Wednesday
12 noon—Weekly luncheon for Eugene Lions club, Eugene hotel.

Trip Delayed
Mrs. C. LeRoy Towers has received an airmail letter from Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ellington that their trip to Eugene has been delayed, owing to the fact that Mr. Ellington, who is editor of the Pension Review paper, expects to explain in full the railroad pension bill, that has been passed by the administration, in the last issue of the magazine. They will arrive in Eugene shortly after the first of July. Mrs. Ellington will stay for John. Mrs. Ellington will take over his duties as vice-president of the conductors' group on Aug. 1.

Dentists Home
Several Eugene dentists attending the annual dental convention in Portland the past week are home, reporting a fine meeting. Among those going from here were Dr. W. B. Lee, Dr. C. L. Schwering, Dr. Harry W. Titus, Dr. M. C. Harris, Dr. W. E. Buchanan Sr., Dr. J. D. Tye. Among honor guests and speakers at the meeting were Dr. Boyd Gardner, noted oral surgeon from the Mayo clinics, Dr. Don J. Aubertine and Dr. Alver Selberg, both of San Francisco.

Church Plans Picnic
The annual picnic for the Sunday school and congregation for the First Baptist church will be held Thursday, starting at 2 p. m., in Skinner Butte park. The picnic supper for all church members and friends and families will be held at 6 p. m. as a basket affair. Following the dinner, the mid-week services for the church will be held around the tables. Truman Chase is chairman for the event. R. S. Shelley is superintendent of the Sunday school.

Convention Opens
The annual state convention for the Christian churches opens in Turner, Tuesday evening. Rev. S. E. Childers, pastor of the Eugene First Christian church, is to give the Thursday evening address. The convention is to close Sunday evening. A large delegation from the Eugene church will leave Thursday morning for the meeting. Stephen J. Corey, president of the United Christian Missionary society, St. Louis, is the main speaker for the convention.

Home from Conference
Rev. Milton S. Weber, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, and Adrian Martin, Melvin Ross, and James Currin, all of the church, have returned from the annual conference for Presbyterian young people at Hillsboro, Ore. About 70 were at the conference held there for all young people of the northern part of the state. Reports on the meeting will be given in the local church, Sunday, July 8.

Pictures for Schools Arrive
Several Lane county schools will each receive a picture painted or etched by artists employed under a CWA project, it is announced by L. C. Moffitt, county school superintendent. The pictures arrived Monday and will be sent to the Junction City, Mohawk, Springfield, Florence, Coburg and Pleasant Hill schools. Other high schools are expected to get pictures later.

Fireworks to Be Shown
The annual display of fireworks at Holeman's grove will be held Friday evening, June 29, at 9:15 o'clock. Mr. Holeman buys a special display of fireworks each year and sets them off for the benefit of his friends. All are invited to witness the event. There will be bomb shells, skyrockets, large pin wheels and several others of merit, it is announced.
