

CONGRESSMAN MOTT ADDRESSES MEETING

COTTAGE GROVE, Sept. 13.—(Special)—Congressman James W. Mott addressed a meeting of the chamber of commerce Tuesday evening at Hotel Bartell at which about 60 were present. Mr. Mott talked on general conditions of the country and gave an explanatory talk of the present plans of the government. His talk was non-political. He paid a glowing tribute to President Roosevelt and said he was one of the most popular men that had ever been in the White House.

Mrs. Leontine Lusk Stark won the prize at the flag tournament Wednesday morning at the golf club. Plans were completed by the group for a card party to be held in the near future. 16 took part in the tournament.

The first fall meeting of the Presbyterian Aid society was held Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors at which about 35 were present. At the business meeting plans were discussed relative to the annual experience social which will be held on October 10. Mrs. Joe Smith and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell are captains of the teams. Mrs. G. B. Pitcher was named chairman of the house committee and announced plans for the annual church cleaning. Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. George Jacobsen and Mrs. J. A. Smith were hostesses and entertained with the following program: Piano numbers, Mrs. A. E. Riew; vocal duet, Ellian and William Gregory; Rev. J. A. Smith was present and gave a brief talk relative to church plans. Mrs. Elmer Berg gave a talk about a recent visit to Spain, telling of manners, customs of living, geography of the country and the manner of conducting bull fights. Mrs. W. C. Gregory and daughters, Pauline and Jillian, and son, William, Mrs. Homer D. Fernin and Mrs. Berg were all special guests.

Roscoe Hemenway arrived from Portland Wednesday night, being called here by the illness of his mother, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, who has been critically ill since Thursday a week ago, and Mr. Hemenway was taken ill with a slight stroke Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beidler and son, Willis, left Thursday morning for Ashland to attend the funeral of Mrs. Beidler's father, Levi Johnson, who died here Monday night.

Rod Kennedy of Catalina Island, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarland.

A daughter was born Tuesday evening, Sept. 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Wade Moxey at the Frank McFarland home in Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood of San Diego, Calif., are visiting old time friends in Cottage Grove. Mr. Wood was former owner of the O. P. & E. railroad.

Word has been received of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McFarland in Texas on September 4. They are former residents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Godard are visiting at Coquille for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Graham of Eugene visited Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Godard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Godard.

Mrs. F. L. Grannis and daughter, Carolyn, are visiting in Eugene.

Mrs. C. J. Kem, Mrs. Warren Daugherty and daughter, Kathleen, were Eugene visitors Wednesday.

Shedd News Notes

SHEDD, Sept. 13.—(Special)—A good attendance is expected at the Shedd fair Wednesday, September 12, local merchants are preparing booths and committees are working up entertainment. The committee has been selected, being Miss Fern Farwell who after being crowned, will open the fair.

Mrs. Earl Horrell from Oakridge is visiting here with Mrs. Ernie Pugh, and expects to stay over for the fair.

W. B. Davis returned from the fair at Salem and reported several sales on his guernsey cows and some took first prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quintell of Oakland, Cal., are spending their vacation visiting with Mr. Quintell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clay.

Mrs. Herrador and daughter Elaine, have returned from Dodge Park near Portland where they visited for several days.

Wallace Sprenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sprenger has been quite ill, but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Shedd and daughter Rita visited at Lebanon, Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hester.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Archibald, and daughter Martha, and Marian Layman went to the fair at the last of the week.

Al Kibby took charge of Gardner's Service station and grocery while Mr. and Mrs. Gardner went to Salem.

Mrs. L. Pennell and son Lehnad, visited over the week-end with daughter and sister, Mrs. Anna Pugh. Returning to the home in Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blankenship visited at Creswell over the week-end, stopping for a while to shop in Eugene.

Those planning on hunting in eastern Oregon this next week are Marjell Githins, Harold Pugh, Clay Stone, C. W. Malson, Tom Zimmerman and John Cox.

