

HIS SIGNAL BROUGHT DOOM!

His relentless search of more than four months crowned with success. Melvin Purvis, U. S. Department of Justice agent, is shown shortly after the slaying of John Dillinger in Chicago. Purvis was the first to see the man who had been in the trap when he signalled his squad to close in on the outlaw. "I told my men to take him alive if they could, but to take no chances."

LED VICTORS!

Mr. R. Norris Williams, who defeated the American Davis Cup champion, which defeated Australia in Wimbledon Wednesday at Wimbledon. Williams is a former U. S. Cup ace himself.

HE IS FIRMER FOR DAIRY GOODS

PORTLAND, July 30.—(AP)—Butter and the cheese trade was quiet here with improvement in general in the eastern markets. Prices were maintained at late advances with butter and butterfat. The egg market was quiet as a result of the late advance quoted by the produce exchange. The co-ops and private firms were active.

There were no changes in the chicken situation were shown at the opening. Trade was inclined to be active at the extreme prices quoted, these being above the lowest levels reached.

There was a general peach trade improved with Washington growing unexported liberal business the south.
