

EVEN HORSES WEAR MASKS!

horses of San Francisco mounted police are called upon to hurry crowds in strike riots and with the calling of the strike, masks to protect their steeds from tear gas effects and protect their riders too, have been issued. And here's a horse and man ready for the fray.

SCHOOL IN EVENT

NEBRASKA SHERIFF

Here For Couple

SWELL, July 23.—(Special) Three students of the week school, which closed last week, received their certificates at the graduation program at the gymnasium Thursday evening. Bruce Cole making the address. A large number of parents and friends attended. The classes were arranged in three groups. Rev. E. W. O'Connell, pastor of the church, gave the charge of the senior group. Marie Hubbel the intermediate class. Bernice Merton of the Al College, the primary. Several were sung and demonstrations were given. Colored by the younger students. The program was made into books and to them by their teacher. Marion, Rev. Cole and Miss Marjorie sang "Take Up the cross as a special number."

At 60 members and friends of the Saturday school at the gymnasium Sunday school at the annual picnic Friday at the gymnasium. The regular business to come before the meeting was given to getting the various committees organized for the coming year. The chairmen were appointed before, and they were instructed to pick their assistants and give their names to the secretary at this meeting.

The committees are as follows: the first named one being the chairman of the committee: Membership committee, Mrs. Edwin Post, V. A. Parker, Mrs. Anna Pontius, Mrs. Coy Renninger; hospitality committee, Miss Agnes Carson, Mrs. Sarah Worthington, Walter Roberts, Mrs. A. Steinhauer; program committee, Harry Robertson, Miss Pope, Mrs. Walter Robertson; publicity committee, F. L. Norton; Mrs. M. E. Norton; Walter Dennis; refreshments committee, Mrs. Rosa Hays, Mrs. Art Garrison, Mrs. Ruby Robinson; finance committee, A. Steinhauer, Mrs. B. H. Jones, Mrs. A. W. Graham.

After the business session was over there followed an impromptu program of group singing and readings. The county unit system of school management was chosen as a special topic for discussion at the next meeting with the object of becoming better acquainted with the measure. All who are interested are to secure all of the information on the subject that they can. The next meeting is to be held on the second Friday in August.

Evangelist Opens Meets in Eugene

"I have remembered my covenant," was the topic of a sermon by Mildred McNeil Sunday evening at the tent services being held in the rear of Open Door Mission, 251 Eighth avenue west. Emphasizing the infallibility of God's promises, Miss McNeil pointed out the various fulfillments of his promises through the ages, and declared that other prophecies were in the process of being fulfilled. A larger tent, seating 300 persons, has been secured. Meetings will continue for at least two weeks, with meetings at 7:45 each evening except Saturday.
