

FLORENCE EIGHTH GRADERS APPEAL

FLORENCE, June 1.—(Special)—A capacity house greeted the eighth grade graduating exercises held at the church Monday evening.

Decorations were a background of smilax on which the class numeral, 1934, stood out in pink Rambler roses. The annex was well filled with grade decorations. The opening or commencement song, "Class Numbers," was given by the class. The salutatory and valedictory addresses given by Eleanor Elving and Woodrow Connor, respectively; class will and prophecy by Martha Larsen; musical numbers, Blue Danube waltz, Toy Orchestra; The Old Spinning Wheel Harmonica band; song, Apple Blossoms, primary grade, Rev. Paul D. Stier gave the class address and Mrs. Grant Colter presented the diploma, tied in pink and green, the class colors. Another musical feature was the vocal duet, "When Twilight Comes," a Beethoven minuet, by Mrs. Agnes McCormack and Miss Doris Barrett, accompanied by Miss Maude McIntire. Other graduates were Carl Elving, Edith Costello, Linnie Chandler, Alice Rice.

A stork shower was given Mrs. Jas. Riley Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. G. Colter. A big basket of dairy necessities was presented Mrs. Riley by two little boy guests, Jimmie Keizer and Miller, ice cream, cake and coffee were served, sixteen guests present to enjoy the happy little affair. Mrs. Teresa Alexander, Mrs. Lawrence Dublin, Mrs. Martha Hunt, Mrs. Ed Williams and little son, Mrs. P. P. Saler, Mrs. C. S. Carlson, Mrs. Kenneth Brewster, Mrs. Erwin Sr., Mrs. Lelloy Keizer, Mrs. C. G. Colter, Mrs. Mary Johnson and daughter Miss Clara, Mrs. Claud Erwin.

Memorial exercises here consisted of a 10:30 parade, formed at the ferry landing and marching to the Hibbard cemetery. In line were the American Legion, auxiliary, Boy Scouts and school children. Brief services were held at the church, then an address by Rev. P. D. Stier and the singing of patriotic songs by a chorus took place at the cemetery. The observance was sponsored by the American Legion and soldier's graves were decorated in advance of the ceremonies.