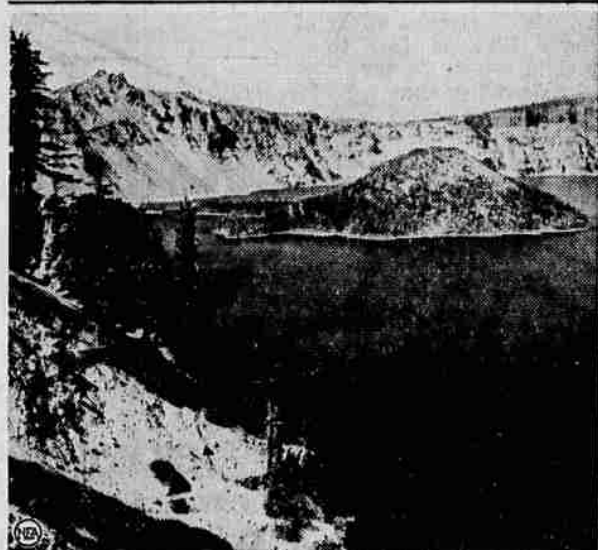

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wimmer moved their things to Roseburg Sunday.

The Chinese art of carving jade is known to have originated before the year 2000 B. C.

Watch the waffles fly when you make your own syrup
at one fourth the cost with

Schilling
Maple flavoring

CRATER LAKE STAMPS OUT!

Jutting up from the clear waters of Crater Lake, as shown here, Wizard Island, with its tree-covered slopes, is a striking scenic feature of Crater Lake national park, a picture of which adorns one of the new stamps issued by the postoffice department. The new stamps are now available and in heavy demand by Oregon collectors.

Foreign War Vets Planning Benefit

The Eugene Veterans of Foreign Wars are planning a big benefit dance at the armory on Halloween and the ticket sale for the affair is already on, according to Bayard Welch, commander of the post.

This is the first time the Veterans of Foreign Wars have attempted to raise funds for the relief of the needy. Families of distressed members of the organization will be the beneficiaries, primarily, of the fund to be raised and the money will be used in other relief work. It is announced.

It is planned to make the dance an annual affair, Mr. Welch said. Already the tickets are selling well and it is expected to sell at least a thousand of them. They are a dollar each.

Halsey Notes

HALSEY, Sept. 13.—(Special)—The Methodist Sunday school held Rally day Sunday and an interesting program was held in observance.

Donald Braunwell of Corvallis was in Halsey Sunday.

The revival meeting being held in the local Christian church with Joe Deatherage of Arkansas in charge will continue all this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Harding and daughters Alice and Margaret and sons Frank and Dick spent the week-end in Salem.

Mrs. Will Kirk returned home Wednesday from Washington, where she had visited her sister, Mrs. Amos Setters.

Miss Mary G. Smith is working in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Meisner left Sunday morning for their home in Los Angeles, after visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Starnes.

Miss Ruth Tuttle, who works in Corvallis, spent Sunday at her home here.

Ardella Falk is leaving this week to stay with Mrs. Bessie Gumbly and attend high school at Harrisburg.

Mrs. Quimby will teach the Bible school this winter and Ardella will assist with the housework.

Mrs. Ina Hale was called to Brownsville Sunday by the illness of her daughter Helen Simmons, Mrs. Ella Crewe of Peoria took her place at the Harvey Clingan home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bressler and children visited Mrs. Bressler's mother, Mrs. Henry at Toledo one day last week. They found her quite ill.

The Methodist Missionary society met at the B. M. Miller home last Friday. This meeting was in honor of the extension members, Mrs. J. H. Vannice led the lesson and Mrs. Charles Straley had charge of the devotionals. Those present were Mrs. Frank Hald-

School at Mapleton Opens September 4

MAPLETON, Sept. 13.—(Special)—School at Mapleton, district 32, opened on September 4 with Chris Wilde principal of the high school and Miss Metzler assistant.

The grade school staff includes Mr. Sem, principal; Miss Leonora Cox, teacher in the fifth and sixth grades; Miss Mabel Fredericksen teacher in the third and fourth and Mrs. Mary Neely teacher in the first and second grades.

The enrollment in high school is less than last year, but some students are away picking hops and a larger number is expected soon. Attendance at grade school is 105 pupils.

