STATEMENT IGNORED

By GLENN HARR
(Associated Press Foreign Staff)
TOKYO, May 1.—(AP)—The communication of Cordell Hall, United States secretary of state, on Japanese policy in the Far East was pointedly ignored in a written communique given by the foreign office to the Japanese press tonight.

Although the Hall statement was published completely in local afternoon newspapers, and was the principal topic of discussion in diplomatic and official circles, the communique does not mention it except to reiterate its contention that the head of the American state department indicated the "United States" unwillingness to accept the Japanese "Hands off Asia" stand.

Home Folk Courtied
The communique, which reviews the recent declarations of Foreign Minister Koki Hirota, Ambassador Joseph C. Grew of the United States, and Ambassador Sir Francis Lindley of Great Britain, was so timed and framed as to give the Japanese people the impression that Tokyo had the last word in the past fortnight's international exchanges, leaving definitely on the records of the world a declaration of Japan's unique position in East Asia.

The communique, which a high official said he hoped would close the controversy definitely, contains the Japanese text of Hirota's April 26 note to Ambassadors Grew and Lindley in which were contained the keynote of Japan's position, as follows: "Japan cannot remain indifferent to anyone taking action under any pretext which is prejudicial to the maintenance of law and order in East Asia for which she, if only in view of her geographic position, has the most vital concern."

Presses Resentful
Consequently, she cannot afford to have the question of China exploited by any third party for the execution of a selfish policy which does not take into consideration the above circumstances.

Resentment at America's firm stand toward Japan's "Hands off China" policy, as expressed by Secretary of State Hall, was voiced in the Japanese press today.

The reaction was in sharp contrast to the manner in which word of Great Britain's willingness to drop the whole matter raised by the Japanese foreign office declaration of April 17 was received.

led the cattleman into Sonora, differed, however, on the value of Roberto's activities below the border.

"The baby is safe," Aquirre said, but he declined to reveal why he thought so.

"We have been on a wild goose chase," said Dalton. "There is absolutely no news of June."

CAROLINA REPORTS

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., May 1.—(AP)—W. W. Brinkley, filling station operator, reported to Forsyth county officers today that two men with a little girl who resembled six-year-old June Hobbes, kidnapped at Tucson, Ariz., last week, stopped at his station yesterday morning.

Brinkley said the men aroused his suspicion by their furtive appearance, but that he did not connect the incident with the kidnapping until he saw the child's picture in a newspaper today.

He said the picture made him almost certain the child was the kidnap victim.

The men, he said, were heavy set, about 40 years old, and had "bluff" faces.

holiday, was celebrated throughout America and a great part of a restless world today with wide-spread disorder and threats of more serious disturbances at nightfall.

Troops and police massed in the United States as well as in almost every country to cope with communist threats of violence.

One of the most serious events occurred in Nazi Germany, where communists are severely repressed. Nevertheless, malcontents succeeded in setting afire and destroying the great "Singer Hall" in Augsburg, a coup of violence comparable only to the famous firing of the Reichstag.

Chili Has Riots
In Austria, communists fired on a group of Italian motorcycleists enroute to Vienna to take part in the May day celebration.

In the United States, national guardsmen patrolled the Kansas-Missouri border to prevent a threatened invasion of Missouri by disgruntled Kansas miners. Strong forces of police were marshalled in New York, Chicago and Boston at communist annual demonstrations.

Argentina was under a state of siege, with a general holiday in effect. Censorship was established in Chile, where serious rioting occurred, with one dead and 13 injured at last reports.

Police Halt Parade
Despite a vast mobilization of troops in Paris, disorder broke out there. Communists tried to erect street barricades and hold parades, but were sternly put down by the police. Thousands of workers were out in factories. Elsewhere in France, parades were held, telegraph lines cut and other acts of sabotage committed.

Spain, under a state of alarm, had a national holiday. Apparently there was not more serious disorder than has been occurring almost daily recently because of labor unrest and strikes.

Russia held a vast parade and military display in Moscow's Red Square, but naturally there was no disorder under the strict communist regime.

Demonstrations were held in Japan, with some arrests made.

Mexico, Costa Rica, Panama and other Central and South American republics observed the day with parades and speeches.

GROVE MAN ACCUSED
M. D. Nichols, of Cottage Grove, appeared in the Eugene Justice court Tuesday, accused of a statutory offense against a young woman of that city. He arranged to give bail and will be given a hearing later.

The opera is directed by Miss Carolyn Woods, music instructor, and Ethel Chase Christie, dramatic coach.

Edna Severson Is New League Head

SPRINGFIELD, May 1.—(Special)—Edna Severson was elected president of the Girls' League Tuesday morning, defeating Eunice Rhine-vault in the annual elections. Miss Severson will succeed DeEtta Sand-gathe.

Other new officers for next year will be: Joanne Seavey, vice-president; LeMoyn Black, secretary-treasurer; Florence May, reporter; Essel Adams, social promoter.

