

CAFE DEL REY TO HOLD OPENING ON SATURDAY NIGHT

The grand opening of the Cafe Del Rey, formerly known as Lee-Duke's and the Bohemian cafe, is set for 6 o'clock Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young, who will manage the restaurant. Dinner will be served from 6 o'clock until midnight.

With new lighting fixtures, new dishes and silverware, new all-electric bakes ovens added to the physical equipment and 14 years experience of catering to public appetites, Mr. Young announces that the cafe will operate under the slogan, "The Place You are Proud to Be Seen."

Mr. Young, who has had considerable experience as chef on ocean liners, plans to introduce a number of dishes new to restaurant menus. Mrs. Young, who will act as hostess, was with the famous Harvey restaurants for a number of years.

Pastry and candy making will be in charge of C. D. Johnson who promises a number of featured articles in the way of French and Danish pastries, hard rolls and hot rolls, and breads of all kinds. Mr. Johnson was formerly with the Puss 'n Boots in Seattle.

Bobbie Goldsmith, well known to Eugeneans, will be in charge of the fountain. Alice Williams will be head waitress. Bert E. Stone is dinner cook.

The dance room has been redecorated and will be open Saturday night from 6:30 to 9 o'clock for the first of a series of informal dinner dances. Music will be furnished by Max Morse and his Del Rey orchestra. There will be no cover charge.

When, at last, "white Indians" were found, their home was in Darien, part of the Republic of Panama.
