Eugene Firms Help With Big Picnic of Building Congress

A number of Eugene firms have contributed to a fund to pay the expenses of the Oregon Building Congress' state builders' day picnic at Hazel Green park, five miles north of Salem, Sunday, July 15, according to O. G. Hughson, field man for the congress, who was in Eugene Thursday.

At the O. B. C. convention last March a builders' day was voted and Professor W. J. Gilmore of the state college and R. A. Myer of Salem were appointed as a committee to carry out the plan for a meeting of builders, granges and community clubs and their families in an all-day outdoor event with entertainment, games and stunts.

The chorus of the Marion-Polk county federated community clubs will lead the outdoor singing, and John B. Northman, Salem, horseshoe fan, will have charge of the horseshoe contests. Dick Myers, assisted by Eddie Ahrens of Turner, will direct the games and stunts. All grangers are being invited as guests of the builders.

The following Eugene firms have contributed to the expense fund: Sigwart Electric company, Chase Plumbing company, E. M. Draw, Eugene Lumber company, Waldorf Paint company, Castelleo and Stocker, C. P. Tillman, Twin Oaks Lumber company, Walters-Bushong

Lumber company, Midgley planing mill, and R. A. Babb Hardware company.
