OXEN SLOW BUT SURE!

Driving oxen is nothing new for William Williams of Dexter, shown above on his way from Jasper to Dexter with a load of lumber at the time of the Sunset Trail pageant. Mr. Williams, who appeared with his oxen in pioneer parades of both the Trail to Rail and Sunset Trail shows, was born at Dexter on July 2, 1858. The Williams place at Dexter was the first night's stop out of Eugene on the old wagon road over the Willamette pass into the Klamath country. The yoke used with the oxen in the picture was brought across the plains by his parents.

AL PEARCE COMING TO M'DONALD STAGE
An announcement of great interest to Eugene theater-goers and radio fans comes from James O'Connell, McDonald manager. Al Pearce and his gang, famed stars of the National Broadcasting company, are to appear on the McDonald stage June 30.
The company will be here for one day only Saturday, and the complete cast will be on hand. Pearce, Monroe Upton (Lord Bilgewater), Mabel Todd and the entire cast will be here.
The gang has become the most popular radio entertaining group to appear on the coast in many years, and O'Connell had to put up a stiff guarantee to bring them here. They have played to capacity houses in many northwest and California cities.

FORGER SENTENCED TO TERM IN PRISON
Doan Hartford was sentenced by Judge G. F. Skipworth in circuit court Monday afternoon to serve a year and three months in the state penitentiary for uttering a forged check. He was taken to Salem Tuesday morning to begin his term. Hartford was arrested at Cottage Grove after passing a bad check there a short time ago. He had pleaded guilty to the charge after the grand jury had indicted him.
The jury in the case of Viola Stickle against Springfield school district, in which $10,075 damages were sought for the death of her two-year-old son, John Thomas Stickle, alleged to have been caused when a swing on the Springfield school grounds fell with him, returned a verdict in her favor for $103.
All jurors have been dismissed for the term and no more will be called until September. Judge Skipworth heard motions Tuesday forenoon and divorce cases in the afternoon.

Eugene Man Fined For Having Venison
Curtis Miller of Eugene was fined $50 by Justice of the Peace Dan Johnston on a charge of illegal possession of deer meat. He was unable to pay the fine and is in the county jail. The state police officer who made the arrest, said that Miller killed a deer in the Winberry road at night and that a spotlight was used.