The girls also voted on the three candidates for the senior cup, Marian Shipley, Lela Peterson, and DeEtta Sandgathe. Winner of this election will be announced at the Girls' League breakfast on the last day of school, at which time also the new officers will be installed.

Three More Schools Ask For FERA Fund

Three more Lane county school districts have made application for FERA funds to enable them to complete their nine months' term. All are short of funds and would have to curtail their terms if not granted the funds asked for, according to L. C. Moffitt, county superintendent.

College Crest district No. 181, adjoining Eugene on the south, is asking for money to pay its three teachers half a month in order to extend its term from eight and a half months to the usual nine. Dexter district No. 46, has two teachers to pay an extra month and Crew union high school has three teachers and no money to pay them longer than eight months.

largely on government buildings went on strike today for an increase in hourly wages from $1 to $1.37½ and a shorter work day.

The strike affects new buildings for the postoffice department, the department of labor, the interstate commerce commission, the department of justice and the archives building.

Another conference was called at Detroit today to settle disputes affecting the Fisher body corporation plants in eight cities. "Every evidence of co-operation" was reported by Dr. Leo Wolman, chairman of the automobile labor board.

More than 3500 leather workers in Peabody, Salem and Danvers, Mass., voted to go on strike today after a one day "holiday" failed to win for them a 25 per cent increase in wages.

National guardsmen were mobilized in the coal mine area of southwest Missouri to prevent trouble as mine operators and union officials conferred on a new wage contract under the modified NRA code.

Shipping at the principal Texas ports was brought to a standstill as approximately 4,000 longshoremen, after long negotiations with ship operators over wages, struck at midnight. Galveston, Houston, Texas City and Corpus Christi were among the ports affected.

allowing the health unit to give them more care than is ordinarily afforded and increasing the efficiency of the office. The dentists will be employed to look after the teeth of the children of these families that do not at present have proper dental care.

The women to be employed on the public library project will have considerable work to do in the repair of a large number of books that have been handled frequently and the indexing job will take some time. They will be under the direction of Miss Elma Hendricks, city librarian.

The day nursery project will be a continuation of the project at the Washington school carried on for several months under the CWA. Two teachers had charge of the work there under the old setup but the new project calls for the employment of three teachers and one assistant. With an increased staff the work may possibly be carried on in one or more of the other schools of the city.

The plan as carried out under the CWA was to care for pre-school children of families on the relief rolls, give them their lunch and see that they go home safely in the afternoon. H. R. Gould, city superintendent, said he had no information on the playgrounds project but expected to be informed of plan in the near future.

Willis Mahoney to Speak On Wednesday

Willis E. Mahoney mayor of Klamath Falls, and democratic candidate for the nomination for governor, will speak in Eugene Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the county courthouse.

Following his visit here Wednesday and a speech at Corvallis, Mr. Mahoney goes to Portland where he will spend the remaining days before the primary election in an intensive platform and radio campaign.

In his talk, Mahoney voices opposition to the proposed sales tax, the Knox liquor law, and what he charges as undue control of state affairs by utilities corporations. All interested are invited to the meeting.

McMorran Denies Increases in Pay

Reports that salaries of employees in state liquor stores and agencies had been increased, as stated in morning papers Tuesday, are erroneous, George H. McMorran, chairman of the state liquor control commission, told the Register-Guard Tuesday.

Certain employees who have been advanced from subordinate to executive positions are receiving higher salaries, Mr. McMorran stated, but these salaries are those which were established for the executive positions by the commission when it was first organized.

ately that the democrats have votes to spare on the proposal and that from two to six republicans will vote for passage.

McNary said, however, he expected most of his followers strenuously to oppose the measure, which would give the president power to negotiate tariff treaties with foreign countries.

He said the proposed amendment to the bill which would give industries a hearing before the rates on their products were lowered was "a step in the right direction, but it doesn't go far enough."

McNary indicated that the republicans would propose several amendments, among them being one which would prohibit the president from lowering tariff rates on any agricultural product.

In the senate, Hatfield (R-W. Va.) termed it a "presumptuous and wholly un-American" proposal to make treaties without the consent of the senate as provided in the constitution.

Total of 7222 Circulate From Library in April

The total of books going into circulation from the city public library during the month of April was 7222, the report from the office of Miss Elma Hendricks, librarian, shows.

Of this figure, 5778 were for adults and 1444 for children. Of the adult's total, 4604 were fiction and 1174 non-fiction. Of the children's total, 371 were non-fiction and 1073 fiction.

The library has received several new books, including Adam's "The Native's Return"; "Toward the Flame," Allen; Christie's "Murder in the Callan Coach"; Homer's "The Iliad"; "The New Level"; William's "Paradise Lost"; "The New Level"; "Thank You"; Vance's "The Strange Faces"; Thomson's "Breakfast in Bed". All are for the rest of the popular shelf.

Principals Hold Meeting Tuesday

The last meeting of the year for the principals of the various schools was held Tuesday afternoon at the city hall. H. R. Gould, city superintendent, presided over the meeting. Directions on supplies and maintenance of buildings were given, and other similar routine business taken up.