This year a school bus is being operated in place of the school boat that has accommodated the children since the school was first organized. About thirty-six pupils ride from Beck to Mapleton on the bus and about 20 from the Rainrock to Mapleton part of the district. Mr. Clark Johnson is bus driver and janitor at the high school. Mr. Robert Goude is grade school janitor.

The members on the school board this year are: George Johnson, Archie Knowles, Laurence Plowman and Nettie Whitaker, clerk.

Alpine Items

ALPINE, Sept. 13.—(Special)—Ash P. Harlan died on Tuesday of last week at the I. O. O. F. home in Portland. Mr. Harlan lived in Alpine a number of years ago and will be remembered by the old timers here.

Enil Price left for California the first part of last week. He expects to be gone for several months and will be employed in a lumber yard while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McCallum from Longview, Wash., were visitors at the home of Mrs. McCallum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee, last week.

Mrs. Stella Hiller from Gladstone was also a visitor at the Lee home.

Miss Louise Davidson who is employed in Corvallis, spent a four day vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davidson. She returned to Corvallis on Sunday evening.

Folks from Alpine who visited the state fair during the past week were Mrs. L. C. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tompkins, Miss Loreta Peck, Mr. Guy Eacius and daughters June and Kathleen, Mr. Geo. Urbach, Mrs. Walter Larsen, Mr. Donald Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Christensen, Mr. Leo Trank, Miss Lucille Goble, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carter, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Martin and daughter Evelyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bales and family have returned from eastern Oregon where they lived for the past year and are now living on the Sufflow place. Mr. Bales is helping Mr. Sufflow harvest his apple crop.

Miss Helen Davidson, who is working at the Ben Howard home spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davidson, Miss Dorothy Phillips and brother.

At the Thursday business meeting of the Needle club, Mrs. Dolly Goodrich was elected vice-president. Quilting on Sept. 20 will be at the home of blocks for Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett and Mrs. Naomi Schmitt were finished, and a double wedding ring quilt started for Mrs. Dolly Goodrich. The meeting was held.

Clyde Carlier left Monday morning for Wolf Creek where he has employment.

Sherman Goodrich received a severe injury to one eye Monday while working with a cable in the woods at Lindsay Lumber company.

Word has been received from Garland Menger that he has been moved from Wendling to the CCC camp at Mill City.

Clyde Bennett is helping shingle a house for Mr. Hoeftin at Swisschome.

SINCE 1852

LYONS

Belvista Wines

COCKTAILS
CORDIALS • LIQUORS

THE E. G. LYONS & SONS CO.
San Francisco Los Angeles New York

Clifford, who spent the summer visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Trask, returned to their home at Klamath Falls last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davidson and family spent Sunday at Lancaster visiting Mr. Davidson's aunts, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Davidson.

George Oaks held a public auction sale at his home last Tuesday afternoon.

The apple packing house, owned and operated by George Thornquist has been working for the past two weeks. The orchard crews went to work a few weeks earlier. A good crop is reported and the packing house will be working for about two weeks.

News of Vida

VIDA, Sept. 13.—(Special)—A million salmon eggs for spawning were taken to the hatcheries here on Monday. Since the first of the month the men have been at work at Hendricks bridge where racks were built in the late spring to catch the salmon. Each day eggs to about the amount of one million are taken in trucks from Hendricks bridge up the river to the hatcheries.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Post made a trip to Pendleton this week to attend the round up.

Rev. George Wilbur, Sunday school missionary from Salem was at McKenzie bridge Sunday and conducted services and while there the Bridge Sunday school decided to join Vida Sunday school on September 16, for an all-day program with a covered dish dinner at noon. Anyone interested is invited to attend. Mrs. Stobey is superintendent of the Bridge Sunday school and Mrs. Swanson of Vida.

A new barn is almost completed on the Nelson Coffey place here. A. W. Finzee recently completed a new barn at his home in Lebanon.

Mrs. J. L. Hart of Santa Clara is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Minney for a visit.

Mrs. Emma Kelly of Cottage Grove is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Post.

