waxed paper and arrange halves of lady fingers on the bottom and around the sides using wafer thin slices of Maraschino cherries or the chopped fruit to give more color to the dish. Pour in half the filling then add anything that may be left of 2 dozen lady fingers and cover with the rest of the mixture. Leave in the refrigerator over night and serve unmolded, the paper being torn off; or a spring form may be used for molding. Garnish the cake with chopped nuts, grated candied orange peel or whipped cream.—Mrs. Isom Cox, Route 2, Eugene.

Cabbage, Orange and Lemon Salad

Two tablespoons gelatin, 2 cups cold water, 1 cup orange juice, ½ cup orange pulp, 1½ cups shredded cabbage, ¼ teaspoonful salt, 1 teaspoon chopped onion, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 3-4 cup granulated sugar.

Soak the gelatin in 1 cup of cold water for five minutes. Heat the orange juice, mixed with the remaining water, to boiling point and pour over the soaked gelatin, then add the sugar, lemon juice, onion and salt. Turn into molds, first dipped in cold water, and when they begin to set, scoop a little out of the center of each and fill with the cabbage and orange mixture. Set aside to chill. When ready to serve turn out on lettuce leaf.—Aletha L. Carr, 1623 23rd Ave. E. Eugene.

Supreme Sauce (for Desserts)

1 teaspoon cornstarch
1 orange
1 lemon
½ cup sugar
1 cup water or pineapple juice
Small piece stick cinnamon.

Mix the cornstarch with a little cold water and add the warmed juice of the orange and lemon, the sugar, water, or juice and cinnamon. Cook all together until thickened. Strain and chill. —Mrs. E. M. Hallam, Eugene.

Brazilian Salad

2 cups white grapes
1½ cups orange sections
½ cup Brazil nuts

Remove the skins from the grapes, cut in halves and take out seeds. Cut orange sections in pieces of uniform size and the nuts in thin strips. Chill the fruit, add the nuts and mix with French dressing. Serve on crisp lettuce or romaine with mayonnanse combined with whipped cream.—Mrs. C. L. Huffaker, 1819 Fairmount, Eugene.

Cake Filling

Best for gold or silver cakes. Ice the top of the cake.

1¼ cups sugar
5 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
½ cup orange juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
5 tablespoons lemon juice
3 egg yolks
3 tablespoons butter
3-4 cup cold water.

Mix flour, sugar and salt. Add cold water, cook in double boiler until rather thick. Add the juices and grated fruit rinds. Beat egg yolks slightly. Stir quickly in the mixture. Add butter and cook until smooth and thick. Spread between cake layers. Ice top layer or sprinkle with powdered sugar. —Mrs. Roger B. Hall, Wendling.

Grapefruit Pie

1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup grapefruit juice
¼ cup orange juice
1 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup cold water
3 tablespoons cornstarch
2 egg yolks
1 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon grated grapefruit rind
2 egg whites
4 tablespoons sugar

Heat fruit juices, sugar and salt in double boiler. Mix the cornstarch and cold water. Pour hot juice and sugar over the cornstarch and return all to double boiler. Stir until thickened and cook about 10 minutes. Add beaten egg yolks and butter. Cook 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in the grated grapefruit rind. Pour into baked pie shell and cover with a meringue made of the egg whites and 4 tablespoons sugar. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) for 15 minutes or until meringue is browned.—Mrs. M. Johnson, 591 West Broadway, Eugene

Henry R. Rose, a farmer living near Porterville, Cal., delivers his garden truck in a home-made cart "powered" by a Holstein milk cow.

Members of the Farmington, Utah, bridge club declare they are unable to remember a single tiff between players during its 18-year existence.

FAREWELL!

Vision of a new day in Wisconsin politics is seen here by Senator Robert M. LaFollette as he gestures in farewell to the Republican party. With aid of farmer and labor groups, LaFollette and his backers formed a new Progressive party, at a convention in Fond du Lac, and the senator will run for re-election on that ticket this fall.

DROUGHT STARVED CATTLE!

Victims of the record drouth in the midwest, emaciated cattle jam stockyards in leading livestock centers, rushed there by owners in the hope of saving them with feed provided with federal funds. Here is shown part of a famished herd being fed in the Milwaukee yards. In the center is a milch cow, barely able to stand, bones protruding, sides sunken, with other cattle, in almost as bad condition, around her.

Woodmen Endorse Eugene's Pageant

An unqualified endorsement of the Oregon Trail pageant here this summer was voted at the meeting of the Woodmen of the World Wednesday night and the lodge decided to sponsor a whisker-growing contest with prizes for the best whiskers.

After Frank Reid, of the Junior chamber of commerce, had outlined the plan for the whisker-growing in connection with the pageant, the lodge decided to offer a prize for the best set and a prize for the poorest. John Marsh, member of the lodge, was named judge of the contest.

Porcupine Found Near Cottage Grove

COTTAGE GROVE, June 14.—(Special)—Porcupines are rare in this section and none had been reported for many years until William Baimbridge killed one a few days ago on the Mary White place. It weighed 50 or 60 pounds, and had nails two inches long and teeth like a beaver.

Mr. Baimbridge, with his wife and three of the Alfred White children, were picking berries when they heard a dog with them bark and saw a live ball rolling along on the ground. The porcupine was entirely protected from attack by its armament. None recognized the animal except Mr. Baimbridge, who attacked and killed it with a club.

Pioneer Lumberman Of Northwest Dies

SEATTLE, June 14.—(AP)—Death ended the long career of Thomas Bordeaux, 82, one of the northwest's pioneer lumbermen and founder of the Mason County Logging company in 1890.

He was active in recent years in Seattle and Shelton banking circles. His widow and two sons survive.
