| Chili Con Carne —Hormel, 2 cans 25c | EDITORIAL —Dear folks, we thank you. This store opened last Wednesday in a room that had been vacant since last December, yet we did a business far greater than any other Eugene grocery. The hundreds whom we did not get to serve on account of the crowds can return and buy later, for the Lucky Boy never has special sales. Our prices remain the same until wholesale prices advance. We now know that you appreciate our efforts—that you are tired of special sales, preferring to purchase all goods at one small and just profit. We also feel that you want to help us reduce our overhead so we can keep our prices low, and let the one who has his order delivered pay for his own delivery. And we know that hundreds want a grocery store that is open daily from 7 a. m. until 9 p. m. Under NRA rules and regulations we are prohibited from selling merchandise without adding six per cent profit, hence we are selling everything at low average prices, and will save you money on practically every purchase—besides you get Mining Stock Free and if this Lucky Boy Mine turns out as we expect some day this stock will pay you more than the entire cost of merchandise purchased at this store. And another vital matter that I want you to consider is this: There has been a lot of untruthful propaganda circulated lately in reference to one private brand of flour.