Mrs. Zoe Whittenberg of Eugene is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Bundy near Rainbow.

Mrs. Louise Daniels of McKenzie Bridge recently returned from Portland and Ariel, Wash. She was a guest of her sister, Mrs. F. M. Cone at Washington.

At Lobster Valley

LOBSTER VALLEY, Sept. 13.—(Special)—Several Lobster Valley people have gone to the hop yards, among whom are C. Sapp, Claude

Sawyer Re-elected Reclamation Chief

KLAMATH FALLS, Sept. 13.—(Special)—Robert W. Sawyer, Bend publisher, was re-elected president of the Oregon reclamation congress, and Corvallis was selected as the 1935 meeting place at the concluding session of the convention here. W. L. Powers of Corvallis was again elected secretary.

Amendment of Oregon laws to permit collection of certain assessments, as well as charges for operation and maintenance, through the offices of the secretary and district manager, was suggested by the congress. Resolutions adopted urged continuance of soil surveys, surface stream flow measurements, and underground water development.

Mosby Creek Items

MOSBY CREEK, Sept. 13.—(Special)—The Waldon school started Monday with Mrs. Della Hodges as teacher.

A barn full of hay belonging to Charlie Kouse caught fire Sunday afternoon. The cause was that the hay had been stumped down in the barn too much. It was not destroyed.

Bernice Kerr and Howard Conn of Cottage Grove visited Sunday at the Doc Pitcher home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dugan and family attended the fair last week at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lewis of California are visiting this week at the Lee Dugan home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kirk have moved their household goods into one of Stub Mosby's houses at Waldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley Whips of Cottage Grove visited Sunday at the Claude Abercrombie home.

Butte Mooney and daughters Mildred and Jean and Lon Henderson went to the hop fields last week to pick hops.

Bertha Castle, Irma and Ila Myers, Vivian Abercrombie, Marie Kennedy, Helen Jones, Bruce Frazer, and Jay Linbaugh, are all attending high school in Cottage Grove.

At Lobster Valley

LOBSTER VALLEY, Sept. 13.—(Special)—Several Lobster Valley people have gone to the hop yards, among whom are C. Sapp, Claude

Hendrix, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sapp, and daughter, Mrs. Helen Hendrix, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stuart, Ila Taylor, Verl and Vivian Skeels.

Misses Helen and Esther Seits, returned from Newport Friday where they visited several days with the latter's sister.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Holmes, and Mrs. McSherry spent Thursday at Waldport.

Mr. and Mrs. John Orr of Woodburn are spending their vacation here on their ranch. They along with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Simpson of Kings Valley, spent Sunday on the beaches near Waldport and Newport.

Vie Seits made a business trip to Philomath Thursday.

Dick Wolkan is slowly improving after a serious attack of the flu. His mother and brother Earl of Beaver creek, were here several days helping care for him, but returned home Thursday.

