THIS LOST LUXURY CAN NOW BE YOURS

In the days of sailing ships there was keen rivalry to buy coffee that arrived in slow sailing packets from "round the horn." Such green coffees had aged or mellow'd during months of passage and, after roasting, made a rare brew. With the coming of rapid steam transportation, green coffees did not have time to age in transit. Mellowness became a lost luxury for years.

Today S&W achieves full mellowness in coffee by the art of blending. Many varieties of rare green coffees from different lands are used. Shade of flavor is added to shade of flavor until there results a MASTER FLAVOR...full, deep, mellow'd. This extra richness...this lost luxury...costs you no more.

and painting expeditions were set at $2.50.

The first sketching trip will be made on Tuesday, July 24th, at 2:30 p. m. The group will leave promptly at this time from 30 W. Tenth, and anyone desiring to join the group is asked to be present at that time.

Other members of the Eugene Art Club present at the organization meeting were Ruth T. Baker; Carol McClain; Rosina J. Stebbins, and B. D. Dotson. At least a half dozen others have signified a desire to join.

Mercer Lake News

MERCER LAKE, June 22.—(Special).—Maurice Howard and a group of Boy Scouts from Portland are at the Howard summer home at Calford lake.

Jas. Steinlechner was elected school director for a term of three years in this district last Monday. Mrs. Mary L. Dowell was elected clerk. Miss Jean Johnson will be the teacher this fall.

Leonard Grimshaw and his mother drove to Portland Monday, returning Ray Grimshaw, Jr., to his home there. Another nephew and grandson, Darwin Woodworth of Portland, returned with them to spend the summer here. On the return trip by way of the Coast highway, a very pleasant visit was enjoyed at the Lewis Neff home at Waldport.

Last Saturday, Mrs. Isabelle Myers of Florence was invited to a birthday dinner at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Welch at Lake Mary. Here she found to greet her about 30 of the women of the Mercer and Cape Creek neighborhoods. Mrs. Myers was the recipient of numerous pretty gifts. Among the guests was Mrs. Rufus Stonefield, who was very pleasantly surprised as she was also a guest of honor, the party being also in observance of her birthday. A tea towel shower was given Mrs. Stonefield, she receiving 21 prettily embroidered and initialed towels. A very pleasant day of visiting was enjoyed.
