

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS CORA MOORE TO AUSTIN FREY IS ANNOUNCED ON FRIDAY EVENING

Wedding Will Be Event Of Late August

By MARIAN LOWRY
Of interest to a large group of Eugene and university friends is the announcement made this week of the engagement of Miss Cora Moore to Austin Frey.

Miss Cora Moore, above, announced her engagement to Austin Frey at a party given Friday evening at her home by her sisters, Misses Martha and Irene Moore.

The news was told at an informal party for which Miss Martha Moore, sister of the bride, and Miss Irene Moore, sister of the groom, were the hosts.

Miss Moore has been identified with musical activities in Eugene for some time. She is accompanist for the Eugene Glee men and director of the Eugene Chorus.

Miss Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moore, formerly of Eugene, now of Portland, Ore.

Both Miss Moore and Mr. Frey are former students of the University of Oregon.

Miss Moore was graduated from the University of Oregon in 1931.

Mr. Frey is a graduate of the University of Oregon in 1932.

They were married Sunday last at a service held at the bride's home at five o'clock.

The bride wore a dress of white crepe and with it a small turban with a veil.

The groom wore a suit of light blue and with it a white flower.

The service took place at the home of Mrs. J. R. Dorsey, who acted as officiant.

At each side was a bouquet of pink gladioli. Tall white tapers, white candles, and baby breath were used in decorating the ceremony.

Following the ceremony there was an informal reception. Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. C. T. Williams, Mrs. Ella Williams, and Mrs. Jack Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dorsey, Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Stivers, and the couple is to live in Eugene.

Miss Vera Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson, and Raymond A. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Williams of Napa, Cal., were married Sunday last at a service held at the bride's home at five o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell attended the couple.