LOVE'S BEAUTY SALON—P. 20

Get them ready for School
With Poll Parrot Shoes

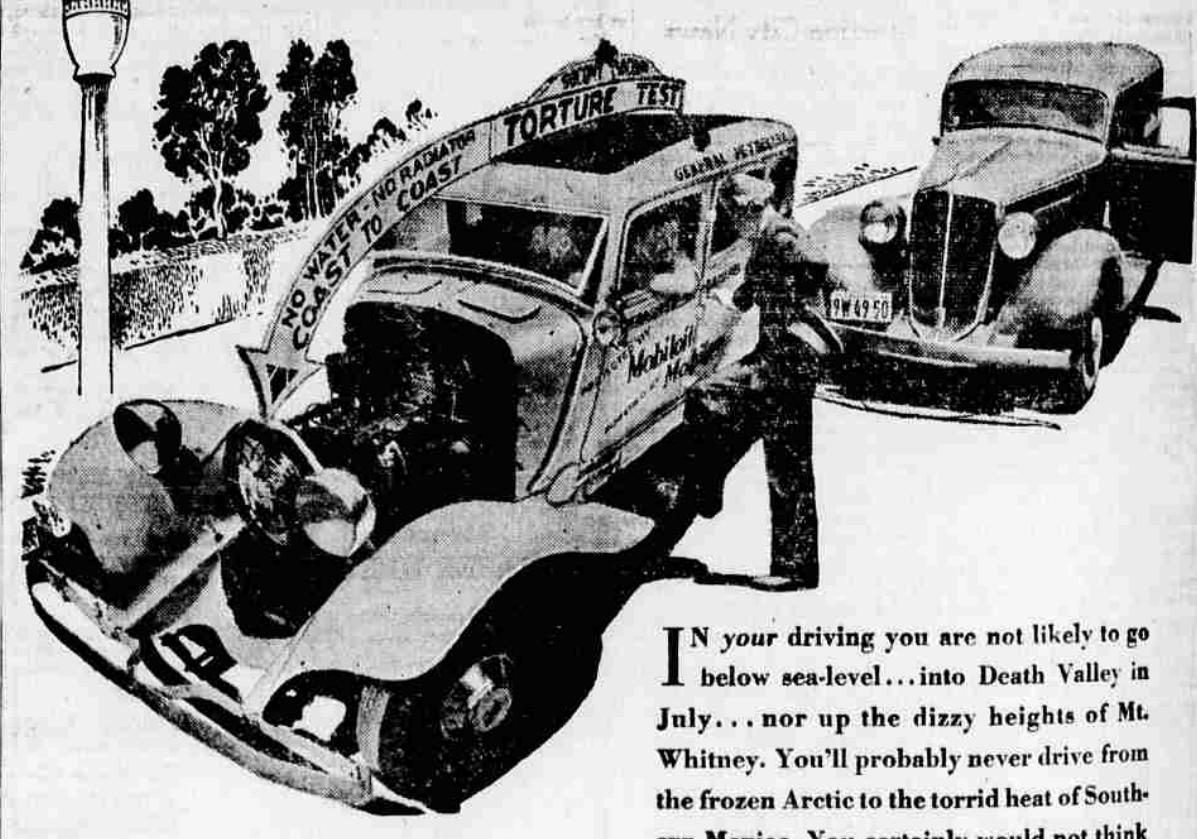

Yes Sir!... School days are almost here again and, of course, the children will need new shoes. Why not start them off on the right foot in smartly styled all leather Poll Parrots? They'll look better, feel better, and enjoy the freedom of motion so essential to the good health of young bones and muscles.

Poll Parrots are good for growing feet... flexible, comfortable, and made of all-leather to give long wear and genuine economy.

$1.29 to $3.45

GILBERT SHOE CO.
881 WILLAMETTE

"TORTURE TESTED" -what's that to me?"

IN your driving you are not likely to go below sea-level...into Death Valley in July...nor up the dizzy heights of Mt. Whitney. You'll probably never drive from the frozen Arctic to the torrid heat of Southern Mexico. You certainly would not think of driving your car without water...without even a radiator...from the Atlantic to the Pacific. But these are torture tests that have actually been applied to Mobilgas and Mobiloil to prove their dependable performance under the most severe conditions you can ever encounter...and with a wide margin of safety to spare. That's what torture tested means to you.

Buy where you see the red flying horse

Mobilgas
with TETRAETHYL

Mobiloil Companion to —World's largest selling motor oil
New Grades, 100% pure Pennsylvania

GENERAL PETROLEUM CORPORATION—A SOCONY-VACUUM COMPANY

LOOK! WHITE AS SNOW - SWEET AS CLOVER WITHOUT SCRUBBING OR BOILING!

Seeing is believing! A Rinso wash is 4 or 5 shades whiter than clothes washed the old-fashioned way. Don't take my word for it; try Rinso and see!

Rinso saves scrubbing; its lively suds soak out dirt. Clothes last 2 or 3 times longer. You'll save money.

A little Rinso gives a lot of thick, lasting suds—even in hardest water. Safe for colors.

Recommended by the makers of 40 famous washers. Great for dishwashing and all cleaning. So easy on the hands. Tested and approved by Good Housekeeping Institute.

AMERICA'S BIGGEST-SELLING PACKAGE SOAP

Rinso