and began the study of the Philippines. Roll call revealed the fact that either those islands have few patriots or that the club members are not good collectors of patriots. Mrs. Charles Dear gave an interesting travel story that made all question most seriously what is the best thing for our nation to do about the islands, and have we been doing right? Mrs. Ervin Rice reviewed the book "Sallie in Rhodesia," by Schilla MacDonald, in a very pleasing manner. Next year's program was discussed and the names of hostesses given. Delegates to the state convention to be held in May at Roseburg were elected. By virtue of her office as president, Mrs. John Kruse is a delegate. Mrs. J. R. Lasswell was elected as alternate. Mrs. Zadie Bishop and Mrs. M. H. Payne were chosen. Those present were Mesdames Emma Miller, Effie Payne, Paula Strong, Gertrude Stoute, Mary Richards, Marjorie Lasswell, Marie Rice, Leona Merk, Jennie Lasswell, Annie Kruse, Adabel Kingston, Elza Huet, Effie Howard, Blanche Dear, Lillie Brown, Zadie Bishop, Laura Applegate, Miss Genevieve Groves and the hostess, Mrs. Hugh Warner. Mrs. Ellen Warner, Mrs. Leslie Miller and Mrs. Leta Warner were present as very welcome guests.

NEEDLE GROUP MEETS
SPRINGFIELD, April 13.—(Special)—Twelve members of the R. N. A. needle club met with Mrs. Tom Munroe and Mrs. John Newman in Eugene, at the home of Mrs. Munroe, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Faust was a guest of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lasswell are spending a few days at Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sumner of Myrtle Point visited Mr. Sumner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewellen here this week.

Roses Grown Out Doors Blooming

A dozen beautiful roses, all perfectly shaped, were brought to the Register-Guard Thursday by C. L. Royds, as specimens of some of the first outdoor grown roses to bloom this spring.

The roses were grown on the J. M. Green place on Greenhill drive, Crow Stage, which is about seven miles west of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Green are at present living in Pasadena, but plan to come here to make their home as soon as they have disposed of property in California. Mr. and Mrs. Royds are taking care of the place in their absence.

Among the roses brought to the Register-Guard office were the Hoosier Beauty, Golden Emblem, Mrs.

News of Thurston

THURSTON, April 13.—(Special)—The Thurston high school board met Monday for business pertaining to work of the high school. Along with other business came the re-election of Professor Grant for the coming year, according to members of the board. Mr. Grant has been principal of the school for the past two years.

Mrs. Blanch Weise and Mr. and Mrs. Marshal Weise and daughter Margaret were guests the first of the week at the John Edmiston home. Mr. Schaffer is staying there this week, Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Settle were guests there.

Hazel Edmiston spent Saturday night in Eugene.

WHITE DUNSBY PUMPS

ALL MATERIALS INCLUDING, PATENT BLACK KID, BROWN KID, PARCHMENT, BLACK FAILE, WHITE MOIRE, OTHER STYLES WITH CUT-OUT AND TRIMMING

Special $1.99

HIGH OR CUBAN HEELS

SIZES 2 1/2 to 9 WIDTHS AA to D

CUT-OUT OXFORD

WHITE KID, BLACK KID, PARCHMENT KID, MEDIUM HIGH CUBAN HEELS, BALS OR BLUCHER TYPES.

Special $1.99

ALSO OTHER PLAIN AND FANCY STYLES

WIDE ELK SANDALS

FIVE OTHER STYLES IN PERFORATED AND CUT-OUT STYLES, PLAIN OR WITH KILTIE AND TONGUE.

Special $1.99

Also Misses Sizes 8 1/2-2

SPORT SHOES

5 NEW STYLES LEATHER SOLES

Special $1.49

TENN